MANDATES FOR ALL COLONIES.

nchester Cannot See Grounds for Fear of Threat to Settlement.

Expaper opinion, in its great-diversity of channels of expression continues on the whole to be untavourable to the claims of the white settlers in East Africa and is, on the other hand, deeply impressed by the principle of trusteeship of the African and native "paramountey."

"Manchester Guardian" fails to see anything in the proposals which can possibly jeopardise the future of white colonisation.

"Economist" sees in the regard for the Mandate of Tanganylka a hope that the East African propo-sals herald the day when all Colonies and Protect-orates will be brought under the mandatory regime.

On the other hand, Mr. J. A. Watson (ex Town Clerk of Nairob), asks how the idea of native "trustee-ship" is squared with the cession of Kenya terri-tory to Italy—dubaland.
