(Subject.)

Telegraph Inspector Pelling. Promotion to post vacated by A. Watson.

Thought Wilson was a subaltern in 3rd Battⁿ K. A. R. & Post Company Commandant, vide my tel No 86. I do not know Wilson mentioned in your tel of April 11th.

Mr. Read

(Minutes)

His tel. as sb is in circulation but we are not concerned with it. He has taken "pardonable" in our tel. to mean "recommended for vacant post" and understood as to refer to a promotion in the K. A. R. without waiting for the despatch to which our telegram referred.

I have ascertained that the word "Pelling" was not omitted in copying out our telegram, and I do not understand how the word has been interpreted.

(Review of 10/10/52)

Have now got the H.A.A. papers. The tel no. 86 is with no. 308 and refers only to ^{the} recommendation and promotion of Lieut. Wilson. But in 10852 Lieut. Stewart asked that Major Rathjau might be awarded from the 3rd Battⁿ and the resulting company from Company Commande offered to Lieut. Boulton. The tel no. 10852 was ~~also~~ dated 4/2/52 and it is conceivable that, and the fact that Lieut. Wilson is the senior Sabaltein which led in D.S. to believe that one tel of the same date containing a reference to Wilson related to Lieut. Wilson's promotion.
