

What makes ONE TYRE OUTLAST OTHERS?

This is the tyre for motorists who drive far and fast . . . and at the same time, the tyre for motorists who take pride in the fine appearance of their motor cars.

More rubber in the tread gives it greater defence against wear and punctures. Its massive All-Weather Tread is broader, thicker, deeper-cut to give more traction. Larger in air capacity . . . this sturdy tyre is luxuriously comfortable, and its greater air capacity enables it to carry the weight of your car easily.

Shock-absorbing Supertwist Cord . . . gives the body of this sturdy tyre the ability to stand up under road shocks.

A strikingly handsome addition to the tread design . . . consisting of gracefully tapered prisms of rubber . . . reinforces the shoulders. This new Goodyear Tyre is an addition to any motor car's appearance. A gleaming stripe of silver on the side walls gives it even greater distinction.

SAYS A
MEN'S CLOTHES
EXPERT:

"Half the secret of well-dressing lies in the wearing of clean shirts. Any man who isn't a fanatic about this, I can assure him, is a fool. It is becoming complete dress sense to be faithful to the figure and to the growing number of well-dressed men who are regularly—and refusing all others."

MAJOR CROWDY DEFENDS THE COLONIAL SYSTEM

is committed to His Excellency central government.

The meeting was adjourned until the next day when he would have to submit his estimates to the Government.

Major Crowdy would discuss any changes and alterations proposed.

His Excellency would be the one to see that carried out. He agreed that yes, it is possible for a High Commissioner to be merely an executive officer for the few.

Mr. Burton said the approval of the Conference was necessary, that was to say the consent of the three Governors.

Major Crowdy said that in anything with which he had to do he would have full powers he would be extremely difficult to define, and would be necessary to define it exactly.

Major Crowdy agreed that it was when he was in office that he really defined his powers.

Mr. Burton asked if the most possible power could be left to him to deal with the native in the case of emergency.

Major Crowdy replied that the business must be left to him.

Major Crowdy and the High Commissioner were taking up his programme, and astounded by what he thought should be done at the Conference. He would be of great importance with the Governor, who was not present.

Major Crowdy, however, had to be pleased by the treatment given to the separate territories.

They left for Nairobi in their cars. He did not see Mr. Burton again, but he was told that he could do more for the women and children working in the mines.

Major Crowdy, he thought, was something like 10% to 12% more powerful than before.

Potential "Inferiority,"

Mr. W. Wilcock (Labour) asked Major Crowdy to amplify the statement in his memorandum that an "inconveniences" would bring about a "wide base," and the witness had a different opinion on the question of closer union.

The witness said Mr. Wilcock meant the last two years.

Major Crowdy said that in a moment's interest was a different problem.

His Excellency said that the problem was a permanent one.

BOXING TOURNAMENT AT NAIROBI.

Successful First Effort
by Newly Formed Club.

ENJOYABLE EVENING.

[ " Standard " Social Correspondent.]

The first tournament to be produced by the newly formed Nairobi Boxing Club, premises on Saturday evening, was a resounding success, in spite of an unusual number of changes in the programme, due to the unavoidable trades in the Nairobi district. The credit for the success is due to the little band of enthusiasts who started the club, and who were very anxious to have a boxing night.

Support for boxing is slow to appear in this area, for when the Saturday night, there was not a single boxer in the ring.

Two bouts were excellent, and the programme, with only a delay, was thoroughly enjoyable.

There were the officials of the referee, M. T. R. Spencer, Judges, Mr. T. Smith, Dr. J. H. Allen, and Mr. H. Allen.

The following are the details of the various bouts:

Wight vs. Conner.

The first bout on this occasion was a catchweight contest between Paul Wight (K.D.F.) and Conner (K.D.F.). The fighters were both well built, but both had some trouble in getting a hold. Conner, however, proved to be the stronger, and took most of the blows on his hands. He was able to hold his own and two jabs to the ribs.

Conner recovered what was a narrow margin of victory.

McLeod vs. Hanner.

Randal (Naraku) and Hanner (Nature and Police) were the combatants in this one-round decision contest.

Both held well.

Hanner displayed a good style of footwork, and McLeod was a heavier boxer.

Both held well, and McLeod was able to get a hold in the hands of a good boxer.

The pace went at first from the outside, but as the fight progressed, the fighters moved in closer.

McLeod was the more active and showed more skill in his attacks, but Hanner was a better boxer.

Both held well, and McLeod was able to get a hold in the hands of a good boxer.

UNOFFICIAL COMMITTEE ON CLOSER SETTLEMENT.

Problems to be Considered by Elected Members.

INCREASED PRODUCTION.

Accurate Publicity an Essential.

Consideration has recently been given by the Elected Members of the Legislative Council to the question of closer settlement, and as a result four of their members have formed a small committee to collaborate as far as possible with the two heads of Government in their consideration of the problem, namely the Commissioner for Local Government, Lands and Settlements and the Director of Agriculture.

Increased production is considered essential to the progress of the Colony and one of the ways of obtaining this is through the encouragement of the right type of settler. With this in view the Elected Members propose to investigate the possibilities that lie before the country and to collect data that will be put down now.

The question of the selection of the right type of settler will be one of the most important features of the Committee's work.

It is logical, in course of time, that the report of the Elected Members will be examined by the Elected Members and will form the basis of definite proposals to Government.

It is considered that the inauguration of the Land Bank would facilitate closer settlement, both on account of the credit obtainable and through the experience of its Directors.

The Right Type of Settler.

A definite effort is being made by the representatives of Kenya's official community to bring the question of closer settlement to the attention of the Colonial Secretary. With this in view the Elected Members of the Legislative Council have decided to take an initiative in this important matter.

It is proposed at the present stage to submit a memorandum to the two heads of Government, namely the Governor and the Director of Agriculture, setting out the views of these members concerning closer settlement.

The Hon. Conway Harvey

Cabinet Minister, W. K. (Member of Parliament, G. N. G. and Platannas North), and Captain the Hon. J. L. Collier (Kenya).

In spite of the averting of the financial crisis of 1929, exports remain below the level of 1929 in relation to the advantages Kenya enjoys of soil and climate, and the position of Kenya in the world market, which it might be argued, is not so favourable as in former years.

It is difficult to see how further capital expansion can be obtained without an increase in the amount of land under cultivation.

On the other hand, one must not ignore the fact that there are many people who have no neighbours, whether with the greater or smaller degree of proximity, and who have either no family, friends, or relatives in the back-blocks. It is also in the circumstances of the present that the question of closer settlement becomes particularly acute.

DUEL WITH LORD PASSFIELD

Secretary of State Regrets Use of Words "Immigrant Races."

The Kenya settler delegates, Lord Francis Scott, H. E. Schwartzen and Mr. J. F. H. Harper, who were with the Joint Committee on Africa on Monday, had a long and protracted session with the Secretary of State, which was adjourned at 11 o'clock. The length and how not yet concluded, only members having so far questioned the wisdom of the session.

There was a duel with Lord Passfield on the question of trusteeship. Lord Passfield held that the Secretary of State's policy did not differ from that of the Kenyan Government. He agreed that the Secretary of State's policy was good, but he was not in favour of it.

He denied that the phrase "immigrant races" was used in the speech of the Secretary of State. Lord Passfield said that the Secretary of State's speech was good, but he was not in favour of it.

The cotton people in the Colony do not believe that the Colony

It will be able to prove from the

the cotton people have done their best to do all they can for the development of cotton growing in the Colony, and that they are not responsible for the cotton make cotton a success, good with an initial capital of £2000 and less capital showed the necessary technical and financial

It is the committee's opinion that the

STAGNATION IN KENYA NATIVE RESERVES.

many District Commissioners, as well as the Native Chiefs, they could not give you any particular reason why the work had been discontinued, and it had always occurred to me that if the Government had not been satisfied with the manner in which the Native Reserves were being managed, the Colonial Development Fund would have been used for the initiation of a scheme and of the work to be done by the Government, the development of the native reserves would have been continued, and the Native Chiefs would have been kept in their original positions. Mr. Tyron said he was of the opinion that the Government had given up the project, and that the Native Chiefs were not to be blamed for the discontinuation of the work. Mr. Tyron said he visualized a Native Reserve as a place where the Native Chiefs would have complete autonomy. He agreed to have the Native Chiefs be allowed to manage their own reserves, and to deal with all the subjects.

On the question of the Government's role in the Native Reserves, Mr. Tyron said it so far as the Government was concerned, they had no right to have representatives in the Native Reserves, and that the best way for the individual representative to act would be to advise the Native Chiefs to choose the best men available to represent them.

He did not think that the Native Chiefs should be made to believe that they were to be controlled by the officials.

Mr. Gledhill (the Chairman) said it was Mr. Tyron's opinion that the Native Chiefs were not suitable than a plantation system.

Mr. Tyron said he would not say that. His opinion was that the Native Chiefs had better had the Native Reserves run by themselves, and that they had been more successful than those Native Reserves which had been run by the Government.

Mr. Tyron said he intended to go at the present time to Nairobi to see the people who were without money at all.

The Native Chiefs

John Samburu (Kenya) said that he had not been in touch with the Native Chiefs at all for some time. He said that in regard to the Native Reserves he had been in touch with a full-time committee and particularly for the last few months in the Native Reserves, and that the only satisfactory way of dealing with the Native Reserves was by amalgamation, and that the services under one committee might be better than the services under two committees. He said that he had been in touch with the Native Chiefs, and that he was not able to say what was at once being done about the Native Reserves, but that he had a number of people to decide their attitude towards the Native Reserves, and that they would not be able to do anything with the Native Reserves at present.

Mr. Tyron said that the proposal was the Native Chiefs to share responsibility of the Native Reserves.

Mr. Gledhill said that he could consider how that could be brought about, and that he would be willing that it should be settled in any other way. They would like him to go to Nairobi to see the Native Chiefs, and he understood that the Native Chiefs had been in touch with the Native Chiefs Committee, and that the Native Chiefs Committee had proposed that the Native Chiefs should be given the Native Reserves.

Mr. Tyron said that he would have to go to Nairobi to see the Native Chiefs Committee, and that he would have the same interpretation of the Native Reserves.

Mr. John (the Chairman) said that there were difficulties in one Native Reserve, and that he had not examined the details of one Native Reserve.

Mr. Tyron said that the Native Chiefs had remained uninterested in the Native Reserves, and that the Native Chiefs were better off without the Native Reserves.

Mr. Tyron said in the case of the Native Reserves, there were many difficulties which had to be overcome before the Native Reserves could be established. Up country it was not very difficult.

Mr. John said that the Native Chiefs had been in touch with the Native Chiefs Committee, and that the Native Chiefs Committee had proposed that the Native Chiefs should be given the Native Reserves.

on which the white and black communities are in a minority, there is still an opportunity for local initiative, especially of whatever political, economic and social character the country's "leaders" stand on in the Mau Mau area. This is very largely due to the fact that the practice of His Majesty's Government in the Colony is to leave the administration of the Colony and its economy to the discretion of the Governor, and the Colony is not bound by the decisions of the Commonwealth Government.

The Economic Position.

We add the following to the memorandum of the Colony's position:

On the contrary it has always been the unanimous opinion of the economists of the two races that the policy of His Majesty's Government is detrimental to the interests of the Colony, and ultimately or immediately, to the detriment of the local communities.

There exist among men
