Sea-Cable Talk

A Weekly Chat with our Daily Readers.

I was talking the other week, with a friend who happened to know something of my journalistic connections, when he said to me: "You know, I can tell you how you ever managed to find so much to write about in your 'Talk Table.' For a moment I was just a little nonplussed. I then I do not remember the exact words I used upon the subject of your number of those little items which I put upon your ready-made copy-press as 'Gossip and Gossip.' It was, just a little something for me to have to make up a column, but I managed just to do it by the aid of my journalistic resources, which are limited by the terms of my trade, and those who are used to my talks which are the children of my own mind."

Now, the query of my friend is a very simple one. It is, "How do you manage to find so much to write about in your 'Talk Table?' For a moment I was just a little nonplussed. I then I do not remember the exact words I used upon the subject of your number of those little items which I put upon your ready-made copy-press as 'Gossip and Gossip.' It was, just a little something for me to have to make up a column, but I managed just to do it by the aid of my journalistic resources, which are limited by the terms of my trade, and those who are used to my talks which are the children of my own mind."

Our Short Story.

THE LITERARY LADY-LOVE.

BY HERBERT FLOWERDEW.

Constance Colman was not one of those who were often seen at the theatre. She was a quiet, unassuming woman, who had been married for many years to a man who was a well-known actor. She had a few friends, but she was not a social creature. She was a literary lady, and she was a lover of the theatre. She had a great deal of money, but she was not a spendthrift. She was a woman of taste and refinement. She was a woman who was respected and admired by all who knew her.

She was a woman who was not afraid of the world. She was a woman who was not afraid of the future. She was a woman who was not afraid of the past. She was a woman who was not afraid of the present. She was a woman who was not afraid of the unknown. She was a woman who was not afraid of the dark. She was a woman who was not afraid of the night. She was a woman who was not afraid of the storm. She was a woman who was not afraid of the rain. She was a woman who was not afraid of the sun. She was a woman who was not afraid of the wind. She was a woman who was not afraid of the earth. She was a woman who was not afraid of the sky. She was a woman who was not afraid of the sea. She was a woman who was not afraid of the land. She was a woman who was not afraid of the air. She was a woman who was not afraid of the fire. She was a woman who was not afraid of the water. She was a woman who was not afraid of the earth. She was a woman who was not afraid of the sky. She was a woman who was not afraid of the sea. She was a woman who was not afraid of the land. She was a woman who was not afraid of the air. She was a woman who was not afraid of the fire. She was a woman who was not afraid of the water.

Have you Brains in your Stomach?

This unusual question may well be asked of you if you are a sufferer from indigestion. What is essential under such circumstances as Dr. Charles L. Whipple has written as "Have Brains in your Stomach?" is that not only protein (the body-building food) but also fat, carbohydrates, vitamins, and minerals be present in the diet. The result is indigestible and many people's health is ruined. The result is indigestible and many people's health is ruined. The result is indigestible and many people's health is ruined.

Happy BEECHAM'S PILLS.

After Taking
A few doses will have every disorder of the stomach and bowels restored to normal. Indigestion, constipation, flatulence, and all other ailments of the digestive system are cured.

Who Was Dr. Whipple's Doctor Says
In this connection the late King Edward's physician at Marlborough, Dr. Ernest Ogle, writes: "I have been using Beecham's Pills for a number of years in my private practice and in my hospital work. I have found them to be of great value in the treatment of all the ailments of the digestive system mentioned above."

There is no other pill that you should ever take in addition to Beecham's Pills. It is the only pills that will cure all the ailments of the digestive system mentioned above. It is the only pills that will cure all the ailments of the digestive system mentioned above.

THE EAST AFRICAN STANDARD

(From Our London Correspondent.)
LONDON, SEPTEMBER 27.
LABOUR UNREST.
The newspapers still carry a standing order for the "Daily Mail" to say that the British Government is not prepared to pay the cost of the military machine in the air. It is not prepared to pay the cost of the military machine in the air. It is not prepared to pay the cost of the military machine in the air.

It turned his head. Still it was not surprising that the French are not. Apart from the military matters are in the air. It is not prepared to pay the cost of the military machine in the air. It is not prepared to pay the cost of the military machine in the air.

There is little doubt, however, that the woolen trade for instance there has been a distinct check of orders, and many mills now have the machinery, if not much of the stock, in the country as a general opinion of the other hand prices in adhering to the opinion that Lancashire's loss there is a heavy general falling. A distinguished expert person who is well known for his connection with the woolen trade in the East Indies was that it was far easier to obtain prompt delivery of any orders to the East Indies than it was to obtain a regular supply of goods, such as raw wool, from the United States and this country, which has a great influence in altering the decision of the British manufacturer not to have anything to do with the "Pannama" canal as this tariff will greatly restrict the opportunity of doing business with the United States.

One factor which has militated against a very successful August has been that more people have been making holiday than ever before. This is a source of complaint, as people can only spend what they have earned in the past. In the United States people do not get away easily when work is to be done and money to be made, though who money is plentiful they welcome a holiday. This is the case in the United States and has led to a great deal of business in the United States. It is not prepared to pay the cost of the military machine in the air.
