With regard to the proposals in Major C's private letter to start home which I have indicated by your journal, I do not think that we can act on the same charges regarding trading by officials & the collection of fees etc.
 The question of trading by officials has been already dealt with - see Comm<sup>n</sup>

I don't think that charges of this sort ought to be made, even in a private letter, unless the writer is prepared to substantiate them. We can, of course, take no notice of such allegations.

my applications are as follows:

1. to cut rubber (to tap the trees or vines to be carried out, under proper supervision, so as not to injure the trees.) and also, to cut timber, in the CHEPALUNGU FOREST, which forest lies in a part of British East Africa, at present, unmapped. It is south of Buret (Buret lying to the west of Solih) and also about a day's
