

BRITISH WARSHIPS FOR EGYPT.

To Protect Foreigners in Alexandria.

PREMIER'S ANNOUNCEMENT.

Straight Words to Rival Political Leaders.

The situation at Alexandria has become so menacing that two British battleships have been ordered to proceed there for the purpose of protecting foreign life and property.

In the course of a statement on Egypt in the House of Commons the Prime Minister said that whilst His Majesty's Government intended to adhere to their policy of neutrality and non-intervention in Egypt's domestic affairs, they would hold the balance and the so Premier responsible if foreign lives and interests were endangered.

Casualties in Tuesday's rioting in Alexandria included one European killed and eight Europeans wounded.

EUROPEAN CASUALTIES.

When the rioting broke out on Tuesday night, July 14, at Alexandria, the British Consul-General, Sir John Murray, was in the city.

THE YOUTH OF THE COLONY.

The Nairobi District Girl Guides and Brownies held a most successful Fair in the Jubilee on Saturday last. These two pictures show Mrs. Booth (wife of the Director of Education) donating the Fair open and closed, some of the girls being seen, some of them, and nobody to answer my roll call of "immigrants".

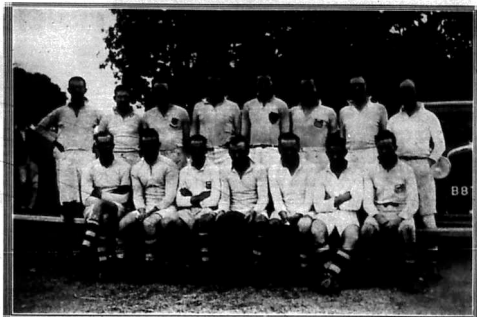

Happy faces at the Fair. The answer to the question as to whether or not Kenya is suitable for British settlers to make their homes and their lives here.

Topics of the Turf.

KENYA AND ENGLISH TEAMS.

To the Editor of "The Standard":
Sir,—While congratulating you on an excellent and very interesting contribution under the above heading, I would venture to point out to him that he is occasionally responsible for some rather odd remarks. For instance, in his description of the Harrier race at Nairobi, we were informed that the straight having been knocked over and not recovered, the event as a hurdle race, was rather a farce. I would point out to "Africa" that it is not a hurdle race, but a steeple chase, and that the hurdles that have been knocked over during the course of a race—no matter how dangerous they are, as I am sure all riders in the "hurdle" race will agree.

"Africa" is also wrong on the point that the Harrier race is a steeple chase. It is a hurdle race, and the hurdles are not knocked over during the course of a race—no matter how dangerous they are, as I am sure all riders in the "hurdle" race will agree.

KENYA DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

Director's Report on the Work of 1929.

The Money Expended. Need for Farming on Sound Economic Lines Stressed.

The position of Agriculture in Kenya during 1929 with the financial policy played by the Department, is set out in a very complete and voluminous Annual Report which also deals with the Veterinary Section.

The need for conducting farming enterprises on sound economic lines with due regard to low production costs is again emphasized.

There is no "short cut," declares the Director, to the solution of many problems.
