Lord Delamere, who was appointed Chairman of the Con-ference produced some interesting figures showing the value of protection to Kenya in actual trade statistics and compared them with countries where Native pro-duction was the sole basis.

Dual Policy Influence.

He wished to emphasise the facthat Kenya had not wished to b presumptious in calling this mee-ing; but that time pressed and lead had to be given. Lord Delamere. Brig.-General Boyd Moss moved that Lord Delamere be asked to preside over the meeting. Mr. Ulyate seconded and the resolu-tion was carried unanimously.

DELIGHTFUL VENTURE UNDER NEW REGIME.

FROM A CORRESPONDENT.

The pupils of Limure Gris-School staged a delightful Child-ren's Concert in the Old Hall at the School recently. Whispered rumours have been floating round rumours have been floating round for some time past, but these in no wise purpared us for the dainty. light programme set before us. The large number of parents and friands who breved the notes in order to give their support to this, the first venture of the School under the new regime, must have congratulated them-salves one and all upon their good resolution.

Decisions of Unofficial Conference.

AGREEMENT BETWEEN KENYA & TANGANYIKA OPINION.

Country Produce Rates Should Remain for the Present.

The Unofficial Conference has reached an agreement upon the difficult problems which faced it. The Tanga-nyika and Kenya deligates have unanimously adopted resolutions supporting the policy of protection in East Africa and, in the meantime, the use of railway rates to encourage the development of local industries.

er resolutions ask for the application of the principle of low rates for export produce, now in force in Kenya, to the Tanganyika Railways and the intro-duction of low through rates in East Africa to facili-tate the marketing of local produce irrespective of

The Speeches.

During supper a few brief epoches were delivered appro-priate to the occasion. The first speech, which was brief and to the point, was made by Mr. A. M. Campbell, the Mombasa manager of the Union Castle Company, who welcomed the visitors on behalf of the Company, Captain Barron and him self. Mr. Campbell, in reminis cent vein, drew a comparison bet-ween the magnificent ship in which they were sitting that evening and such vessels as the Galks, Goth and Norman.
