A-Word on Wool

It is generally admitted amongst medical men and scientists that the only material suitable for wear in the tropics is all wool, its valuable absorbent properties coupled with the fact that it is non-conductive make it hygienically an absolute necessity. This, however, applies to pure wool materials only, not mixtures of cotton and shoddy. To ensure getting all pure wool materials it is necessary to specify LALIMLI the material which is all pure wool throughout.

Write for samples and Prices of LALIMLI materials—they are sent FREE on request

The Week's News.

(Through Roder's Agency.)

HOME.

A meeting of the British Empire League on Monday, Mr. Samuel announced that after a consultation with the various Dominion Governments he had just during the week of the Imperial Conference in London had submitted motions of a general nature to the Imperial Conference in 1921. The Conference, New Zealand and South Africa had submitted motions of a general nature to the Imperial Conference in 1921. The Conference, New Zealand and South Africa had submitted motions of a general nature to the Imperial Conference in 1921. The Conference, New Zealand and South Africa had submitted motions of a general nature to the Imperial Conference in 1921.

That the five year period now required for naturalization in British might be spent anywhere within the Empire and that nothing in the Bill should affect the validity of local immigration laws. The principles were unanimously approved. Mr. Lloyd George will open the Scottish Parliament at the end of January. The House of Commons will open the Scottish Land reform (Tenantry) Bill on Monday. The House of Commons will open the Scottish Land reform (Tenantry) Bill on Monday.

Tragettes. Bombs exploded on Thursday night. The explosion was heard in the distance. The explosion was heard in the distance. The explosion was heard in the distance.

Prisoners near where the imprisoned tragettes are placed, damaged the outer wall but did not touch the buildings inside. The bomb which exploded outside the gate was found lying in the back garden of a house which had been used by Suffragettes.

Mineralogical Exhibition. A meeting of prominent City men was held at the Mansion House on Wednesday to consider the proposed British Mineralogical Exhibition, to be held in the Crystal Palace, London, in 1921. It was unanimously agreed to give the whole-hearted support of those present.

London Police Officer's Wage. The Home Secretary has sanctioned an increase of pay to five thousand London Police Officers.

United States. The Chamber Bill in Conference. A Bill for the purpose of amending the law relating to the Chamber Bill in Conference.

others were denounced. There was, however, little enthusiasm shown. The Commissioner of the Metropolitan Police in London has warned the British membership of a union is contrary to the police regulations, and has recommended the promoters of the new body.

Streets on Sale. The price of the Duke of Bedford's London Estate was under three million sterling. The transfer expenses amounted to £30,000.

It appears that the Duke took the initiative in the matter and approached Mr. Malley-Desley, M.P. The bargain being concluded during an interview lasting three months. The purchaser declares that he made a bid in the market.

Fire Outbreaks. A fire occurred on Monday night in a block of flats known as Hyde Park Chambers, Knightsbridge. The upper stories were completely gutted. The fire was caused by a gas pipe which was leaking and had been ignited.

Naval Fire Disaster. A destructive fire broke out at Portsmouth Dockyard on Sunday night and burned the shipyard, tank, and all ships and rigging boats. The fire was caused by a gas pipe which was leaking and had been ignited.

Mr. Lockhart-Lindsay, M.P., and other Knightsbridge residents, manifested strenuous opposition to the proposed Bill.

Germany. The Kaiser's Scandal. Prince Henry, says a Berlin telegram from Berlin, in speaking at a meeting of the German National Aviation Club, announced that the contributions that had been received totaled £261,710, permitting the derivation of large sums for the instruction and salaries of airmen.

France. Mr. Charles, who is visiting Paris, is inspecting the progress of aviation. He visited the aerodrome during the week-end at Bour and saw over forty armed military balloons. Several British officers who accompanied Mr. Churchill made flights.

The history of the Court and Council reads in a chapter from a romance. The Court fell in love with the beautiful Countess and attempted to commit suicide in 1293 by shooting, owing to her father's opposition to it, the Countess, who was only a child at the time, and was married. The marriage was a happy one for some years, then the Count began to object to his wife's friends. Eventually the lady, her husband, such as politics and painting. The Countess recently inherited a large fortune.

The Supreme Court of U.S.A. has decided finally a long-pending suit brought forward by the manufacturing leaders of Danbury, Connecticut, who were suing for damages for boycott by the Hatters Union. The decision establishes that labour unions are liable under the Anti Trust Law, as they are combinations in restraint of trade.

Mr. Clark, the Speaker in the U.S.A. House of Representatives, took the chair on Friday evening for the purpose of replying to various Republican members. It appears that three resolutions have been presented to the House, especially the Currency Bill, and the Speaker expressed them in measured terms. He was, he said, the greatest valency lawyer in the country and there seemed to have been a conspiracy on their part to make people believe that business was going to be restored.

A Boston Wash, an telegram reports that the Senate has passed the Currency Bill which is very important to the country, especially, but with amendments designed to prevent any undue inflation of currency, which was presented by Messrs. Lodge, Bacon and other prominent Republicans, including an increase in the gold receipts on which the paper currency is based, and a guarantee for the value of gold.

and her friends advised a reconciliation, but the friendship of the Countess, who was thirty-eight, with her nephew, fourteen years younger than himself, was in the neighborhood, and continued in Monday a tragedy.

A Boston telegram from France states that a political enquiry has been made into the circumstances surrounding the case. The head of the Countess mentioned that the nephew was spending the evening at the hotel and drank a quantity of wine. He wanted to borrow some money from his uncle or aunt. After the Countess had retired the young man came to her room, seized the Countess's nightgown, and was returning to his own room when the husband arrived. The tragedy then occurred. The Count, in his evidence, stated that on finishing open a search for the body he found the two together in the bedroom and he fired under the influence of an uncontrollable fury.

Germany and Britain. Mr. Chamberlain's overtures for an alliance at the opening of the Roor war, Mr. Bower says that absolutely binding engagements would have been necessary and this would have brought Germany into antagonism with Russia.

France. Mr. Charles, who is visiting Paris, is inspecting the progress of aviation. He visited the aerodrome during the week-end at Bour and saw over forty armed military balloons. Several British officers who accompanied Mr. Churchill made flights.

The history of the Court and Council reads in a chapter from a romance. The Court fell in love with the beautiful Countess and attempted to commit suicide in 1293 by shooting, owing to her father's opposition to it, the Countess, who was only a child at the time, and was married. - (1) Percentage on estimated value of Government House furniture.
(2) Sale of cars, motor and other apparatus.
(3) Cost of Currency Note Issue Department.

Of these the first is in accordance with arrangements existing in the past usually on a percentage basis. The value of Government House, value of cars and other properties of the Veterinary Department have likewise been included as agricultural produce. The expenses on the currency note issue are taken from the income of the Note Guarantees Fund which is transferred to the Treasury and the estimate, and a corresponding amount appears on the expenditure side.

The second alteration is to give a clearer comprehension of the working of the various departments. The Government property which has been shown previously for the reply to be received on Magdalen Island, is now included in the estimate. The land sale has been subdivided into the special agricultural and other lands, and the proceeds are shown in the estimate. The proceeds from the sale of Government property are now shown as being applied for the reply to be received on Magdalen Island, and the proceeds from the sale of Government property are now shown as being applied for the reply to be received on Magdalen Island.

The Boxing Tournament.

The Theatre Royal on Monday night when the boxing tournament was held, was a grand success. The match between the champion and the challenger was a very close one, and the referee's decision in favour of the challenger was very correct. The spectators were very much interested in the match, and the atmosphere was very exciting.

INTERNATIONAL ATHLETICS.

The question of the Rhodes scholars at Oxford University has claimed a good deal of attention of late, and what every eye at the recent Freshman Sports were to see was a Rhodes scholar in action. The Oxford Club, which is a club of the University of similar institutions, had finally completed its competition in the Freshman Sports, leaving the Rhodes scholar the University athletic sports to be a scholar, but not a student.

There is some disposition over the matter, but careful consideration will show that there is reason in them. Doubtless this season, it shows English athletes equally as good as those.

As to the first resolution it must not be forgotten that it only applies to the Freshman Sports, leaving the Rhodes scholar at liberty to compete in the Oxford Club, which is a club of the University of similar institutions, had finally completed its competition in the Freshman Sports, leaving the Rhodes scholar the University athletic sports to be a scholar, but not a student.

Many Rhodes scholars are athletes of great renown, and their participation in the sports is a credit to their country.

After his performance in the ordinary rowing events, he took part in the 1000 yds. race, which he won in 19 minutes 10 seconds.

In The Dark.

By Fred M. White.

Wholly was last for a month. He was a very quiet man, the sort who had the habit of leaving a man in the dark as to what he was doing. He had a way of looking at a man that made one feel that he was being watched. He had a way of looking at a man that made one feel that he was being watched.

Whisper of Harpoon River.

A man got in the morning boat. The boat was the first to be seen. It was a small boat, but it was the first to be seen.

The Baiting of Fish.

The baiting of fish is a very old trade. It is a very old trade, and it is a very old trade. It is a very old trade, and it is a very old trade.

One Woman's Story.

Fortunately he knew that nothing had happened, and that nothing had happened. He was a very quiet man, the sort who had the habit of leaving a man in the dark as to what he was doing.
