Introduction

 $\bullet$ ...this is the 1ast phase of channel design process (see Seed Enterprises Management Institute ...those firms who let some negotiatory functions to be assumed by intermediaries are faced with this task.

Paradigm of the Channel Design Decision (Steps)

- Need: Recognize need for channel design decision
- Objectives; Setting and Coordinating Distribution Objectives
- 3. Functions: Specifying the Distribution Tasks (Functions)
- 4. Alternatives: Developing Possible Alternative Channel Structures:
- 5. Evaluation: Evaluating the Variables utc Affecting Channel Structure
- 6. Best option: Choosing the "Best" Channel Structure
- 7. Member Selection : Select the channel members

In general

• ...the more selective

the intensity of distribution

• the more emphasis the firm titute needs to place on selection of its intermediaries (Agrodealers).

The selection process de la constant de la constan

This consists of three steps

1. Identify prospective channel members

2. Develop and apply the selection criteria (in a Seed Interprises Management Institute University of Nairobi

3. Secure the prospective

channel members

1.Identification of prospective Agrodealer

The channel manager/manager in this step is expected to determine the sources where the prospective Agrodealer could be identified.

Avaidabléesources Management Institute

- Field sales organization
- Trade sources
- Reseller inquiries

Customers

- Advertising etc
- This stage pose some problems due to the many sources available to choose from titute
- Each sourcerhas weaknesses and strengths

2. Applying selection criteria

- General criteria is given as the starting point for most firms.
- The criteria must be flexible enough to allow for changing conditions

...you are expected to develop actemplate ute capturing these variables or more.

See below

These are:

- Credit and financial condition= use credit reference bureaus/let them give you conducts of other suppliers
- Examine Facilities = Storage facilities (space/condition/security/cool/free from pests,dry,etc)
- Sales strength /sales-team (qualifications, experience, etc/ customer service, maintaining product quality, product knownledge to educate customers,
- Product lines/ category of products carried/brands/any stock returned for the previous year if any and the quantity and on what/

- Reputation/ customer satisfaction (trust) will earn your co good reputation/ check their integrity well/they are an extension of your co.
- Market coverage/ establish whether they have an established customer base and their location if you are new in the area this is for growth purpose/
- Sales performance -market share/prior years sales/growth Spattenn/erprises Management Institute
- Match firm ability to supplier seeds with the Agro-dealer performanceduring short notice, etc
