Exclusive Articles

"East African Standard."

In addition to the series of Special articles that have been advertised in these columns we have made arrangements for exclusive articles on the following subjects:

"The Political Situation in Jubaland."

In two articles our resident correspondent at Nairobi will discuss the situation in Jubaland. The Colonial Secretary informed the House of Commons that the position in Jubaland had been somewhat obscure to him. This we think indicates that the Administration in B. E. A. have not furnished the Imperial Government, and certainly not the public in B. E. A., with information regarding the true state of affairs in the Province of Jubaland. There are two more columns in B. E. A. The Abyssinian Border, Jubaland and the North Eastern Frontier. Our correspondent in his first article deals with the supply of firearms from Abyssinia as it affects the situation and the question of the North Eastern frontier, while in his second he goes exclusively into the question of the 30th Immigration of the Somali. The first article appeared in our Daily issue of the 30th April and will appear in the Weekly Edition of May 2nd. The second article will appear in our Daily issue of May 1st and in the Weekly of May 3rd.

Woman's Position and Ultimate Place in the Protectorate

"The Other Side."

This is an article from the pen of a well-known lady journalist, who replies to the article which recently appeared in these columns from the pen of Mrs. Fred Maturin (Edith Cecil Furse). This article created a good deal of discussion, and our contributor prompts "The Other Side" in an entertaining manner.

"Modern World Movements."

F. C. Dawson, B.A., M.B., B.C. (Camb.) M.R.C.S., L.R.C.P.

Mr. Dawson in his article considers the changes in religious, social and political thought that are introducing the great nations, but more particularly East of Home. He deals with Japan as a very good example of the awakening of China, the changes in India, and the position in Europe. His article raises many questions and should create discussion in the Singapore and East of Home's Africa.

The other articles due to appear from the series on Advertisers, Travel, History, Essays &c. are

Judge Parry

"The Funniest Thing I ever Saw."

(Many people consider "What the Butler Saw" to be the funniest thing I have seen, but the creator of it holds other views.)
(This appeared in our Daily of April 30 and will be published in next Saturday's Weekly)

Tom Gallon

"The Art of Choosing a Wife."

(The genial author of "Tobacco" is in his best vein when dealing with a subject of this kind.)

E. F. Benson

"My Favourite Pastimes"

(The author of "The Robinsons City" sends his favourite pastimes and his article makes the reader who has not spent a holiday in the Alps feel that he is missing something.)

Hubert Bland

"On Keeping Up Appearances."

("Hubert" deserves to be better known in the Colonies than he is at present. His articles while full of disconcerting home-truths, are never offensive.)

The following special articles have already appeared:—"Home Tight Corners" by Sir Henry Stowe-Kerr, C.M.G.; "The Gaiety of India," by Furs Anton Stead; "From Nairobi to Ladysmith and Roundabout (Articles I, II, III & IV)" by Mrs. Fred Maturin (Edith Cecil Furse); "A Talk to Young Men," by the Duke of Argyll; "If I were a man," by Thomas Gray; "Why Arise, are not Arise," by Oswald Graham White; "The Romance of Early Civilization," by Professor Flinders Petrie; "The Case for Home Rule," Article No. 1, II & III by "Edinburgh"; "If ever I have seen a finer sight," by Sir A. T. Quiller-Couch; "A Page of Memories," by William Le Queux; "About some Humourists," by Sir Francis Baring; "The Angel in the House," "Woman's Position and Ultimate Place in the Protectorate," by Mrs. Fred Maturin (Edith Cecil Furse); "Romance of Mountain-riding," by Sir Martin Conway; "If I were a Millionaire," by Carmen Sylva (H.M. Queen of Rumania); "An Exhilarating Day in British East Africa," by Sir H. Stowe-Kerr, C.M.G.

A special illustrated article on the Zanzibar Coronations and Festivities will appear in our Weekly Edition of May 2nd.
