THE EAST African Standard. MONDAY, MARCH 16, 1914. ENTRE NOUS. Mr. Shear Denison is apparently one of those writers who thinks with the heart and not the head.

There are many countries in which the backwardness of the natives is such a serious obstacle to the progress of modern civilization that it is necessary to employ special methods when dealing with them.

It is a pity that the British and Indian Governments have not taken more steps to improve the condition of the natives in the Indian Empire. The Government of India has done a great deal to improve the condition of the natives in the Indian Empire.

Considering the vastness of our Indian Empire and the fact that we have a large population of natives, it is not surprising that we have not done more to improve their condition. The Government of India has done a great deal to improve the condition of the natives in the Indian Empire.

Copy of letter received from T. W. Rusley, Lessee and Manager of Theatre Royal, Nairobi.

Dear Sirs, Referring to Saturday's fire at the Theatre Royal, you will be interested to know that the five Fire Extinguishers, which I believe you are anxious for, proved most effective in putting out the fire...

On ascertaining the number of Extinguishers required to make up our complement I will ask you to replenish the supply.

Yours very faithfully, (Sd.) T. W. RADLEY. And for the cost of Rs. 6-50. Surely a cheap insurance.

Special Articles.

"East African Standard."

We have made arrangements for a series of articles on ADVENTURE, TRAVEL, HUMOUR, HISTORY, ESSAYS, Etc. By the undermentioned well-known writers.

PROGRAMME.

The following special articles have already appeared:— "The Great Canyon" by Mr. Henry Jones, C.M.G. "The Congo of the Congo" by Mr. J. H. P. Jones, C.M.G. "The Congo of the Congo" by Mr. J. H. P. Jones, C.M.G.

"Hibernicus" "The Question of Ulster" "The United Home Rule: A Forecast" "The Question of Home Rule: A Forecast" "The Question of Home Rule: A Forecast"

"Mrs. Fred Maturing" (Edith Cecil French) "Woman's Position and Ultimate Place in the Protectorate." "Western world, that is not surprising that it would be put in this position" "The Question of Home Rule: A Forecast"

William Le Queux "A Page of Memories." "In view of Mr. Le Queux's position and disposition naturally some with him on his part before he is finally as this great country."

Sir Francis Burnand "About Some Humourists" (The views of a son of Sir F. Burnand on some of our leading humorists)

Sir Martin Conway "Romance of Mountaineering." (One of the greatest explorers and climbers of the age describes how the fascination of mountaineering grew hold of his devotion.)

Sir H. Seton-Karr, C.M.G. "An Exciting Day in British East Africa." (A day's game in this big game hunter's paradise may include anything from a lion to a dik-dik—no matter what size larger than a hare. Although missing, a lion and a hippo, Mr. Seton-Karr was quite satisfied with his day's work.)

Queen of Rumania "I'll were a Millionaire." (One of Queen Rumania's charming essays. That author, although a Queen, has not been a millionaire, and is in fact rather poor of the nation, many with sympathy to the article.)

Judge Parry "The Funniest Thing I Ever Saw." (Many people consider "What the Butler Saw" to be the funniest thing ever seen, but the creator of it holds other views.)

Tom Gallon "The Art of Choosing a Wife." (The great author of "Destiny" is in his best vein when dealing with the subject of this article.)

E. F. Benson "My Favourite Pastime." (The author of "The Bluebird City" says no introduction. His favourite pastime was shooting and fishing, and his article makes one's heart ache for the joys of the life he led.)

Hubert Bland "On Keeping Up Appearances." (Hubert Bland's latest letter to the Standard has been in it of the most interesting and amusing nature, and his article makes one's heart ache for the joys of the life he led.)

A Help to Farmers

A GREAT WORK

The Standard Cyclopaedia

OF

Modern Agriculture.

Edited by Prof. Sir R. PATRICK WRIGHT, F.R.S., F.R.S.E.

With Special Contributions by more than 200 leading Authorities including many articles on African subjects, contributed by the highest authorities on Agriculture in Africa. The most comprehensive work on Agriculture ever published. NO MORE FARMERS AFFORD TO BE WITHOUT IT. It clearly sets forth up-to-date Agriculture in all its varied branches and deals with every feature practically. ILLUSTRATED. LIVES STOCK, BREEDING, DAIRYING, FORESTRY, MARKET GARDENING, HORTICULTURE, AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS AND MACHINERY, PESTS AND BEE KEEPING, VETERINARY SCIENCE, AGRICULTURAL CHEMISTRY, SOILS, IRRIGATION, MINING, METALLURGY, and ZOOLOGY. BOTANICAL AGRICULTURE, CHEMISTRY, IRRIGATION, MANURES, FERTILIZERS, STUFFS, ECONOMICS, and Book Keeping, Pigs, Game, Sports, and a great deal of miscellaneous matter (available to the Farmer, Sportsman, and Soldier).

The twelve volumes will contain about FIVE THOUSAND ARTICLES. A large number of text illustrations, numerous full page plates in colours, and a number of Anatomical Models, making the work a complete guide to Agricultural and Stock Breeding, both on the farm and in the factory.

Price, Rs. 100, payable in three instalments, Rs. 50 with order and two payments of Rs. 25, covering a period of four months.

PROGRESS.

THE ANNUAL B.E. REPORT.

A STORY OF ADVANCE.

The annual report of the East African Protectorate for 1913-14 has just been issued. It is a most interesting and instructive document... The revenue has increased by 10 per cent. The population has increased by 10 per cent. The area of land under cultivation has increased by 10 per cent.

NAIVE ADMINISTRATION.

Mysore Province.—The recent estimated native population in Mysore is 1,000,000. The revenue is 100 lakhs. The population is increasing rapidly. The administration is improving.

HOME RULE.

THE USTER QUESTION. (SECOND ARTICLE.) BY W. W. McCLINTOCK. (Continued from yesterday's issue.) The Uster question is one of the most important in the history of the British Empire.

TAXATION OF ELEGANT INDUSTRIES.

Curiously enough, the Uster question is not the only one of the kind. There are many other industries which are taxed in a manner which is not only unfair but also unjust.

Special Articles. "East African Standard."

ADVENTURE, TRAVEL, HUMOUR, HISTORY, ESSAYS, Etc. By the undermentioned well-known writers.

PROGRAMME.

The following special articles have already appeared.—"Some Eight Centuries" by Henry John Rose, C.M.G.; "The Geology of India," by F. R. Bell; "The History of the British Empire," by H. H. Munro; "The History of the British Empire," by H. H. Munro; "The History of the British Empire," by H. H. Munro.

"Hibernicus" "Ireland under Home Rule: A Forecast."

The question for Home Rule is not only one of importance to Ireland but also one of importance to the British Empire. It is a question which affects the interests of all the people of the British Empire.

"Mrs. End Matutin" (Edith Cecil Birch). Woman's Position and Ultimate Place in the Protectorate.

The position of women in the British Empire is one of the most important questions of the day. It is a question which affects the interests of all the people of the British Empire.

William Le Queux "A Page of Memories."

A man of Mr. Le Queux's position and disposition naturally writes with insight and power. His pages are full of interest and value.

Sir Francis Baring "About Some Humourists."

The views of a man of Sir Francis's position and disposition naturally writes with insight and power. His pages are full of interest and value.

Sir Martin Conway "Romance of Mountaineering."

One of the greatest explorers and climbers of the age describes how the fascination of mountaineering held him in its grip.

Sir H. Seton-Karr, C.M.G. "An Exciting Day in British East Africa."

A day's bag in this big game country's paradise may include anything and everything from a lion to a hippo. Sir Henry was quite satisfied with the day's work.

Queen of Rumania "If I were a Millionaire."

One of Queen Rumania's charming essays. That the author, although a Queen, is far from being content with her lot is rather surprising to say the least.

John Parry "The Funniest Thing I Ever Saw."

Many people consider "What the Butler Saw" is the funniest thing they ever saw, but the creator of it holds other views.

Tom Gallon "The Art of Choosing a Wife."

The great author of "Taintor" is in his best vein when dealing with a subject of this kind.
