PRICE, 20 CENTS

PETROL PRICES IN NAIROBI.

Traders Anxious to Buy for Cash.

UNSATISFACTORY POSITION.

Meeting Between Retailers and the Oil Companies.

Traders took place in Nairobi yesterday between motor dealers and the oil companies arising out of the recent fluctuations in petrol prices.

Although the wholesale cash price was quoted as Shgs. 2/90 on Friday, it was actually raised to Shgs. 2/100 on Saturday and in view of the unavailability of credit, representatives called upon to bring the matter to a head yesterday.

A resolution was passed expressing their desire to do cash business at the Shs. 2/100 per gallon and a request was made to the oil companies to refrain from dealing with other than cash buyers.

The afternoon representatives of the companies explained that the price was not quoted locally but asked for those to think the question of a meeting on Friday afternoon.

A Decision Is Taken.

That all petrol companies should be asked to sell the same price for cash only, and that the price should be reduced to Shs. 2/100 per gallon for cash only, and that the price should be reduced to Shs. 2/100 per gallon for cash only.

Meeting With Oil Companies.

It was suggested that representatives of the oil companies should be asked to come to the meeting immediately in order that the issue could be decided at once.

A Firm Was Requested.

The meeting which was held in Nairobi yesterday, for the purpose of discussing the problem of petrol prices, was held in Nairobi yesterday, for the purpose of discussing the problem of petrol prices.

DUANDA ABOR.

GETTING ON WITH THE JOB.

His Excellency the Governor of Kenya, Sir Joseph Baring, departed for Cambridge on Monday. Mr. Day might feel that the people of this province, in the absence of plain vehicles rather than plentiful cars, are in a somewhat unfortunate position for a quick escape. Kenya is a very large island, and it is not possible in that respect. His Excellency might well consider the proceedings which might be taken to deal with the problem of the transport of the Governor. It is not possible to deal with the problem of the transport of the Governor. It is not possible to deal with the problem of the transport of the Governor.

also placed on the settlement the responsibility to give the Government the benefit of a re-organized effort in the development of the sector in which the Government is interested. That is a challenge and a responsibility which the Government is applying a promise to meet. The Government is applying a promise to meet. The Government is applying a promise to meet.

THE WATER.
An accident occurred on Monday afternoon near the Municipal Office. A car was involved in a collision with a truck. The driver of the car was injured and taken to hospital. The truck driver was also injured and taken to hospital. The accident occurred on Monday afternoon near the Municipal Office.

Municipal Council.
An ordinary meeting of Nairobi Municipal Council was held on Monday evening. The meeting was presided over by the Mayor. The Mayor reported on the work of the Council during the past week. The Council discussed various matters of importance to the Municipality.
