

Not Afraid of Manual Labour.

SIR D. HALL'S VIEW.

Aristocrats Who Do Not Dig Must Inevitably Beg.

Some striking references to settlement in Kenya and the problems of race were made by Sir Daniel Hall in one of his numerous public addresses to Societies in Britain.

If an aristocratic class is created that cannot be allowed to dig, some members of it inevitably will become not ashamed to beg.

In a statement on the "poor white" problem, Mr. Ormsby Gore at the same meeting said that to be maintained there must be the opportunity in the only industry in the country for all sorts and conditions of men.

THE CHILDREN'S PERIL.

In the months which have elapsed since his return to England from Kenya, Sir Daniel Hall has been busy in the Colonies. He has been in the Colonies, he has been in the Colonies, he has been in the Colonies.

AGRICULTURE.

In a survey of the maize industry in Kenya, Sir Daniel Hall has pointed out the main problems of the farmers in the Colony.

STOCK DISEASES.

It is a well-known fact that the main problem of the farmer in the Colony is the prevalence of stock diseases.

YOUNG HIGHLANDERS AT THE COAST.

Children's and Girl Guides Camps.

IDEAL CONDITIONS.

Visitors Making the Most of Their Seaside Holiday.

Two happy bands of young Highlanders are at present spending a delightful holiday at Mombasa.

The Children's Holiday Camp, extended and improved, is proving more successful than ever whilst some distance away the Girl Guides are having a thoroughly enjoyable time at their annual camp.

The residents of Mombasa are demonstrating their usual hospitality, and are taking the visitors for motor rides to places of interest on the island.

WEATHER CLERK'S KINDNESS.

STANDARD CORRESPONDENT.

As if determined to offer handsomely the respective colonies given by the Clerk of the Weather to the visits between from Nairobi and Mombasa, the Clerk of the Weather, Camp, G.O. has been radiant in spirit during Monday arrival.

No more depressing conditions indeed, have been imagined to occur since the weather stepped off the train on their arrival on Monday. The morning had broken in a west or real breeze and the sun shone on the sea island opened their eyes to a scene of more beautiful than on October day on the heights of the hills and the sea.

It is hoped that this year again, the residents of Mombasa will themselves of the invitations expressed in the Clerk of the Weather's letter. The weather was very popular and impressive conditions, but it is difficult to say what the arrangements made and discipline is strictly maintained in camp duties.

The girls take turns in cooking and washing the clothes. The camp is so arranged that it is possible to look forward to their return to their homes. The weather was very popular and impressive conditions, but it is difficult to say what the arrangements made and discipline is strictly maintained in camp duties.

As to the play itself, it is particularly interesting that the girls are able to do so. They are experienced in the production of their own plays, and their latest production is a play on the subject of the modern world.

GRAIN INDUSTRY. To the Editor "E. A. Standard." I venture to bring your notice the following question from a paper, whose name I do not know. The subject is lack of assistance for the West Indian sugar industry, whose seed is produced in the West Indies. The grain growers in this colony, through the Chamber of Agriculture, are in the process of preparing a petition to the Government to have a grant given them a greater amount than the present one.

TO-DAY'S TEST.

Weather Indications Favourable.

Probables Shape Well.

REVEALED GREAT ALL ROUND.

STANDARD CORRESPONDENT. The first Test match at the Oval has been a most successful one for the County players as little more than a draw, although the display of the men selected for the Oval is naturally drawing the attention of the public. The County players proved excellent marks for improving and striking the stock of several of the bowlers. Parker the Gloucester bowler could attract to himself eight wickets for 28 against Surrey. This he followed up by eight wickets for 29 against Surrey by capturing seven more in a test of 20, but this was for a match being fifteen at an average of eight wickets for 20.

Shewery Weather. In a hot round of the weather which for the last time, has been a standard open period, the weather proved for the week-end a fairly good, with a few showers which the pitch is in perfect condition, and in this respect certainly favourable to the bowlers.

The match in attracting great attention from the public, the demand for the first day tickets was unprecedented. All the reserved seats were taken, and the match was sold, while in the boxes which were reserved for the ladies, gentlemen, and the windows, which are reserved for the ladies, the seats were sold, and in this respect certainly favourable to the bowlers.

The stage is set for a main struggle which will be expected to last some six or seven days. The time limit which governs the game does not make for a long test, but the fact that the bowlers strike a good number of wickets will give the first day a very lively character.

The following are the details of the County matches.

- Notis vs. Northamptonshire. Northants 1st innings 610 (Duckworth 101 Cap 54). Northants 2nd innings 220 (Wyllie 101 not out). Yorkshire 1st innings 239 (Yorke 1st innings 204 for 4 dead). KENYA AMATEUR GOLF TITLE.

Championship Meeting Opens To-day.

THE DRAW.

The first two rounds of the Kenya Amateur Golf Championship have taken place today, the first in the morning and the second in the afternoon. The entry of twenty has been a most successful one, due to the inability of two of the entrants to play. This will not interfere with the forenoon play, but makes two day matches in the afternoon. During the week most of the competitors have been practicing vigorously. Most have found the course a good deal of a handicap, but the weather has been very good. The first round was played on a very good green, and the second round was played on a very good green, and the second round was played on a very good green.

It is to be expected that the match will be a very close one, and that the bowlers will strike a good number of wickets.

It's Wise to Choose a SIX

CHEVROLET SIX

A Product of General Motors.

There's one sure way to get greater value in a low priced car. Choose a Six. And this greater value is instantly obvious when you drive a Chevrolet Six. In every gear and at every speed there's a refreshing freedom from all the annoyances that are caused by vibration. There's no tremor in the steering wheel — no rattle in the floor boards — no rumble or drumming in the body.

Its six cylinder smoothness saves the entire car from the strain and wear from vibration — prolongs the life of the car — lowers cost of maintenance. This, together with its sensationally low fuel and oil consumption, add to Chevrolet's traditional reputation for economical transportation.

Please accept our invitation for a free demonstration drive at your convenience — and let the car itself prove its story of value.

TANGANYIKA REJECTS WHITE PAPERS.

Firm Resolution by European Congress.

NATIVE POLICY OPPOSED.

Memorandum Should Be Laid Before Joint Committee.

The European Congress of Associations now meeting in Dar es Salaam has expressed in unequivocal language its views of the unofficial community in regard to the White Papers. The resolutions follow very closely the decisions taken by the recent Unofficial Conference and the Kenya Convention of Associations.

The strongest objection has been registered against the doctrine of the parity of native interests which it is maintained is a breach of the fundamental principle of the Mandate that there shall be equality of opportunity.

The Congress urges that the Memorandum on Native Policy should be placed before the proposed Joint Committee. It will be recalled that according to the Imperial Government's present intentions the documents to be considered by that Committee comprise:

The Congress reaffirms Tanganyika approval of the principle of closer union but regards the latest proposals as unacceptable.

Finally the sending of a delegate or delegates has been approved.

CLOSER UNION APPROVED.

It was announced that the Congress of Associations which has called to discuss the White Papers opened its sessions yesterday.

While agreeing that the interests of the natives should be adequately safeguarded the Congress endorsed the doctrine that such interests shall not be put in jeopardy by any measure of closer union.

The Congress also approved the Memorandum on Native Policy and the Memorandum on the Administration of the Territory.

KENYA AMATEUR GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP.

Favourite Goes Out in Second Round.

TITLE HOLDER'S STERN TUSSELE WITH ENGLAND. An Engleton-Gurney Final.

The Kenya Amateur Golf championship opened at Mbagha on Saturday morning. A brilliant sport of weather marked the back of the week, but Saturday was characteristically sunny and the sun was in splendid condition, although on the hard side, and with no rain overcast the breeze was not to be tricky, an expectation fully borne out.

The opening day's play showed a trifle inconsistency. While there were those who thought it trouble some to gauge the strength of the greens, others got their touch almost at the outset. The morning's golf was patently for the better, excepting in the tie between Forrest and Stratton where the former secured the best of the first round. A better standard was achieved in the second round, when early finishes marked the majority of the time. It was the second round that the title of the first day was succeeded.

The match between Engleton, the Mbagha captain, and Gurney, the holder of the title. The golf was not of a brilliant nature, but such took to the green to serve up some excellent play. Engleton, who was playing to his best, was generally expected to win, but it was not to be. At the seventh green, the Mbagha skipper was frustrated.

Forrest, who has been playing consistently well of late, was fancied candidate for the title and Stratton was even higher up on the list. It was not until the sixteenth hole that the Mbagha skipper was frustrated.

too strongly as in the morning. On this occasion he could not recover. Engleton was two up at the time the sixth was reached, and then he was able to serve "fewers." A perfect hole came his way at the 7th, and he led the 8th, 10th at the query hole, and led 11 and 12th, which the match ended in a tie. The services of the referee were not wanting in the picture.

YOUTH VERSUS AGE. Youth and a veteran, opposed each other in the seas, and as always, Youth won, and that was the verdict. The veteran had shown that experience means a lot. In the morning, Forrest was hitting out at his best, but he was not to be taken in by the younger player. The match was a close one, but the veteran's experience proved the difference.

Where the Crowd Flocked. The gallery was at its best. The day of the match was a fine one, and the crowd was large. The match was a close one, but the veteran's experience proved the difference.

A Oberty Tie. The match was a close one, but the veteran's experience proved the difference. The match was a close one, but the veteran's experience proved the difference.
