THE SECRET OF GETTING THE FULL ENJOYMENT
 each meal should give to the best of your ability, is the habit of saying a "Worrestorative" prayer, and always to eat for "LIFE & FORTUNE."
 There are scores of "Worrestorative" Prayers to choose from. No other has ever succeeded in equipping a man. If you say simply "Worrestorative" you may get out of the habit.

Half Price! A RELIABLE COLLECTION OF LETTIS' DIARIES FOR SALE AT Half Price! Finding the notes of a year's doings, we have spent 20 years. Buy one or more sets, genuine with an extensive form.

The new work shows how every East African Farmer can now take advantage of the latest discoveries of science and adopt the most successful modern methods.

These farmers who are dissatisfied with last year's results, and wish to be better the season need to buy this book. It is the very first book of the kind ever published in the East. It is a complete and up-to-date treatise on all the subjects connected with the raising of a small stock. It contains a full and complete list of the various breeds of cattle, sheep, goats, and pigs, and gives a full and complete description of the various breeds of each of these animals. It also contains a full and complete description of the various breeds of poultry, and gives a full and complete description of the various breeds of each of these animals.

The most authoritative work has ever been published. The 200 illustrations are superb in their quality. The illustrations are superb in their quality. The illustrations are superb in their quality.

FEVER PREVENTION.

To the Editor of the E. A. Standard. Sir, Through the medium of your valuable paper, I wish to express my appreciation to the public health authorities of the East African Protectorate, who have done so much to prevent the spread of the malarial fever, which is so prevalent in this country. I have been very much interested in the various reports which have appeared in your paper, and I have been very much interested in the various reports which have appeared in your paper.

Yours faithfully, FRED W. KERR.

"FORBID" CARS.

To the Editor of the E. A. Standard. Sir, I am very much interested in the various reports which have appeared in your paper, and I have been very much interested in the various reports which have appeared in your paper.

MARATHON BUNNING.

When one looks at the records set up by the Canadian marathon runner, G. H. Stanger, it is not surprising to find that he has broken the world's record for a 24-hour run. He has done this in a most remarkable manner, and his feat is a most remarkable one.

ON SECRETS.

There are people who would not be happy unless they had a secret, and certainly would be miserable could they find out up to whom to confide. It is always interesting to listen to these people—men and women—who are so sure of their own secrets, and who are so sure of their own secrets.

AGRICULTURE. PURE SEEDS AND PLANTS. THE SELECTION IMPROVE THE QUALITY?

INTERESTING POINT DISCUSSED. The selection improve the quality of the seed is a question which has been discussed in the leading article of the issue of The Journal of the British Association. The writer says that it is generally assumed that it is generally true that gradually improves varieties of plants and that unimproved are not infrequently to keep their type to standard. The majority of those who are so selected believe that a high price is paid for the variety which will deteriorate. It is not true that the man who selects a variety to grow for himself is not infrequently to keep their type to standard. Table with financial data including 'Revenue of General Dept', 'Expenditure on various heads', 'Income from various sources', and 'Grand Total'.

It need not be expected that all these things will be effected as they are now put forward. Modifications are certain, more especially in the direction of taking some of the burden of the tax off all 'unearned' incomes. There is a great deal of talk of the new income tax being put on a sliding scale of 20 per cent a year, but to pay 14 on this on the first £100, and 14 on the next £100, and so on, is not only good but wise. It will, in fact, be a step in the right direction, and it is to be hoped that the Government will not be deterred by the opposition of the House of Lords.

A NEW CREDIT BANK. The proposal to establish a new credit bank in the East has been discussed in the House of Commons. The American member said the English members are rapidly taking these and other important matters into consideration. It is to be hoped that the new bank would have a branch in London and other important centres. It is to be hoped that the new bank will be a success.

London, May 9. LITERARY QUESTION REVISIONARY. The House of Commons has today discussed the question of literary copyright. The House has decided to amend the law in certain respects. It is to be hoped that these amendments will be of benefit to the literary world.

DEATH OF THE DUKE OF ABERCROMBIE. The Duke of Abercrombie has died at his residence in London. He was a member of the House of Commons. His death is a great loss to the country.

CHRONIC HOSTILITY TO STRAIGHTENERS. There has been a further development in the House of Commons. The House has decided to amend the law in certain respects. It is to be hoped that these amendments will be of benefit to the straighteners.

IMPORTANT EYE RELECTIONS. It is to be hoped that the House of Commons will be of benefit to the eye relections. It is to be hoped that these amendments will be of benefit to the eye relections.

QUALITY OF THE NEW THEATRE. There has been a further development in the House of Commons. The House has decided to amend the law in certain respects. It is to be hoped that these amendments will be of benefit to the new theatre.

"A Trip Across Africa." (From Capetown to Cairo)

Mr. Emil Lund

This account of Mr. Lund's adventurous journey across Africa has never before been published. We have been fortunate in securing this absorbing story of a trip through the continents which has now emerged from Dark-

Trip up the Juba River.

By our Special Correspondent at Kisumu.

This article is an instalment of a trip from Kisumu to Sorong and describes the scenery on route. It lightly touches upon some of the folklore and customs of the Juba river, which inhabit the north-west bank of the river.

'Jubaland, Its Peoples and Future.'

By Cecil Wightwick Haywood.

We have made arrangement for the publication of a series of articles on this little known portion of the Protectorate. Its people will be dealt with under three heads: (1) the Hamitic Tribes (2) the Coastal Bantu Tribes (3) the Galla or mixed Bantu Tribes, possessing chiefly of escaped or liberated Somali slaves. The customs and customs of these tribes will be touched upon in all their political and economic importance. The future of Jubaland will be dealt with (1) the development by white occupation (2) the political position. The author was formerly a District Commissioner in Jubaland where he has spent nearly three years. He has been connected with the Administrative Service of the Protectorate some thirteen years and is therefore fully qualified to give an authoritative opinion on these subjects.

The above articles shortly will appear in the columns of the

"East African Standard."

Special Articles of Particular Interest to East Africans.

"A Trip up the Juba River."

By our Special Correspondent at Kismayu.

This article is an impression of a trip from Gohren to Beroni and describes the scenery en route. It lightly touches upon some of the habits and customs of the Galla river, which inhabit the south-west bank of the river.

"Jubaland—Its Peoples and Future."

By Cecil Wightwick Haywood.

We have made arrangements for the publication of a series of articles on this little known portion of the Protectorate. Its people will be dealt with under three heads: (1) the Hamar Tribes (2) the Coastal Bantu Tribes (3) the Galla or mixed Bantu Tribes, consisting chiefly of occupied or liberated Somali states. The manners and customs of these tribes will be touched upon as will their political and economic importance. The future of Jubaland will be dealt with (1) the development of white occupation (2) the political position. The writer is a member of the District Commission in the political position. The writer is a member of the District Commission in the political position. The writer is a member of the District Commission in the political position.

The above articles shortly will appear in the columns of the

"A Trip up the Juba River."

By our Special Correspondent at Kismayu.

This article is an impression of a trip from Gaboron to Essauil and describes the scenery en route. It lightly touches upon some of the folklore and customs of the Goshu tribes, which inhabit the south west bank of the river.

"Jubaland. Its Peoples and Future"

By Cecil Wightwick, Haywood

We have made arrangements for the publication of a series of articles up this little known province of the Protectorate. The people will be dealt with under three heads: (1) the Hamaric Tribes (2) the Coastal Bantu Tribes (3) the Goshu or mixed Bantu Tribes, consisting chiefly of escaped or liberated Somali slaves. The manners and customs of these tribesmen will be touched upon as will their political and economic importance. The future of Jubaland will be dealt with: (1) the development by white occupation (2) the political possibilities. The author was formerly a District Commissioner in Jubaland where he has spent nearly three years. He has been connected with the Administrative Service of the Protectorate some thirteen years.

The above articles shortly will appear in the columns of the "East African Standard." Are you a Subscriber?

Only Up-to-date Agriculture will Pay! The Standard Cyclopaedia OF Modern Agriculture.

This new work shows how every East African Farmer can now take advantage of the latest discoveries of science and adopt the most successful modern methods.

These farmers who are disappointed with last year's results, and wish to do better this season, would do well to at once secure the free booklet we offer below describing THE STANDARD CYCLOPEDIA OF MODERN AGRICULTURE. Edited by Prof. PATRICK WRIGHT, F.H.A.S. This great work treats some 5,000 subjects of paramount importance to farmers—Tillage and Farming—Modelism—Sheep-farming—Dairying—Forestry—Landscape Gardening—Instruments and Machines—Poultry and Bee-keeping—Orchard Farming—Dry Farming—Irrigation—Fruit Farming—Horse and Cattle Breeding—Veterinary Science and Practice—Agricultural Geology and Soil Physics—Entomology and Zoology—Honey and Apiculture—Agricultural Chemistry—Agricultural Law—Economics and Bookkeeping—Agricultural Banks—Biography—Dog—Game—Sports. There are a few of the headings, under which the contents of the complete work fall.

Full of reliable advice.

No more authoritative work has ever been published. The 200 contributions are experts in their several departments.

The illustrated booklet we offer will give you much more information than we can possibly supply in this column. Send for it to-day; we are so anxious it will prove to you that THE STANDARD CYCLOPEDIA OF AGRICULTURE is the cheapest and most remunerative of farming investments.

Booklet free.
