Tune: "LAND OF HOPE AND GLORY!" (Elgar)

They came from chill and sullen clime,
To a genial and a bright.
And the bells of hope with cheery chime,
Rang through the dull dark night!
Whilst ploners who knew not lear,
Tred many a thorry way
Till came at least the morning clear,
The dawn of B. E. A. !

Land of breeze and supshine. Land of breeze and sunshipe, Glorious, great, and grand! Land of golden promise, See thy children stand! In the silver startight, In the sun's fierce ray, Strive and work and fight for, Glorious B. E. A.! п

The land hath need of all her sons—
Of low or high degree.
For the race is stern and he who runs,
Cannot win it selfishly,
Each in his own particular way,
Must serve the common weal, Must serve the common weal,
And to "A PROSPEROUS B. E. A."
Thus set his eign and seal.

Thus sot his sign and seal.
