This is all right and may be approved. But I do not see the necessity for referring all these cases to the C. O. The deduction from leave salary in favour of the acting man is laid down in the regulations, and the payment might be approved locally, as in the case, I understand, of these colonies which grant half pay leave under the Col. Regs.

The Protectorate has a manual is as well able to check the claims as we are; in fact, in the case of subordinate officials (I am sending on a Hyunda case of this), we have not the materials to check the claims at all, so far as I know

[? In approving, say that the claims need not in future be referred here but may be referred to the Com. & approved] 170

Under Act Reg. 108. an officer in Pay and Messing position and only allowed to draw $\frac{1}{2}$ salary of his substitution of $\frac{1}{2}$ salary of his acting offtr. during the absence of his superior officer On this envelope he ought only to draw $\frac{3}{4}$ of his own salary + $\frac{1}{4}$ of Mr. Holt's, as head of as per order the whole of his salary + $\frac{1}{4}$ of Mr. Holt's. But perhaps it is not worth while interfering with this detail till an order is received the whole system of leave Regs.
