U. S. A. Presidency. Roosevelt's Platform. Favour Women's Suffrage. SPOKESMEN BECOME VIOLENT.

Chicago, June 13. President Taft has now secured 128 out of 362 contested delegates. The solitary Roosevelt has been recognized. The majority of Roosevelt supporters are becoming violent.

San Francisco, June 13. Mr. Roosevelt announces the platform which he will submit to the Chicago Convention. It will contain an unequivocal declaration in favour of Women's Suffrage.

National Strike.

Government not interfering. STRIKE COMMITTEE'S MANIFESTO.

London, June 13. The Government is taking no action in the strike but is leaving the parties to fight it out. There is no indication of the spread of the sympathetic strike which is only active in Bristol, Southampton and Swansea. Manchester men have already resumed work.

The Strike Committee issued a manifesto yesterday evening to say they would be prepared to end the dispute on honourable terms but the employers force the situation by imposing unreasonable hardships on women and children. They are arranging a march of these in the City on June 15. It is stated that the subscription in response to the strikers' appeal for funds is very small.

DIFFERENT VIEWS. London, June 13. The strike appears to be collapsing. The British Federation declares the strike in London at an end. The Strike Committee says however that the Engineers will be called out to-morrow.

Chambers of Commerce.

Imperial Navy. CUSTOMS UNIFORMITY.

London, June 13. Lord Darbhorough presided at a banquet of four hundred donors of the Chambers of Commerce. Mr. Dutton, the High Commissioner of the Dominions and the Agents General of the Colonies were guests.

Mr. Dutton urged the uniformity of the customs laws of the Empire, and the removal of impediments to commerce, one of which was a Merchants Shipping Act for the whole Empire. He anticipated good results from the Trade Commission. He hoped they would be able to arrive at a basis upon which capital and labour could cooperate for their mutual good.

Seely's Successor. London, June 14. It is understood that Col Seely will be succeeded as Parliamentary Under Secretary to the Army Council by Mr. H. J. Tennant, the Deputy Financial Secretary, whom Mr. Harold Baker replaces.

TURKISH LOSSES.

British Special to "E. A. Standard" Home, June 13. It is announced semi-officially that the Turks lost a thousand killed in Saturday's fight at Zanzur.

A Definite Win.

HEAVY TURKISH LOSSES.

Rome, June 13. The Italians have at last secured a decisive victory. The invaders were surprised yesterday by large masses of Italian troops which they had not expected. In addition many other Turkish dead were found in the line of fight. The Italian casualties are said to be trifling compared to their opponents. Six officers and 73 men were killed and 1,000 officers and 57 men wounded.

Wireless Conference.

London, June 13. The International Wireless Conference of Britain, the Dominion, Italy and Japan has adopted the principle that ships must accept messages in all other ships whatever system is used.

Trade Commission.

PRIVATE ENQUIRIES.

London, June 13. The Imperial Trade Commission met this afternoon and it was decided that their proceedings should be kept private.

BIG SCHEME IN HAND.

EXTENSIVE LAND SETTLEMENT PROJECTED.

DILATORY SURVEY HOLDS BACK ENTERPRISE.

When the lamps are lighted while enjoying the hospitality of the long and the hills naturally drift into the future of the Estate. The Colonel heads the procession with perfect composure acknowledging that he has never secured a complete survey of the land. He is written as a concession to any private or official speculator or financier. Quite the contrary is an endorsement. Never more and quite right to do. And I am taking to mention an interview which being of a conversational nature, not a formal one. Colonel Tom has although given permission to give the gist of my notes. I had to the readers of the "Standard" if any more detail proves to be retained correctly at some matter of importance wrongly set out before me intelligently raised by reason of some misstatement even before I am set right.

On Wednesday morning, June 12, when the Magistrate of Mombasa took his seat on the Bench he was faced with the unusual occurrence of a clean sheet and smiling people. The latter presented him with a pair of white gloves as a souvenir of the occasion in which the native and African folk of the island had failed to supply him with cases. Mr. Logan thanked the pair for their gift and in doing so said that Saturday morning would be the last time that he would be called on to do so. After court he was transferred to Nairobi. He complimented the police on the success of their efforts in respect of the trial. He was also much commended, especially in Nairobi, for his sympathetic attitude towards the people, the large number of natives congregated in Mombasa, and the small number of the Government's officials in charge. The Magistrate also referred in touching manner to the good feeling and cordial understanding that had always existed between the Bench and the Police, and commended the latter that had invariably marked their mutual relations during his Magistracy at Mombasa.

Nairobi Y.M.C.A.

ADDRESS BY MR. BUXTON.

On Sunday evening last Mr. F. V. Verbe Buxton, Treasurer of the Foreign Department of the National Council of the Young Men's Christian Association in London, gave a very impressive address at the meeting of the Nairobi Y.M.C.A. which he recalled with pleasure, and referred to the gratifying activity which the work had made since that time. He said that in two and half years since it was last held in Nairobi, and that it had changed and improved since then, but one of the best changes is the establishment and progress of the Y.M.C.A. 1. A messenger coming to be present at the inaugural meeting. Dr. Scott had said me to say a few words and I can't mention the name without recalling what a big deal B.F.A. was to this splendid man and what a love we have suffered by his early death; (applause) in this association his name will long be cherished not only with respect, but with real affection. Well I remember the peculiar interest in that gathering, not in my speech, but in a letter read by Dr. Scott from Mr. MacMillan stating that his offer of £1,000 was for a Young Men's Christian Association and if any other club was contemplated his offer did not hold good. Since then you have gone forward splendidly and now you are preparing for another big gathering, and you are not going to take it alone.

That appeal published in the East African Standard, I must be surprised every one of us can help, some more, some less, and remember that the real object of such a meeting is proportionate, not to the actual amount he gives, but to the degree to which he desires himself for the sake of helping others. That you men in Nairobi can help, not most by money, but much more in other ways. The real object of this appeal is that young men coming out from home may not be stranded on a strange land but may find themselves surrounded by a wholesome atmosphere with sympathetic friends who can give help, not most by money, but much more in other ways. The real object of this appeal is that young men coming out from home may not be stranded on a strange land but may find themselves surrounded by a wholesome atmosphere with sympathetic friends who can give help, not most by money, but much more in other ways. The real object of this appeal is that young men coming out from home may not be stranded on a strange land but may find themselves surrounded by a wholesome atmosphere with sympathetic friends who can give help, not most by money, but much more in other ways.

Many have no doubt been convinced with the association at hand but even they may hardly realize how rapidly it is becoming a world wide organization. A member of the Y.M.C.A. finds great fellowship wherever he goes. Two years ago I spent a Sunday in Berlin and on visiting the Y.M.C.A. found myself at once amongst clerical friends. It was the same at Rome. Quite lately I have been travelling in Egypt and Palestine. Mr. Buxton has pointed to describe the main features of the Y.M.C.A. in Cairo and Jerusalem, pointing out the difficulties of such work in those cosmopolitan centres, and stated that the Y.M.C.A. was rapidly bringing these together in a common bond of sympathy. The Cairo Y.M.C.A. has two branches—one for Englishmen and one Arabic speaking association.

But just as this Nairobi Association links us to fellow members all the world over, so the Y.M.C.A. as a whole links us in thought to a yet wider circle, since we remember that the Y.M.C.A. is just one of the agencies of God's Kingdom in the world. A tremendous credit is being done better than most, between good and evil, between the religion of Jesus Christ and other forces opposed to the faith. Look at the awakening nations of the East. In Japan the whole nation is being educated, in China the old strange system of public examination for the public spirit for western knowledge has spread with it a sense of duty to God and man? Or the blank materialism and no restraint? Or the spirit that carries with it a sense of duty to God and man?

Mr. Buxton the quoted from Bishop Lea and from Alex. Fraser of Uganda, who noted that in India 200 million Hindus were preparing for a desperate struggle, not against the British, but against Mohammedanism, and that 60 millions of Mohammedans were exerting themselves to convert the 200 million Hindus, but in each case against 8 million Christians.

"It is not a broad view of Africa, but the opening up of Africa is bringing about such a change that there is now a shooting trip on the Upper Nile and have learnt something about it first hand. In the Sudan and Sierra Leone are flocking into the great brotherhood of Islam. They are flocking to add to the number of fanaticism and this process may someday mean a tremendous political danger to European control. But it is bound to continue unless the Christian Church awakes." The Y.M.C.A. must take their place. Islam, with its lax moral code, its fanaticism, its intolerance, its unity with the ethics that trip in their train all the blessings of our family life.

Mr. Buxton's address was listened to with interest and in which a pin could be heard to drop and in answer to an emotion that the audience to a number of times of Handel's Largo.

Mr. McFiegor, long on behalf of the General Secretary, reviewed the past year of the Y.M.C.A. in one series of activities connected with the Association.

The singing of the national Anthem closed a very pleasant evening.

Commemoration Night.

SOCIAL EVENING.

At the Nairobi Young Men's Christian Association Home about a hundred and fifty members and friends assembled on Wednesday evening, June 19, to commemorate the first anniversary of the opening of the new building. Rev. J. Young, vice-President, presided and a pleasant evening was spent in music and song, the latter being well served by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Association.

The evening's enjoyment proved with a divine blessing by the Vice-President who afterwards in the name of the Association presented a hearty welcome to the guests.

A number of talented artists new to Nairobi were discovered on the guests amongst whom may be mentioned Miss Park who delighted the audience with a power of great sweetness and depth of voice.

The plain manipulation of Mr. Teles was generally accorded to be marvellous, his oeuvre giving a fitting example of his mastery touch which was fully shown by his later soloists. Deserving of special mention was his rendering of the old ballad "We never go home at all morning" under the varying styles of the old masters.

Another new master, in his own line was Mr. Stevenson with a sleight of hand which astonished the audience, especially with wonder and rapt with appreciation at his clever handling of a pack of cards.

Of other articles whose striking appeal (mostly to Nairobi audiences) may be mentioned Mr. Denton who has a fine voice, and Mr. Hart whose high tenor voice were a treat to listen to.

The Artful and Mr. Clark were heard for the first time in that fine old duet "Foot-steps in the Snow" and the first time in a splendid trim, delighted the assembly with one of her old-time songs.

The reappearance of Mr. Howarth on stage, after many months absence, in spite of his inimitable comic songs evoked a ray of laughter.

Mr. Hawth's violin solo was listened to with interest and in which a pin could be heard to drop and in answer to an emotion that the audience to a number of times of Handel's Largo.

Mr. McFiegor, long on behalf of the General Secretary, reviewed the past year of the Y.M.C.A. in one series of activities connected with the Association.

The singing of the national Anthem closed a very pleasant evening.

CONSORT SHIPS.

A correspondent writes to the "Standard"—Will you allow me to draw attention to a very simple expedient, which will save the lives of the public on the high sea or a better secured than any number of additional lifeboats or emergency exits? I refer to a plan, commonly enough adopted in the Royal Navy, of arranging for ships to consort upon a voyage. In some cases it would produce a good business policy to send two ships of moderate capacity instead of one monster ship upon a voyage across the Atlantic, for example. That the idea could equally well be carried out on another sea. A tender ship of a thousand tons burden could have taken of the whole ship's company from the "Titanic", and without difficulty or appreciable risk. Now these would be no difficulty about arranging for a good steaming coast of a thousand tons to accompany such a passenger ship on the Atlantic. The consent might carry passengers, but she could carry coals and stores, and so make additional space for cabin accommodation in the great ship. Suppose that the cost of navigating such a tender ship across the Atlantic were as much as say, $100. Fifty additional tons could be transported in the Y.M.C.A. in connection with an address which was followed by the large gathering men with great attention from beginning to end.

Yes. I understand you do not like of printing.

Yes. What cost it for 500?

We have lots of work for different kinds, in large quantities, but just now I really do not get 1,000 envelopes.

Yes. All right; we'll print them for you.

How much will you charge for 1,000 No. 6 of with corner card and three small lines?

What! I can get them for ten rupees. Well, we can't furnish them and you know that.

Now, look here, we have a lot of other work.

Can't help it; they cost us more money.

If I furnish stock will you print them for me?

Seven rupees and fifty cents. This is more than I have been paying, however, you can have it.

It is called a big price.

This job went through without a hitch. Experience teaches us that this is the way to do it, and should there be changes, and more profit, in consequence, this would mean that the printer is not satisfied with a job like this.

Printers commence as devil, but surely some of them are entitled to sinship; they do the multifarious details of an ordinary printer. Who says to the contrary?—The Progressive Printer.

THE VEILED LADY.

SMART SUPFRAGETTE HOAX.

An amusing story is told of a Suffragette who, in a moment of inspiration, decided to impersonate a woman of the East. She was christened Pakhura's lady, the information obviously being derived from other police officers.

Her story, a lady, the daughter of a well-to-do family, had been married to a man, Miss Pakhura's lady. She was quickly followed by four detectives, one of whom was named "Samson."

The lady, who was dressed in a smart, appeared to offer an attractive case of Miss Pakhura's lady. The sitting-room door was forced open, but the lady had disappeared into the bedroom. Finding an escape by window, the detectives mounted the balcony, but found that the curtains of the room were drawn. The lady instructed the police that they were mistaken, but eventually the window was taken from outside and the curtains drawn back.

In the semi-darkened room, the story continues, "the woman, still heavily veiled, was sitting in a chair with a book in her hands. Beyond a trace of a smile on her face, she cast her quick attentions of her visitors, she sat quietly and composedly, and asked the officers what they wanted."

"We want," replied the officer in charge. "Now, Miss Pakhura's lady, the game is up. You might as well give yourself up. I am sure Miss Pakhura's lady, the lady, raising her voice, she uttered a long, low wailing cry that had nothing to do with Miss Pakhura's lady, and knew nothing of that lady's name, especially the added, "I am sure Miss Pakhura's lady, the lady, raised her voice and stated that she had received from the police a notice that she had been arrested, and that she was to be taken to the station."

"I was going to escape by the window," she said.

Agricultural Editors: Mr. F. Fisher, M.A., (Contab.), B.Sc. (London), etc. lately Director of the School of Agriculture, Govt. Egypt, and formerly Deputy Director of Agriculture, Bombay Presidency. All communications intended for this page should be addressed to Agricultural Editor, East African Standard, Nairobi.

Answers to Correspondents.

Under this heading the Editor will be glad to deal with letters asking for information or advice.

(4) All applications for use of water as any proposition shall be dealt with by the Board.

(5) No charge should be made by the Government to riparian owners for the use of water in the ordinary course of agriculture.

(6) In the absence of express reservation or contract riparian owners should have the use of the water power for their own use free of charge.

We consider all these recommendations excellent with the exception of No. (2), which does not appear to be unambiguous in sense and in practice would be both unworkable and inequitable.

Further the recommendation of the committee denies all property to any irrigator, and further would place the position of the riparian owner in a very awkward position after all the water in the stream was being utilized.

These resolutions were forwarded to the Legislative Council on the 12th inst. and were passed on the 19th inst. The Hon. Mr. Delamere has the honor to refer to the letter of the Hon. Mr. Delamere in his speech on the 19th inst. and to state that the Hon. Mr. Delamere's recommendation is in accordance with the opinion of the Legislative Council.

"I am honored to inform you that His Excellency is in accord with the opinion expressed in the resolution of your Association in the effect that legislation should be introduced to limit the extent to which water rights when acquired should be restricted to the use of water for agricultural purposes."

"I have never much of value may be learnt from experience in other countries where water has been reserved to, and acquired by, the Government, and it may be for the benefit of the community."

"Every riparian permitted under the provisions of these rules shall be subject to the right of the riparian owner to the use of the water for his own use, and may as at the time be controlled by the Government for the purpose of the public interest or for the purpose of the public interest or for the purpose of the public interest."

"No objection could be taken to these provisions of the Bill, and it is to be hoped that the Bill will be passed by the Government, and that the water for power purposes will be reserved to the riparian owner, and that the water for power purposes will be reserved to the riparian owner, and that the water for power purposes will be reserved to the riparian owner."

promotes tranquil sleep.
The heavy supper disturbs the digestion and prevents what should be a sweet natural sleep. Select something light, dainty and nutritious that gives tone to and sweetens the system, while it soothes the nerves. Try Allenburys. Don't fail in these conditions and so enable you to add boiling water. It is a particularly delicious food made from pure rich milk and whole wheat - the ideal food for invalids, and forms a delicious supper repast.

Fight for Presidency.
"Dark Horse" Rumour.

ROOSEVELTIANS THREATEN A BOLT

(Boston's Special to "E. A. Standard") (Special June 29) The closeness of the voting between Taft and Roosevelt and the surprise denunciation of the Convention towards Roosevelt, have reform movement to favor Roosevelt and that a dark horse may be sprung on the Convention.

The creditable committee proposed by Mr. Watson has elected a future chairman of the committee to be the Honorable Charles D. Ives, who will lead a Convention of all the delegates to the Convention and that will meet in the Republican candidate.

Roosevelt's Statement

(Boston's Special to "E. A. Standard") (Special June 29) Roosevelt's statement, which the particular news after one of the most important of the day, said that if he was elected, he would not be a member of the Convention and that he would not accept it. Facing the prospect of a movement to inaugurate Roosevelt as a President, he would accept it. He would fight the campaign through to win or lose according to his own conscience. He would not support a bill which would do so without the hope of gain and at the risk of his own personal loss and discomfort.

It is regarded as doubtful if Roosevelt will secure much support from his followers in the Senate. As an instance the Illinois delegation decided by 50 to 2 votes not to participate in a bolt if there is one.
