Special Articles. "East African Standard."

We have made a questionnaire for a series of articles on AN EXCITING TRAVEL, HUMOUR, HISTORY, ESSAYS, Etc. By the undermentioned well-known writers.

PROGRAMME. The following special articles have already appeared: "Eight Corners" by Sir Henry Scott Kerr, C.M.G.; "The Outlook of India" by Mrs. Annie Shaw; "From Nairobi to London and Back" by Mrs. Annie Shaw; "A Day in the Life of a ..."

"Hibernicus" "Ireland Under Home Rule: a Forecast." (The question for Home Rule is one not only of importance to Ireland but of every people of the British Empire. The situation is now coming to a crisis and the public will be interested to know the opinion of the able Irish journalist who thoroughly surveys and examines the subject. The writer is not a party politician and deals with his subjects in an impartial manner.)

Sir H. Seton-Karr, G.M.G. "An Exciting Day in British East Africa." (A day's bag in the bush is a different matter altogether than a day's bag in the bush in a different matter altogether than a day's bag in the bush in a different matter altogether.)

Queen of Roumania. "Ii were a Millionaire." (One of "Damen Syren's" charming essays. That the author, although a Queen, is far from being a millionairess is in fact rather proved by the statistics. Money adds passively to the article.)

Judge Parry "The Funniest Thing I Ever Saw." (Many people consider "What the Butler Saw" to be the funniest thing ever seen, but the creator of it holds other views.)

Tom Gallon "The Art of Choosing a Wife." (The genial author of "Tatterly" is in his best vein when dealing with a subject of this kind.)

E. F. Benson "My Favourite Pastimes." (The author of "Damen Syren's" "The Funniest Thing I Ever Saw" writes on his favourite pastimes as skating and other winter sports, and his article makes the reader who has not spent a holiday in the Alps feel that he is missing something.)

Hubert Bland "On Keeping Up Appearances." ("Hubert" describes to us better known in the Colonies than he is at present. His articles are full of disconcerting home truths, are never dull, and are always of interest.)

COUSIN DUBEC. NAIROBI.
