Establishment of an Agricultural Bank

Enter a formal appeal, on behalf of East Afr. Exploration Com. for the on lines similar to those embodied in the King's letter to Mr Churchill

(Minutes)

Mr. Arthur

I understand that Lord Elgin has received a commission from Sir F. D. Fryer on the subject.

I think that it will be sufficient to merely ask the rest of the letter.

and Mr. Churchill has received a letter from Lord Hirdlife

This Mr. Lodge is not a British representative person, and, if he is the promoter of this scheme, I do hardly think that it will come to anything.

remember that a concessionary Syndicate ready to take up (and sell) large part of concession. Mr. Fawcett & Mr.
Gudge do not inspire me with any confidence and I don't think they should be encouraged.

I do not think there is any concession
Mr. Gudge & Mr. Hindley & Mr. Fawcett I am not sure. But do not let us become involved in it. I am dislike S. A. concession parties. I believe Mr. Hindley & Fawcett proposal is an honest offer. Whether real or not I cannot say. But it should be well received.
Mr. Gudge seems to me to be a new feature.

1912 2/2/16

A. A. Archibald
I saw Mr. F. F. Jones letter to Lord Elgin a time ago. It should be filed I should think that Mr. Gudge's etc. need not be brought before the S. A. office. Other "officers" are ready to care before him.

1914 2/2/16

I suggest that we need to send a letter to the S. A. office.

My dear Sir,

My dear Sir

Referring to the communications which have been made to you by Sir F. Taylor, regarding the proposed establishment of an Agricultural Bank in the British East Africa Protectorates.

I now have the honour to make a formal application, on behalf of the East Africa Exploration Syndicate, for the establishment of such a Bank, on lines similar to those embodied in Sir Handley's letter to Mr. Churchill, & on such terms as may be hereinafter mutually agreed upon.

This application is kindly referred with a view to securing priority of consideration
