THE EAST AFRICAN FARM & HOME JOURNAL. New "Standard" Publication.

This is a notable work in the history of journalism in East Africa. It is the first time the publication of the first issue of The East African Farm and Home Journal.

The object of the East African Farm and Home Journal is to provide the "Current Column" which takes the place of the long articles in more general publications, from which the following is excerpted:—

The main industry in Eastern Africa, taking in the whole and wide each thing as Kenya, Tanganyika diamonds and Uganda petroleum, is agriculture.

THE FARMER'S WIFE.

The lady of the house is not so much the backbone of the household as she is being considered from the point of view, but in Kenya there is a greater interest in the views of the Colony and its welfare than the European women. It will be our pleasure to bring a series of these portraits.

These home interests, their special difficulties and handicaps, and to their children—the young generation upon whose shoulders are placed a burden, the weight of which is quite unknown to them today. Attributable as the first number, it must not be taken as typical. The first number will have a much greater scope than is apparent in this heraldy note which has been provided solely by some of our correspondents. The magazine is complete in the sense that the complete information has led to the formation of the International Conference on the subject of the magazine.

THE STORAGE BATTERY.

The Mixture of Sulphuric Acid and Water.

LAWYER'S INFORMATION.

The "Chicago Commission" published by the Chicago Eastern Storage Company, Ltd., 115 North Dearborn Street, Chicago, Ill., U.S.A., states that the mixture of sulphuric acid and water is the most important factor in the life of a storage battery. The mixture of sulphuric acid and water is the most important factor in the life of a storage battery. The mixture of sulphuric acid and water is the most important factor in the life of a storage battery.

REASONS WHY.

It is claimed by battery companies amongst engineers and others that a storage battery will last longer if the electrolyte is made up of sulphuric acid and water in the proportion of 1 part of acid to 17 parts of water. This is a mistake. The correct proportion is 1 part of acid to 18 parts of water.

ACTION IN THE PLATES.

Chemical action between the sulphuric acid and the active material of the positive and negative plates takes place in the electrolyte. The active material of the positive plate is lead dioxide and the active material of the negative plate is spongy lead.

TEMPERATURE.

At all temperatures the chemical action between the sulphuric acid and the active material of the positive and negative plates takes place. The rate of action is increased as the temperature rises.

WATER.

The water in the electrolyte is used up in the chemical action between the sulphuric acid and the active material of the positive and negative plates. It is necessary to keep the electrolyte at the correct level.

British Motor Exports

NOT YET RECOVERED FROM POST-WAR BOOM.

During the past two years there has been a considerable improvement in the financial position of the British motor industry, but it has by no means yet recovered from the depression of 1932. The industry was heavily over-extended, and after a short respite to produce figures for the first half of 1935 it is expected to show a further improvement in its financial position.

most the large prospective demand for motor vehicles which must be met by a considerable increase in the production of motor vehicles. It is expected that the industry will be able to meet this demand by the end of the year, and that the financial position will be further improved by the end of the year.

Devices to Help Engine.

NEW OIL STILL NECESSARY EVERY LAW MILES.

A plan of recent invention is a phase in the growing popularity of devices which will help to keep the engine in better condition. It is expected that the industry will be able to meet this demand by the end of the year, and that the financial position will be further improved by the end of the year.

Apert from heated substances which had improved surfaces, which made possible the complete representation of the fuel, the temperature regulation of the engine, there are a number of other devices which are being developed. These include the use of high speed engines, which are being developed for use in the transport of goods and passengers.

A PRODUCT OF GENERAL MOTORS LIMITED.

TO-DAY is one of motorized living and working—of arduous movement of increased accomplishment. The problem, squarely up to motorcar designers, engineers and manufacturers, has been the construction of a type of engine and motorcar to meet the vital and urgent needs of this new day.

- Four-wheel Brakes,
- Oil Filler,
- Air Filter,
- Completely Sealed Chassis,
- Cast-Iron Springing,
- Dipping Head Lights,
- 77 Horse Power,
- Flange-light Steering,
- Light Pressure Clutch,
- Valve-in-Head Engine,
- Remarkable Fuel Economy

Nothing will so surely emphasize the vast difference between ordinary motorcars and the new Buick Six as the new delight you, yourself, feel the first time you drive a Buick. The new Buick has a dash, pickup—no other car can equal. Its driver will enjoy a new mastery of the road. Its responsiveness to the lightest touch is amazing. The magnificent ease with which the new Buick is handled will impress you at once.

There are more Buicks registered throughout the world than any other car except Chevrolets and Fords. Buick predominance in registrations means extra miles turned in by old cars that would not be running at all if they were not Buicks—built as only Buick builds. The oldest cars in regular operation in East Africa, are Buicks. Buick engineering has accomplished this by thinking always of superior stamina and placing it in every Buick part, and then, by placing around that stamina such protection as the famous "Sealed Chassis" and the "Triple Sealed Engine." All Buick operating parts are barricaded from dirt and wear to insure longer life with less upkeep.
