A Strange Setting for Murder Trial. SUPREME COURT SITS IN THE RAILWAY INSTITUTE.

"She Was a Witch."

SEVENTY WAKAMBA CHARGED WITH KILLING A WOMAN.

When 70 Wakamba appeared before the Supreme Court yesterday on a charge of the murder of a woman of their tribe, special arrangements had to be made in order to accommodate this record number of accessed persons. Consequently the Court sat in the Nairobi Rallway Institute.

the setting of the Court was distinctly strange. His Bonour the Chief Justice occupying the stage amidst blazers surroundings, an askari occupying the orchestra pit and counsel, accessed, witnesses and the public being accommodated in the body of the hall.

The case against the 70 accused was that they had caused the death of the woman, believing her to be a witch who had cast a spell over the wife of one of their number. According to the evidence they had beaten her to death with sticks.

The minute says:—'A letter from the Hon Commissioner for ispac of the trovfor payment.

"It was pointed out that in October last it was promised that Government would consider the legal principle as to whether the Crown or the Council should take to recover rates payable in esponsibility, tos and be placed upon

POWERS TAKING FURTHER PRECAUTIONARY MEASURES AT SHANGHAL

Britain, the United States and France are taking further measures to protect their interests in the Inter-national Settlement at Sharper and three nations have been despatched to this area, all three they arrive foreign troops in Shanghai will number 12,000 exclusive of police and naval forces.

is expected that the large reinforcement of foreign troops at Shanghai will have a steadying effect upon the Japanese.

Japanese, however, have taken the hostilities a stage further, by a mayal bombardment of Nanking, the capital of the National Government of China. The shelling was followed by the landing of marines after severe fighting.

The Chinese Government has replied by sending 30,000 crack troops to Nanking from Hohan. The civilian population which was at first terror-stricken by the bombardment in contractions. pardment, is now calm

HOPES TO BE SPARED "UNLAWFUL AGITATIONS AND DISTURBANCES."

Difficult Financial Position.

OFFICIALS AND NATIVES HELD UP AS EXAMPLE TO OTHERS.

Sir Stewart Symes intimated in the course of his Budget speech before the Legislative Council of Tanganyika that although the estimates for the nine months of the present year, April to December, and the present year, April to December, or the present year, and been complete to reduce their reserves to vanishing point during the past pear.

expressed his belief that the foundation—exports of agricultural produce — although shaken in places remained intact and Government was making efforts to broaden and strengthen it. He declared agriculture to be the main and visible source of Tanganylas's sert to barter—for example exchange of piece goods for native produce by traders—threatens the whole structure of Tanganyika finance and strong efforts are being made to check this development.

reference to the disputed 'poll tax' the Governor recognising its unpopularity hoped it would be to excepted with the cheerful spirit in which officials had greed to a levy on their salaries and the phisgmatic exceptance by natives of the mere pittance succeptance by natives of the mere pittance mener ment was now able to provide for administrative ally he appealed for the maintenance of good temper and hoped Tanganyika might be spared unlawful agitation and disturbance.
