HINDLE HALL,
WORDSWORTH

The Secretary of the

Sir,

I beg to acknowledge your letter of Aug 20th but must respectfully state somewhat disappointed at its contents. I would refer to paragraph 2 of your Aug 17th no 30085. I desire to apply for favours, but cannot give an assurance to do away with difficulties that would arise in the case of its being necessary to transfer a magistrate in the ordinary course of business from a letter to a woman. Said and also to graduate the pay so that lower men, at whatever station he might be placed, would receive an increase according to his ~~years~~ experience. I suggested in last minutes that after Mr. Dore's transfer to the Police while the circumstances of pay it should rise by ~~an amount~~ £5 to £5000

 The suggestion of adopted would be intended any increase of the total salary of the Department as it then stood, and to do away with difficulties that would arise in the case of its being necessary

 of business from a better to a worse paid and also to graduate the pay so that every man, at whatever station he might be placed,
 would receive an increase according to his varied experience. I suggested in last year's report that after Mr. Dore's transfer to the Police at the commencement of the year it should rise by a certain amount £25 to £5000.

This suggestion if adopted would entailed any increase of the total salary of the Department as it then stood;

an additional magistrate 1840 to be to make that the same rule
