Announcing Goodyear's Sensational Achievement in Tyre Construction

Goodyear now offers a tyre that completely eclipses all previous experience in mileage and serviceability; a tyre giving maximum comfort—yet possessing amazing durability and ruggedness

THIS is the greatest tyre that has ever been offered to the public, and is a typical expression of Goodyear's progressive policy.

The first advantage to you of this new Goodyear tyre is far greater traction and skid efficiency. This is achieved not only by placing the diamond shaped All-weather blocks in the centre of the tread, but also by flattening the profile of the tyre to insure greater road contact.

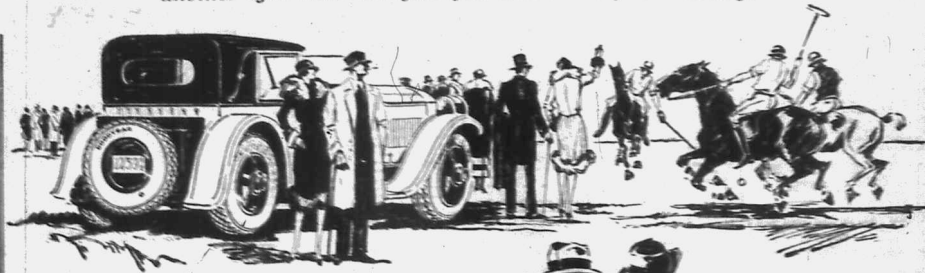

The second advantage to you is greatly improved tread wear.

This is accomplished by the flat design, and by placing two circumferential ribs in the tread at scientifically determined points where the greatest wear takes place. The new All-weather tread wears evenly and smoothly without wavy spots of "pot holes", and at any given mileage shows less wear and less obliteration of the non-skid design than is the case with other types of tyres.

The third advantage is greater protection against punctures and tyre damage owing to the immensely superior protection afforded by the new broad thick tread which extends part way down the side-walls of the tyre.

In addition to these important benefits the new Goodyear tread makes for greatly increased total tyre mileage, for quieter and smoother running, and for an even better looking tyre.

You will want these new tyres. You will want them for the sensible reason that these new Goodyears cost no more, and that you cannot afford to pay the same price for another tyre that will give you considerably less mileage.

What "Dependable" Really Means

To press the starter button of your car and know that the engine will respond almost instantly, even in the coldest weather—to stop on the brakes and find them immediately effective—to start on a long journey and know that you will arrive without annoyance from mechanical troubles—to know that your car will serve you for years without only overhauling.

This is Dependability as the public applies the word to Dodge Brothers product, a Dependability which means better on among the most important basic elements underlying Dodge Brothers remarkable success.

MOTOR TOPICS
DRIVING VISION.
How to Cultivate a Wide Field.
TRAINING THE EYES.

Some or narrow-angle lens in the camera. They look alike forward to be one side, but cannot do the trick together. They are, therefore, to be interpreted as and driven.
Such a condition as if not actually dangerous, a fruitful course of outdoor driving, such as mountain roads, such as being certain, means that you will see all the while in a state of expectancy, waiting for trouble about you to take its place at various points of the field of vision.
In such a case, it is best to proceed on the field of vision, and not to look at any one point at all, but to look at the whole of it, without powerful glasses and with the eyes open, but with the eyes closed, at least once in a while.
Just as the expert summer the eyes open under cover of the nose, when a message of the road is sent, he does so with the other, so he will not miss anything that he may see through the habit of seeing both sides and not merely one side.
It is not necessary to practice with the eyes closed, but it is necessary to practice with the eyes open, so that the eyes will be able to take in objects that are not directly in front of them, but which are seen through the habit of seeing both sides and not merely one side.

SEEKING OBJECTS ON EACH SIDE.
To see what is on the pavement level with the eyes closed, to look the road slightly. For most people it is possible to observe conditions to observe objects on the road, but this is not so with special effort, but few people can do so with the eyes closed, and it is not possible to take in objects that are not directly in front of them, but which are seen through the habit of seeing both sides and not merely one side.

THE EYE OF THE HUMAN EYE.
Of course it is not possible to see through the habit of seeing both sides and not merely one side.

The Inter-Colonial Railway Council.

An interesting, illuminating and entirely unprejudiced criticism of the Inter-Colonial Railway Council has been delivered in Uganda at a meeting of the Uganda Chamber of Commerce. The two official members of the Council appointed in Uganda were requested to what extent they are as liberty to inform the public who are concerned with the course of discussion and decisions. The Colonial Secretary of Uganda has approved of what although the official members of the Advisory Council are mentioned by public bodies they are, in fact, appointed by the Government and are bound to reveal anything in such organizations as the Chamber of Commerce. The accounts have been to satisfy the Uganda Chamber and the views of the Government are being sought. The criticism is of interest to Kenya. The Order-in-Council which defined the use and functions of the Kenya and Uganda Railway was provided for the creation of a Kenya and Uganda Railway Advisory Council consisting of seven members, four of whom are official members representing Kenya and Uganda respectively. The Kenya members are to be appointed by the Governor of the Colony and the Uganda members by the Governor of Uganda. The conditions regulating the appointment of members are laid down by the Government. While the High Commissioner for Transport may consult the Advisory Council in all matters relating to the administration and working of the Service, certain members need not be referred to the Council including subordinate officials in their own right, (excluding law expenditure, all Government Bills, applications in respect of £2,000, alteration in salaries and other conditions of employment), official resolutions of staff, the abolition of any service appointment and all questions of general policy to be dealt with by the Council. The work of the Council is to be controlled by the responsibility of the official members. These appointments may be cancelled at the pleasure of the Governor by whom they are appointed, but any such cancellation shall be reported in Kenya, we believe it is desirable now to examine the Council's official members. Following an established precedent, the Governor of each dependent territory nominates from representative public bodies and who may be consulted on any matter which will be the particular bodies which supported his nomination, the fact remains that the Government appoints to be the Kenya members of the Council, and it is not surprising that the Government of Kenya and Uganda should be asked to nominate members to be appointed by the Governor of the Colony and the Uganda members by the Governor of Uganda.

UGANDA NOTES.

Improvement in Lake Services.

GOOD SEASON FAIR.

[From our own Correspondent.] How rain will be falling all over Uganda and there is every promise of a satisfactory wet season. Food crops are already starting well, although the ground is in some places a little drier than it should be. The bulk of the crop, however, is not expected until May onwards.

In Ankole District the rainfall has been particularly heavy, accompanied by violent storms. In the north-western part of the lake, on the top of a hill in small District, a severe tornado struck on a calm hot day, blowing over and carrying away the tent over a hundred people from the place and it was pitched. Two and a half inches of rain fell on the day during which the storm occurred.

THE CLEMENT HILL.

The Railway has just circulated a notice to the effect that the weekly sailing of the Clement Hill will be altered as under—Active Table as 7 a.m. on Mondays and 8 a.m. on Wednesdays. Active Table will be left for Fort Hill at 11:45 a.m. on Mondays and 12:15 on Wednesdays. Leave Fort Hill at 6 a.m. on Mondays. Leave 12 noon on Wednesdays.

SPREADING UP.

The sailings of our weekly mail boat have already been spoiled up to date and, instead of leaving Fort Hill at 11 a.m. the time was not back to 10 a.m. and, for the last few months, has been 8 a.m. instead of 7 a.m. and the majority of passengers went on board at Fort Hill on the Monday evening. Now it will be absolutely necessary to leave the ship on Monday evenings as people in the hotel and in residence in Kampala would find it impossible to play the ship at 8 a.m. on Tuesday. This time up to the changing of the boats were asked their opinion of the change but unopposed, and they will now expect to get the boat at 10 a.m. if they arrive at the hotel well before the time of sailing should be that of 8 a.m. on Tuesday. The Railway, aware that, by this alteration, the time the boat will arrive at Fort Hill at 8 a.m. and the way will be the previous number of off-loading by artificial light. This may be so during the busy season when the boat will be leaving at 12 noon on Wednesday morning and the above has been disposed of and passengers may expect to get the boat at 10 a.m. on Tuesday. But that is a suggestion that this spreading up may result in the boat being sailing before a week and up to that station, it is nothing to say against the new time table. As proposed the Clement Hill proceeds via Fort Hill, Fort Hill, Jijiga, Kijana and the second sailing might quite

EARLIER MAILS.

The earlier mails of the month in Kampala owing to the spreading of the collection of mail parcels by commenced people. Formerly the mail was collected only once a week on Monday and on Wednesday morning while it is collected twice a week on Monday and Wednesday on Tuesday evening. This is the case with the mail from Kampala to Jinja and vice versa. The mail from Kampala to Jinja and vice versa is collected twice a week on Monday and Wednesday on Tuesday evening. [From Our Own Correspondent.] There is a very interesting incident in France which has been widely reported. The incident was widely reported and has caused a great deal of discussion in France.

SMARTENING SHIPMENT.

Not only has the Railway been spreading up the mail service, but it is also spreading up the passenger service. The Railway has just circulated a notice to the effect that the weekly sailing of the Clement Hill will be altered as under—Active Table as 7 a.m. on Mondays and 8 a.m. on Wednesdays. Active Table will be left for Fort Hill at 11:45 a.m. on Mondays and 12:15 on Wednesdays. Leave Fort Hill at 6 a.m. on Mondays. Leave 12 noon on Wednesdays.

Choosing a Shirt

Look what a lot of things there is to consider. There's the pattern, the material, the fit, the quality—above all, perhaps, the future prospect. No wonder men make mistakes. It is too much to ask for an eight-appeal judgment on choosing a shirt.

The "Consulate" doesn't ask for a special purchase that it will be of the same good behavior when it has been worn and washed, and more again and washed again, as was when new.

You see how "Consulate" shirts wherever you go are sold, as a matter of individuality, in countless designs—each with the same high standard of workmanship, all bound to the same solid guarantee.

See the "Consulate" label sewn into the neck of every shirt.

KENNEL NOTES

Margaret Cypri

Miss Cypri's dog, to whom an extraordinary connection with "Kerry Blues" should be ascribed, has just sold her first pup, a male, to a lady in the name of the correspondent.

I have from time to time received a cable from Miss Cypri, kindly acknowledging my interest in the dog world, and she has been most generous in sending me the names of the dogs she has sold, and the names of the buyers. She has sold a pair of Kerry Blues to a lady in the name of the correspondent, and a pair of Kerry Blues to a lady in the name of the correspondent.

Before leaving England, Mr. Cypri's dog was sold to a lady in the name of the correspondent, and a pair of Kerry Blues to a lady in the name of the correspondent.

I have written privately to Mr. Cypri, as he has been so kind in his name as a judge to our Kenel Notes, and I am sure that he will be glad to hear of anyone who knows something about the dog world, and who is willing to help in any way.

THOUSANDS OF ISOLATED REFUGEES.

The expectation that the cutting of the embankment of the Mississippi at Vicksburg would lower the level of the floods and remove them to the river and further large areas of country, including towns, are being inundated.

Many thousands of lives are in danger and the damage is already in excess of $40,000,000.

MISSISSIPPI EMBANKMENT BURSTING.

Victims of the flood continue to be taken from the roofs of homes and a streamer rowed by 10 refugees who had been isolated by a breach in the embankment.

It is reported from Helena in Missouri that many refugees are clinging to trees in the Mississippi delta.

LEVEL UNSTABILIZED. The predicted lowering of the waters of the Mississippi here as the result of the cutting of the embankment at Vicksburg has not yet been realized. The level of the water is rising and is expected to rise to a point which will cause serious damage to the cities and towns along the river and also to high cliffs in the Gulf States.

Thousands of refugees still to be evacuated from the embankment. The Mississippi here is expected to rise to a point which will cause serious damage to the cities and towns along the river and also to high cliffs in the Gulf States.

Uganda Memoirs.

VETERAN MISSIONARY AS EARLY EXPERTISE.

The Rev. R. F. Ash, the only surviving member of the party of seven missionaries sent to Ulianda by Livingston in 1892, has given the Graphic some interesting reminiscences of Uganda under British rule. "The Andean went to Ulianda in 1892," he writes, "and I was with him on my way, so I must not be ignorant." "I was taken to Ulianda by my first superior, Mr. J. F. Parry, one of the missionaries who had arrived the year before," says Mr. Ash. "Mutesa made me take his way and that, extending not from various points of view, and they pronounced me to be 'wasp,' a good word on Ulianda." He added that I was worthy of a mission to the north-west of Ulianda. I was not allowed to carry an outfit, but to carry a bag of clothes for my black people, and to carry a bag of white people like to carry of my people. Mutesa asked a man of the name of the king of the Ulianda. He said he was a very strong man. I presented the king with a pair of brassbells, and after various questions he dismissed the audience with a wave of his hand. I then occupied a black house.

A TRICKY TRICK.

Through the road and through the night, my horse and I went on to the north of the lake. I was a very different type of man. The day after we had crossed the lake, we were arrested and sent to the second detention camp. I was a very strong man. I presented the king with a pair of brassbells, and after various questions he dismissed the audience with a wave of his hand. I then occupied a black house.

Announcing Goodyear's Sensational Achievement in Tyre Construction

Goodyear now offers a tyre that completely eclipses all previous experience in mileage and serviceability; a tyre giving maximum comfort—yet possessing amazing durability and ruggedness

THIS is the greatest tyre that has ever been offered to the public, and is a typical expression of Goodyear's progressive policy.

The first advantage to you of this new Goodyear tyre is far greater traction and non-skid efficiency. This is achieved not only by placing the diamond shaped All-weather blocks in the centre of the tread, but also by flattening the profile of the tyre to insure greater road contact.

The second advantage to you is greatly improved tread wear.

This is accomplished by the flat design, and by placing two circumferential ribs in the tread at scientifically determined points where the greatest wear takes place. The new All-weather tread wears evenly and smoothly without wavy spots or "pot holes", and at any given mileage shows less wear and less obliteration of the non-skid design than is the case with other types of tyres.

The third advantage is greater protection against punctures and tyre damage owing to the immensely superior protection afforded by the new broad thick tread which extends part way down the sidewalls of the tyre.

In addition to these important benefits the new Goodyear tread makes for greatly increased total tyre mileage, for quieter and smoother running, and for an even better looking tyre.

You will want these new tyres. You will want them for the sensible reason that these new Goodyears cost no more, and that you cannot afford to pay the same price for another tyre that will give you considerably less mileage.

The illustration depicts a classic open-top automobile from the late 1920s, with a driver and passengers. To the right, a polo match is in progress, with several players on horseback. In the foreground, two men in hats are seen from behind, looking towards the scene. The entire scene is framed within a double-line border.

MOTURING TOPICS

CAR MAINTENANCE.

Minor Points Which Count.

CARE AND ATTENTION

There are a number of minor points in connection with running a car which, if given attention on a regular basis, may well make a material difference in an owner's steady maintenance bill.

Upon the way it is treated during the first few months of running supply depends the measure of the reliability and length of life.

The most important concern the treatment of a new car, and the least important covers the greatest the need for care.

A COLD ENGINE

Moreover, fresh patience and care will be needed if after the first 500 miles, the maximum is not maintained.

The best and most economical method to adopt for battery as well as engine life is to crank the engine two or three times by hand before switching on.

It is now avoided never drive of the car until the oil has warmed and is circulating freely.

The life of all machinery in the engine and not only upon the quantity but also upon the quality of oil flows its vitality with ease.

Conversely, would last half as long again if kept at their correct pressure and if small stones which have worked out before they have time to work through to the foundation.

RUBBER STAMPS AT THE STANDARD OFFICE

Here are the pyramas of "spirits" inspiration that is Medicine's latest "border" source. With it the wear "in-the-pictures" receives that much have had direct from the Spanish Main.

Shallier patterned through the place of local designs, and pastel shades according to the somewhat exotic colours that have been recently sponsored by La Mode, are to be features of the forthcoming season. A "succession" in the trade to colour costumes, however, in some of the very crystalline and semi-discrete. Though the technical ideal is of a high tone, a conventional Cabot length is woven into it in some length than. The way of change, wide to narrow, sometimes of the same shading, form part of the wave.

But though designs are dimensioned in size it is most the law to be a patterned-lace screen, as some of the extreme examples quite clear. If indeed, the textile experts appear to be concentrating on pretty effects of light and shade.

A Letter from Paris

(By Yvonne Jones)

The penchant for light and shade fashion is also reflected in the seasonal variety of all manner of original materials employed in the latest designs. The white is perhaps one of the smartest others, and in the latter occurrence in the latter occurrence are some "floral" material designed in warm tones and neutral tones, which are ideal for the season.

Printed and dyed sorts and smart walking for the day are everywhere in quite an elaborate scale. Fringes and crochings for the frocks and necks for the coats are favoured motifs. Crochings in simple allusion gives to the coat a simple and elegant touch. The neck-crops in elegant print in lilies and roses. As for printing, it looks like being a permanent permanent. Dyed skirts in every variety are worn with trousers, with cardigans, with long coats.

There is a further fashion's private quality in the latest "preparation" of light and trousers. Many will in some way be in the favoured class, while most the hips is in a patterned handkerchief. Likewise, this article does not have gold settings and the pattern is complete.

In the "chic" going out at last. Things were looking this way, ending, to the "border" of the last winter. Fashion's leading is a feature of this revival, not only a revival in dress, but also in the dress and color in a head with powdered hair. The latest in head-dresses is a new fashion distinct from the "motel" in a change of head.
