KENYA LEADING WAY IN CHEAP WHEAT COSTS.

Conclusions of the Board of Agriculture.

CANADA THE MAIN EXCEPTION.

Country's Low Average Yield Due To Use of Wrong Land.

According to the memorandum recently issued by the Board of Agriculture, the cost of producing wheat in Kenya is the lowest of any of the characteristic wheat countries except Canada.

On a basis of 5.40 bush per acre—which was the figure given by the low but well-managed, and representative farms providing statistics—the cost was shown as Shs. 12/60 per bag, f.o.r., bag included.

This is the same average as that in 35 States of America.

Attention is drawn to the experimental nature of the industry in Kenya where the search by scientists for suitable varieties is still in progress.

It is added, however, that the low country average of 2.40 bush per acre yields in Kenya is lower than many of the best wheat countries.

WORLD-WIDE COMPARISONS.

Comparatively few returns have been made for wheat in the United States, but the figure is shown there as 2.40 bush per acre, which is the same as in Kenya.

The average yield per acre from the farms in Kenya is shown as 5.40 bush per acre, which is the same as in Canada.

On the whole, it would appear that the average yield per acre from the farms in Kenya is the same as in Canada.

It is noted that the average yield per acre from the farms in Kenya is the same as in Canada.

Not on an Even Keel at Outset of Flight.

Difficulties with the R.101 prior to the fatal flight were revealed during the inquiry.

When on a trial flight before the Hendon air pageant the ship dived.

One of the survivors made the significant statement that when the ship got out on the big trip which ended in disaster she was not on an even keel and seemed very heavy.

NAIROBI COUNCIL AND MARAGUA-TANA.

UNANIMOUS SUPPORT FOR THE SCHEME.
A PUBLIC NECESSITY.

IF THERE IS TO BE CHEAPER POWER IN THE NEXT TEN YEARS.

With the exception of two representatives of Government (who were subsequently removed) the Nairobi Town Council held on Tuesday unanimously supported a resolution backing the Maragua-Tana scheme which the Secretary of State recently turned down on the advice of the Kenya Government.

PUBLICATION OF THE SECRET REPORT OF THE PUBLIC TRIBUNAL IS REQUESTED.

It was contended by the Mayor that if the scheme was withdrawn, Nairobi would never have a chance within the next ten years, of getting cheaper power.

One member who admitted that he championed native interests on a basis of fairness, declared he was satisfied the Maragua would make no contribution at all; another pointed out that Council was fighting the larger issue of private interest vs. public welfare.

A BIG ISSUE.

With the exception of two Government representatives who did not vote because, as they regarded it, they cannot support the decision made by Government, the members of Nairobi Town Council unanimously approved the Maragua scheme and the application by the E. A. Power and Light Co. Ltd. for the publication of the report of the Public Tribunal which was held on the scheme for and against the inclusion of the company in the Public List. The Public Tribunal was a follow-up of the report of the Council. It is essential, in the interests of the community, that the application of the E. A. Power and Light Co. Ltd. for the scheme be supported by the public interest. It was contended by the Mayor that if the scheme was withdrawn, Nairobi would never have a chance within the next ten years, of getting cheaper power.

Proposed Accommodation. A scheme of the Council for the new municipal offices in Nairobi is being considered by the Council. It is expected that the design of the building will be completed in the near future.

The Tribunal. In an early report, the Tribunal stated that it would be held on the premises of the Council. It was contended by the Mayor that if the scheme was withdrawn, Nairobi would never have a chance within the next ten years, of getting cheaper power.

WORLD'S GOLD SUPPLY.

Fear That it May be Short.

League Empty.

Rugby, November 4. The Chairman of the Executive, Mr. Philip Snowden, informed the House of Commons today that he had received the interim report of the Gold Commission of the Financial Committee of the League of Nations which shows the possibility of future supplies of new gold proving inadequate to meet world requirements.

Measure suggested to meet such an eventual emergency is the formation of a gold commission. The committee had not yet completed its investigations and no action would be taken until its recommendations had been submitted.

 Unhappily I was unable to attend the recent meeting last Friday, and Saturday, and consequently I am unable to point to any horse to write anything of interest about except the following.

In August, October and June was the most interesting racing of the year. I have written some of the results of the first of these meetings in the "Standard".

An event of particular interest in the August meeting was the first appearance of a horse who was trained by a woman, Mrs. J. P. Moore, who has been successful in the past in training several horses, and who is now training a number of them. This is the first time that a woman has trained a horse who has won a race in this country.

THE LEADING TWO-YEAR OLD.
 In the race for the leading two-year old, the following horses were the favorites: "The Duke" (sired by "The Duke"), "The Duke" (sired by "The Duke"), "The Duke" (sired by "The Duke"), "The Duke" (sired by "The Duke"), "The Duke" (sired by "The Duke").

GENERAL ELECTION IN THE SPRING?

Labour Party Opens a Fighting Fund.

POLITICAL CRISIS.

Liberal Members Revolt Against Their Leader.

The probability of an early general election is further amplified by the latest financial developments as a result of which the Labour Party has decided to open a special fund in readiness for a sudden crisis. The election is likely to be postponed by a serious split in the Liberal Party some of whose members, contrary to their leader's instructions insisted on voting on the Conservative amendment—some for the Government and some against.

A CHIEF WHIP RESIGNS.

(THROUGH REUTERS AGENCY.) London, Nov. 5. Cross voting by Liberals on last night's unemployment division in the House of Commons was the end of the Liberal Party in the Government. Sir Robert Robinson, who had been in charge of the Government's budget, resigned his seat as a result of supporting the Government's policy on unemployment. Sir Robert Robinson has written to Mr. Lloyd George asking him to join the Conservative Government. The resignation of Sir Robert Robinson has led to the resignation of the Liberal Party's Chief Whip, Sir Robert Robinson. He is the only member of the Government to have resigned since the general election.

The Democrats won 203 seats in the House of Representatives and 109 seats in the Senate. The Republicans won 80 seats in the House and 51 seats in the Senate. The election results were a major surprise to many observers.

HENN COMMISSION REPORT.

Suggested Experiments in Road Trials.

The Tanganyika Railway Commission, presided over by Sir Sydney Henni, who recently investigated the question of communications in that territory, deals, in the course of his report, with the development of roads particularly along the main lines of communication not served by the railway.

While the Commission is satisfied that the needs of the country in regard to road construction are receiving attention, the report recommends that special road surveys be undertaken. It is emphasized that provision of better roads is essential.

The report recommends that experiments, now in progress in other parts of the world, in the use of road tractors be carefully watched, and should prospects of successful operation appear to be promising, further experiments should be carried out in Tanganyika.

In view of the fact that the cost of road transport for bulk crops, such as steel and cereals is likely to be prohibitive over long distances, the report recommends that the railway should provide road transport in such cases in as far as funds will permit.

NEED FOR PROPER SURVEYS.

The Commission states that it is of the opinion that the Tanganyika Railway Company should be asked to conduct a general road survey of the territory. It is suggested that the railway should be asked to conduct a general road survey of the territory.
