STEADY, UGANDA!

Disquieting Factors in Cotton Outlook.

CAUTION ADVISABLE.

Merchants Warned Not to Expect Bumper Years.

(Standard's Correspondent in Uganda.)

Now that the 1920 season has finished—and we are almost certain of our 20,000 bale estimate—it would be out of place to take a look at the possibilities for next year's 1921, trying to estimate what is in store for us in the near future. In order to make a reasonably correct survey of the position it would be as well to recite this short article now to our parts.

Uganda this year has produced its record crop of cotton—probably 20,000 bales—and the cotton dealers in this province viewing the season now that it is finished (from the producers' point of view) have said nothing to grumble at. In fact he has been content with securing the price paid, with the possible exception of a few large and some parts of 2000, for sale cotton was on the low side. However, there are those who have had their eyes on the price for the 1921 season, and they are not so sanguine. In fact, they are not so sanguine as to think that the 1921 season will be as good as the 1920 season.

PROGRESS OF THE PORT AT KILINDI.

Additional Oil Fuel Equipment.

(STANDARD'S CORRESPONDENT.)

Mombasa, Sept. 19.—One of the most important developments in the progress of the port at Kilindi is the installation of additional oil fuel equipment. This is a very important step, as it will enable the port to handle a larger amount of cargo, and to do so more efficiently.

A TIGHT CHAIN LINK FENCE THAT SAYS NO TRESPASSING

AN AMERICAN LOOKS AT KENYA. The Disappearance of the "Carpet-Bagger"

No. 1. MENTAL PROCESSES. The Philosophy of the Empire-building Briton.

He says Nairobi and Kenya should tell the world of its attractions.

The American visitor also believes that the "carpet-bagger" tendency remains to be overcome—the idea that Kenya is not a home but a temporary adventure.

Incidentally he pays a tribute to the "diversity leadership" of the British Colony.

FOOD BOARD CEASES ITS FUNCTIONS. Supplies No Longer Demand Control.

EXPORT EMBARGO RAISED. Fixed Prices of Maize and Meal to Go.

The Food Control Board, having regard to the improved position, has decided that control measures are no longer necessary.

The embargo on export is being relaxed and fixed prices will disappear. The decision was taken on Wednesday.

The Food Control Board has decided that the position now exists in the Colony and Protectorate as regards supplies of maize and meal.

They have been abundant since the commencement of the maize season, and the embargo plan will be no longer required.

NOTHING THROUGH TANALAND.

Traffic Increasing in Lamu Area.

WARRIOR—GENERAL.

Since the arrival in January of the first motor car in Lamu there has been a steady increase in the number of motor vehicles taking advantage of the road from the Coast to the interior via the Northern Boreas.

From Nairobi the journey a quite pleasant in from three to four days. The distance from Meru being approximately 400 miles.

My own experience of the road is that it is a most comfortable and safe. The road is a most comfortable and safe.

This year we have been having a very good season with the exception that there has been some rain, but not so much as in previous years.

A criminal appeal case was heard recently before His Honor Mr. Justice Sheridan and Mr. Justice Thomas in the Supreme Court in connection with a stabbing affair at Mombasa.

The hearing of the appeal occupied a day and a half during which the advocate for the appellant was heard by His Honor Mr. Justice Sheridan.

A Daring Burglary. The following is a report from the Mombasa Police Station: A daring burglary was committed at Kibaha one day last week.

THE ISLE OF MAN T.T. RACE.

German Car's Amazing Speed.

WONDERFUL PERFORMANCES BY AUSTINS.

An average of nearly 70 m. p. h. for 410 miles of twisting, treacherous roads, was accomplished at Hillside, when Rudolf Kiskaden, driver of the Royal Automobile Club's special Trophy. This on a super-charged Mercedes car of 1,100 c.c. engine capacity, his exact speed being 72.0 m. p. h.

Mr. Camp, the Italian "ace" of the finished second, covered an actual distance of 869 miles at an average speed of 67.4 m. p. h. on a supercharged Alfa-Romeo of only 1,467 c.c.

Perhaps the most remarkable feat of all, however, was the taking of Hillside and fourth place by a couple of tiny Austin Seven, driven by A. Fraser Nash and S. V. Hobcock, at average speeds of 60.00 m.p.h. and 58.00 m.p.h. respectively for an actual distance of 841 miles, at times lagging the official Aard street, with its hills and its curves, at over 60 m.p.h. Their Austin started and lost fourth.

The race was full of excitement from start to finish, for no one knew who was to be the winner until a few minutes before the end. It was Nash and go for the Mercedes, the race between the Austins, the Alfa-Romeo and the second place.

Starting from the top of the direction of Dunmurry. Hardly had the second car passed when the Mercedes announced that the German car was up to a record for the course by covering the circuit in 20 mins. 29 secs., an average speed of 77.46 m.p.h.—a really wonderful effort that was never again repeated.

Then came Kiskaden's super-charged Mercedes, which was first, followed by the tiny Austin Seven, driven by A. Fraser Nash and S. V. Hobcock. At the top of the first hill, the Mercedes received a setback, for Nash crossed. Taking the left-hand side of the road, he skidded to the outside of the road. Right then found Kiskaden, the hope of the spectators, driving at a high speed, his car out of control, and skidded to the side of the road.
