

matter. He said that it was well known that the want of reliable firms on the Coast, was a great hindrance to settlers, and being regarded as a means of obviating this difficulty, that the Victoria Office at the Coast should be instructed to see that all imported stock is properly put on the railway.
 & The suggestion seems to me not unreasonable in the present circumstances of the Protectorate, and I shall be glad to be informed whether you consider it might not be adopted.
