THE INDIAN COMMUNITY IN KENYA.
Hon. A. H. Malik Replies to His Critics.

(By the Hon. A. H. Malik, M.L.C.)

Following is the text of the series of articles written by the Hon. A. H. Malik, Indian Member of the Kenya Legislative Council, in reference to the policy of non-cooperation, maintained by the leaders of the Indian Association.

I am glad to know that, after all the talk about non-cooperation, the Indian Association has at last issued a statement which is a good deal more sane and reasonable than the Press regarding the activities of the Indian Association. It is just an accident or it is a piece of a counter-plan that the gentleman who was asked to state to the Press regarding the activities of the Indian Association, under the leadership of Mr. H. S. Durrani, was the chairman of the Hon. H. S. Durrani. The fact, one is verified from the correspondence subsisting of last year. I sincerely trust that that representative of the Indian Association who was asked to state to the Press regarding the activities of the Indian Association, was not the gentleman who was asked to state to the Press regarding the activities of the Indian Association.

The train was the little tin-plate "Bryderton." Another, perched on the top of a box, was last in administration of beautiful pictures given from a cinematograph touring company. A third discussed the merits of the various of war and peace. A dramatic touch was given to their conversation by the frequent mention of "agents." The fifth directed his attention to the fact that the train was the only one of its kind in the country.

FUTURE OF CONVENTION OF ASSOCIATIONS. Country Invited to Review Its Position and Functions.

POLITICS AND ECONOMICS. Officers Reply to Critics; Alternatives Before the Colony.

A reply to recent criticisms of the Convention of Associations is contained in a paper published in the annual meeting of the Eastern Province Association held Durban. The letter will be of interest throughout the Colony for consideration in preparation for the Convention at the next meeting.

The letter is signed by Mr. J. H. Frederick, Secretary of the Eastern Province Association. Mr. C. K. Archer and the Hon. J. H. Frederick, Secretary of the Eastern Province Association.

During the past few months correspondence has suggested that the Convention is a body of men who are not interested in public affairs, and who are not interested in public affairs, and who are not interested in public affairs.

It is impossible to gauge from correspondence, which is often entirely unrepresentative, whether this opinion is sufficiently correct to merit consideration by us as the Executive of the Convention.

The criticisms of the existing organization may be summed up under three heads: 1. That the Convention has not succeeded in organizing a representative body.

It is true that the Convention has not succeeded in organizing a representative body, but it is true that the Convention has not succeeded in organizing a representative body.

Amongst the distinguished members of the Legislative Council on the occasion of the British Association's visit to Kenya will be Mr. Robert Grey, the President of the House of Agriculture, and Mr. J. H. Frederick, Secretary of the Eastern Province Association.

The Lucifer Club is a society of 80 golfers--rather more so, according to certain spectators who from time to time visit the home-club from overseas. At the dinner at the Savoy Hotel, speeches were made by General Lord Loch, Lord Birkenhead, Lord Biddell, Lord Deane, Lord Mayo of London, Sir Lewis Washington, Dr. Eric, Sir Harry Gosce, Captain Fraser and Mr. Wilkinson.

As the name implies, it involves a match, Lord Birkenhead was invited and challenged Lord Biddell to play him for a point, £100, or £1,000 on any course on any day he may see fit. "I.E." received his baguette. All present will cherish the memory of his rally. He was the "F.C." of former years; one moment the orator of empire, exalting the imperial hospitality of the Lucifer Society--the next an invulnerable jester on the futile subject of golf. In a sporting spirit he engaged his own self, and then issued a challenge to any one member of the Society for £100 a side, he to receive 20 bags. He added, and laughed, that he had an excellent handicap of 85 at Coombe Hill, which was his limit.

During Lord Biddell's speech and his remarks were three times to repeat his challenge, calling each 20 strokes of what he says: "How much?" Will 13 bags? Lord Biddell, who was somewhat that £100 was beyond him, whereupon the ex-Lord Chancellor, contented, "Make it a point then, but I was the match. He brought to mind a game they once played when Lord Biddell was by four and B. Fat came the report that was the subject of a post; and you were a Cabinet Minister."

In the end after a free exchange of personal chaffing, Lord Biddell would be agreeable to take four strokes if he would make a match of B. Lord Birkenhead led the last word. "I write the present company" he said "to witness this match and see fair play." I am afraid, however, it was all barrier.

Among the guests from Africa were:- H. Ashwell, U. H. Baker, Mr. W. J. Butler, Mr. L. H. Dooly, G. H. E. James Boyce, of Rhodesia, Mr. E. G. W. Haden, Mr. W. S. Linnam, Mr. O. Burnside, Secretary of Southern Rhodesia, Mr. W. S. Bryant, Mr. William Campbell of Uganda, Major T. A. B. Cochrane, Capt. J. T. Cole, and Mr. W. S. Colquhoun of Kenya, Mr. R. V. C. O'Connell, Mr. J. A. Collins of Rhodesia, Mr. P. Dorell of Kenya, Mr. D. Davidson of Kenya, Mr. J. E. Finlay, Mr. H. B. Foster, and Mr. T. D. Easton of Kenya, Mr. G. T. S. Finlay, Mr. J. S. Forsyth, Mr. H. G. Haden, Mr. K. S. Haden, and Mr. A. S. Gibbs of Uganda, Mr. O. H. Goscoe, Mr. J. Graham of Rhodesia, Mr. J. H. Hall of Somaliland, Mr. T. J. Graham of Rhodesia, Mr. J. H. Hall of Somaliland, Mr. J. F. Hall and Mr. S. C. Harrison, Dr. B. Hetherington, Mr. M. F. Hill, Mr. A. Harby of Kenya, Mr. Haden, Mr. J. S. Forsyth, Mr. P. J. F. Jones, and G. W. M. Kingsley.

The following is an approximate statement of carrying time for goods traffic for the Kenya and Uganda Railways and Harbours, (including Brunen Lines, (including Mosei Services) during the month of June 1920, compared with corresponding month of previous year 1919/20. This is a decrease of 8.21%.

Messrs. Shell-Mex Ltd.,
Shell Corpn.,
KINGSWAY, W.C.2.

Dear Sir,

After two years' test of your Lubricating Oil on road and track, the results we have obtained have so eminently satisfactory that we have decided to standardize your "Triple" Shell Motor Oil for Works' use, and as our recommendation to Bentley owners for use in their engines.

All Bentley engines, as you know, are so designed that they require the minimum of attention and overhaul, and to obtain this it is essential that an oil be used which, besides possessing unquestionable lubricating value and body, also gives the absolute minimum of carbon deposit. In this latter respect, particularly, we find your oil is unrivalled.

Yours faithfully,
Messrs. W. O. Bentley,
(Signed) W. O. Bentley,
Managing Director.
