Native Labour.

REPORT OF COMMISSION. PUBLICATION SHORTLY EXPECTED. In view of the importance of this subject we publish the following from our Weekly Issue.

The Native Labour Commission has already in its first report, this being due to the large area covered in respect both to territory and the broad scope of the programme, been criticised by many of those who have had little or nothing to do with the Commission. The work was very simple and that its conclusions were simple and logical and a matter, with the district from which he hails, and the work of the Commission was not to be done in the past system and establish relations in the future. The Commission has recommended that the native labour should be treated as a separate class, and that the native labour should be treated as a separate class, and that the native labour should be treated as a separate class.

With regard to taxation, it can hardly be claimed that while native labour is paid a monthly rate of Rs. 13 for a work of 160 hours per month, the native labourer is paid a monthly rate of Rs. 13 for a work of 160 hours per month, the native labourer is paid a monthly rate of Rs. 13 for a work of 160 hours per month.

People cannot say that B.E.A. is behind the times as far as arrangements are concerned. Besides the three theatres, we have now got "Theatricals" in Nairobi, it is to be seen from the "play at the night of the Gaiety."

The Festival of the East had one of its last performances at the Gaiety Theatre on Monday night.

HINTS FOR THE TOURIST. An able writer on the "Field" (F. O. Arabi) contributes an article on "Hints for the Tourist." He says: "The tourist on his trip to the tropics is likely to succumb to the conditions of his stay there during the few months of his stay here. But a few simple precautions taken to avoid the usual troubles of the tropics will ensure a pleasant and healthy trip."

Royal Vinolia Solidified Brilliantine.

THE delicate nature of Royal Vinolia Solidified Brilliantine, and its freedom from heavy grease, make it most attractive for dainty toilets. It is not only more convenient for use than any liquid preparation, but it makes the hair more supple and glossy, without giving it an oily or greasy appearance. Though solidified, it disappears completely on application to the hair, imparting a soft, silky texture and appearance. Its regular use makes dandruff impossible.

unusually in fact, under the present system, an officer is rarely to be called out by any one of the day or night.

We cannot say that the whole system of recruiting the police is so unsatisfactory as it is represented to be. The authorities cannot expect to Europeanize the force on the terms they offer if they do get them, and can undertake to retain their services under such inadequate and unsatisfactory conditions. It is clear that the police are continually being retrained and that changes in the rules are always taking place. The present system cannot be expected to serve under such ill-advised and irrelevant conditions.

There is no man, are the principal charges we bring against the police authorities, behind the scenes, who is not a member of the police of the Protectorate. Below we express at his headquarters in our own words what we think of the cutting down of expenses at headquarters if we understand some such programme in its entirety. To subscribe to the expense of efficiency and contentment among the ranks responsible for the successful and happy operation of the letter of the law, then the sooner the present policy of economizing is abandoned and some other method of recruiting expediently adopted, the better for all concerned. To bring about a reduction of the expenses of the force, by labouring for their weekly wage in a system as old as the hills, and neither better paid nor more respected for the organization of the force, is a system of making the police of the Protectorate a laughing stock in the eyes of the public. We can only speak for the organization of the force, the men who make up the force, and the men who are responsible for the successful and happy operation of the letter of the law, then the sooner the present policy of economizing is abandoned and some other method of recruiting expediently adopted, the better for all concerned.

To bring about a reduction of the expenses of the force, by labouring for their weekly wage in a system as old as the hills, and neither better paid nor more respected for the organization of the force, is a system of making the police of the Protectorate a laughing stock in the eyes of the public. Text of the PETITION.

The following is the text of the petition for popular representation to the Government of the Protectorate, presented to the Hon. the Principal Secretary of State, Mr. H. H. Murray, at the House of Commons, on the 11th of November, 1914.

The petitioners, who are British subjects, residing in British East Africa, desire to respectfully draw your attention once more to the petition submitted to the Governor of this Colony on the 10th day of November, 1914, and to the fact that the same was returned to the Governor of this Colony on the 10th day of December, 1914. It was with deep regret that the petitioners were informed that the petition had not been favourably received, and that the Government had decided to refer the petition to a committee of the Privy Council, which is now sitting in London, for a reconsideration of that decision.

The petitioners are deeply disappointed to find that the petition has not been favourably received, and that the Government has decided to refer the petition to a committee of the Privy Council, which is now sitting in London, for a reconsideration of that decision.

Labour Leader and the Empire.

"Not Played Out."
A JOHANNESBURG INTERVIEW.

In Johannesburg recently Mr. Will Crooks, M.P., gave his impressions of the Empire as recently seen by him in the East. The British Empire is far from being played out, why you have not seen any of it yet - you cannot come to this country or any other country and talk about the decadence of the Empire if ever was so wide. It never was so great. It never was so rich as it is at this moment. It doesn't look anything but a young man. Mr. Crooks' visit to the East, however I have been and have to tell you that I have seen very good things in the British Empire; in fact, they never go out of their way to emphasize it, even in the most out of the way of Australia. You go up to a place you perhaps would not live in, not even if you were paid to do so, not even if you were paid to do so, not even if you were paid to do so. It is not as if you have compelled them to do it. The Labour Party has been in the social problem. When he asked whether the future was not all right, provided the system was governed by his kind of people, he replied "There is nothing to prevent us standing strong through all our difficulties, but I believe that if they won't consider the human factor, there is going to be a great deal of trouble." Mr. Crooks said that people were struggling to get out of the world, but he said that Mr. Crooks said that human nature was the same in all countries, sometimes more so, sometimes less so. He said that the world was not so bad as it is made out to be. He said that the world was not so bad as it is made out to be. He said that the world was not so bad as it is made out to be.

AN INTERVIEW WITH MR. GEO. CATBRO, TOURING MANAGER OF THE VON ARNHEIM COMPANY.

Interviewed yesterday at his hotel by our representative, Mr. George Catbro, touring manager of the Von Arnheim Company, who has been in a mission of three nights at the Clubby Theatre, Nairobi.

"I am really fascinated," he said, "with your remarkable country, and I am only sorry that our early departure from the island prevents me from seeing more of it. To think that the legend, the rhinoceros, the hippopotamus, the ostrich, and other large game roam uncontrolled over the territory that I have just visited is a thing to which I will not return for a long time."

He then spoke of the splendid scenery that he had seen on his tour, and of the wonderful views that he had seen from the top of the mountain.
