Social tastes change, even as styles in dress. It is now considered smart and up to the minute to Coronatyp personal letters on attractive single sheet letterheads.

The best papermakers now put out personal stationery designed for use in the typewriter, although any kind may be used in Coronatyp.

Custom will decree that formal notes of acceptance be handwritten but practically everything else may be typed.

Add to the interest in letterwriting, what a boon this is to those who receive the letters.

PARKLANDS SPORTS CLUB

Annual Handicap Lawn Tennis Tournament.

THE DRAW AND HANDICAPS.

Popular Event Which Opens on Saturday.

On Saturday afternoon the Parklands Sports Club will start with their annual handicap tennis tournament, the draw and handicaps for which are published below.

This event is perhaps the most popular of its kind in Kenya, and every year it has grown in favour, until each year of late has secured a record achieved only to be surpassed the following year.

Twelve months ago the tournament reached its peak, when an entry far exceeding the previous was obtained. But good as that entry was it has paled before that for the present year, which shows an increase of something like thirty per cent.

The following is the draw and the handicaps. On Page 5 appears the programme of matches over the week-end.

DEVELOPING TRADE IN THE EMPIRE.

Mr. Brierley dissociated the committee from any responsibility for the so-called "Brewster" and "Hill" cases, and expressed the hope that the fallacious weapon could be used as a corrective in the future.

He stated that the fallacious nature of their problem. The main object of the report was to put the Labour Government who would be responsible at the Imperial Conference for the economic dislocation, a proposal for a definite economic organization of the British Empire. It would be an attempt to get the attention of the Government, and an understanding of the kind of organization that would be required.

He stated that the report would be published in the next few days, and that it would be published in the next few days, and that it would be published in the next few days.

scribes group for abuse. Those who administer our laws must be completely free from interested parties with the best will in the world the Governor of Kenya cannot possibly be a fair and impartial judge of the merits of the case. There must be a complete separation of the judicial and executive functions as completely separated as possible. It is suggested in your issue of August 21st that a committee be appointed to inquire into the merits of the case. This is a suggestion which I fully support. Delegation's Request to People of Kenya.

THE ISSUES AT STAKE.

Lord Delamere Reviews Principles of Native Policy.

Members of the Kenya Delegation were entertained at a public dinner held in Nairobi on Thursday evening when a very representative gathering was addressed by them on some of the main issues facing Kenya at the present time.

During Native Policy—the found of all the political difficulties—the Rt. Hon. Lord Delamere analysed the charges brought against the constitution and the system was maintained by Government and was in no sense merely a device to keep the natives in a state of slavery for private purposes and finally declared they would welcome the abolition of compulsory labour to microv.

also examined the position regarding taxation and land, pointing out that the facts proved conclusively the fallacy of the allegations of "wage slavery" by selling three or four chickens or a few dozen eggs.

speaking of Federation he said: "I do not believe in hanging dogs but I sincerely believe that no sane man could continue to adhere to a policy which would lead indirectly—the risks of Federation after reading the White Papers of 1920."

the only of the Deputation not to take part in any discussion of Federation at the present time.

the Colony he said: "The Deputation's terms of reference to you are that you should keep the home fires burning while we are away."

the country has placed its trust in the Deputation, he said. "It is completely necessary that we should be able to trust the country... to know that the country is to be trusted to do the right thing at the right time, trusted to keep its political intelligence..."

A REPLY TO THE CRITICS.

The Chairman following the report of the "The King" in the morning... "I have been asked to take the March jubilee and I feel highly honoured by the invitation..."

amount collected that is remarkable it is also the fact that some of the money has come from almost every part of Kenya. This represents a wide spread of Uganda from a number of Kenyas at Harare and even from London.

"I am glad to be able to announce that just before I came to dinner a cheque was handed to me representing an amount of £100. The cheque was from the 'The Home Standard' which makes up the Delegation Fund in London. This cheque of £100 of money has been raised in a great tribute to the determination of the country to help the Delegation in these days of temporary but severe depression."

"I know that you are all well-to-do here, what our representatives have here to say and I am sure that I am confident your feelings are wishing them in your name—God speed." (Applause.)

Lord Delamere.

A REPLY TO CRITICS OF NATIVE POLICY.

Lord Delamere as leader of the Delegation was the first to reply to the host. He said he was unhesitatingly to express his own views on the part of the other delegates and that he was sure that he would be able to do so.

in which he said that he proposed the Delegation should be a body of men of high standing in the country who would be able to represent the Delegation in the country and who would be able to represent the Delegation in the country and who would be able to represent the Delegation in the country.

Lord Delamere said he was sure that the Delegation would be able to represent the Delegation in the country and who would be able to represent the Delegation in the country.

the Delegation, Lord Delamere said it was almost a second League of Nations since it included a Britishman, an Irishman and himself—an Englishman with a Welsh grandmothers (laughter).

the Delegation was a body of men of high standing in the country who would be able to represent the Delegation in the country and who would be able to represent the Delegation in the country.

Points of Discussion.

Continuing his Lordship said that before he went to the Delegation he had been asked to take the March jubilee and I feel highly honoured by the invitation... "I have been asked to take the March jubilee and I feel highly honoured by the invitation..."

either by law or by taxation. As a matter of fact everyone knows that that is quite untrue. The Colonial Office could do away with the native tax without difficulty unless the official Government of the country put obstacles in their way."

Others, too! Lord Delamere said that it was a very good way of paying taxes. But if we did that in Kenya he imagined there would be a great deal of trouble in Uganda only a short time ago the native had to pay two shillings in three different forms of Government—Central Government, Provincial Government, the Native Control Commission and the native chieftain.

It is not in the very least like that of the working man in England."

Taxation.

Speaking of taxation which was also the subject of a lecture in the White Paper on Land, Lord Delamere said that he was sure that the Delegation would be able to represent the Delegation in the country and who would be able to represent the Delegation in the country.

Now as far as we are concerned, I think we are particularly minded if all compulsory labour is to be abolished... "I am sure that the Delegation would be able to represent the Delegation in the country and who would be able to represent the Delegation in the country."

SOLUTIONS.
Problem No. 1138, by Dr. E. P. H. Key, 1. Q-c3, 2. N-d4, 3. B-c6 mate.

A pretty key-move consisting of two knight-squares and allowing a rook-sacrifice, followed by "The Goodbye" of G. Tanner and F. J. Gooden.

Problem No. 1137, by Dr. E. P. H. Key.
The single line of play is 1. N-c4, 2. N-d6, 3. B-c6 mate.

White makes with a special idea. In Mr. Falkenberg's book "Line and Counter-Attack" the author emphasizes the importance of the rook in the problem construction. He writes: "The value of the rook in the King and Pawn only being exempted, the line because it is indispensable, the Pawn because they are dependent on power and mobility. Nevertheless, it is impossible to estimate, for this line is not ordinary to an even more important factor—the problem-idea itself. Here are problems which are solved by the passive exercise of a piece."
This is a case in point illustrating the passive exercise of the White Bishop. Note the beautiful game that Gooden also has found a quick and considers the piece on c4 and a superior. Without them, however, there would be a second solution, 1. K-c3.

End Game Study. White draws by 1. N-c8, 2. N-d6, 3. N-c8, 4. N-d6, 5. N-c8, 6. N-d6, 7. N-c8, 8. N-d6, 9. N-c8, 10. N-d6, 11. N-c8, 12. N-d6, 13. N-c8, 14. N-d6, 15. N-c8, 16. N-d6, 17. N-c8, 18. MORE ABOUT THE MILITARY TATTOO.
An Attack on a Naive Village.
POSITIVE PATROL.

Nairobi Sunlight Tatoo-to take place on the E.A.F. parade ground on the 10th and 11th of this month—has a programme scheduled very much on the lines of the Aldershot Tatoo.

Not the least interesting will be the attack on the naive village, which, for the purposes of the movement, may be imagined as being in Turkana or on the Frontier. A Levy patrol is shown halled for the night, and the men are bedded down in their tents. Then a native arrow with news of a raid on a nearby village, as the result of which many men have been killed and the cattle driven off. The patrol promptly gets on the move, and reach their village. Leaving the horses, the patrol is hurried through the bush, and shots are exchanged. A break light is in progress when an aeroplane, out on reconnaissance duty, flies over, and in response to a signal first from a Very pistol flashes a few bombs to the raiders. They take to the bush, with the patrol in pursuit, eventually securing the stock.

Many Thrills.
In this realistic scene the mechanism of the K. A. Rides is shown in action, with the aid of the movie, and the value of aeroplane cooperation. It should provide many thrills for the spectators.

EMPIRE THEATRE

The screening of the film version of "La Boheme" attended by musical artists in a big success at the Empire Theatre. The story itself is a fascinating one and the setting, especially on the part of the musical setting, is all that could be desired. The enjoyment of the picture is greatly enhanced, however, by the skilful and playing by the famous Phil. Most delightful music and by the presence of some of the best known "La Boheme" stars by Mrs. Blanche Almer and Mr. D. M. D. The audience on the opening night were not slow to show their appreciation and time and again the applause indicated how keen was their enjoyment.

A Correction.
In a recent advertisement by the Royal African States Coy. regarding the price of melons, it was stated that it was 10/- per dozen. This should have read 10/- per 45 gallon drum.

Nairobi.

The Motor Mart and Exchange, Ltd., Nairobi.

Dear Sirs,
I have great pleasure in testifying to the excellence of the CHEVROLET SIX CYLINDER CAR which I purchased from you in June, 1929. It carried my party and myself over 3,000 miles in Kenya and Uganda, and over the roughest of roads in fine weather and in rain, with never a fault, in fact it is astonishing the rough service it had to go through and how it was as good as ever at the end.

You kindly de-carbonised it once, that was all that had to be done to the car, after the first 1,000 miles during which it was well oiled, in order to be run in.

It is just the car for a tourist to purchase to carry him about the country and moreover, with the Box Body I had with it, the Car was very remarkable in carrying loads of baggage, etc.

I am,
Yours faithfully,
