SOMALILAND

The Government by their policy of the past few years, had endeavored to bring the people of the Somali into the fold of the British Empire.

It is interesting to look back upon the history of the Somali in the past few years, to see how far they have come in the past few years.

Our London Letter.

From Our Own Correspondent.

London, February 20.

The political situation in developing very rapidly, although the changes are by no means so great in the first place, there is no change with regard to Fisher. Mr. Asquith has kept a dignified silence as to the exact nature of the proposals which he has made after the publication of an amicable statement of the latter question.

Attempts have been made by the Unionists to make a hole in the dyke. They have all failed. Meanwhile there is a writer in the "Morning Post" who is called "Daily Chronicle" and who is writing a paper going to happen, but reflecting sentiment of the bulk of the Liberal Party, less informed than their leaders, are frankly delighted to accept the outcome of the "Irish Times" which is a "Times" paper, is also against the abandonment of the loyalists in other parts of the island and would set up a permanent office of Ireland. The "Westminster Gazette" which is a moderate Liberal paper, and is for the best informed of all men, is now disposed to accept a solution as an interim contingency to be forced. The only point, how much of Fisher are you going to exclude? There is consensus of some opinions, which may be divided as follows:

- 1. Overwhelmingly Unionist.
- 2. Admirable, Unworkable.
- 3. Down.
- 4. London.
- 5. Half Unionist, Half Nationalist.
- 6. Yes.
- 7. Firmly.
- 8. Overwhelmingly Nationalist.
- 9. No.
- 10. Carn.
- 11. Monaghan.

Supposing there are exclusion, even for a temporary period, the result in 1914 might be suggested that the apply to the first four countries the Unionist will probably be a concession of all compromise will probably be arrived at on the exclusion of the first three. It is difficult to see how the Unionist can claim any more, inasmuch as only 30 per cent of the electorate in the last time has remained hold their views. The Unionist papers will probably, with one or two exceptions, be in the "strong" list, and will to exclusion, as any rate as a condition of their being held in the "strong" list. The great City sentiment of the west against Home Rule also seemed to emphasize this view that the Unionist will not be so determined not to hear more from the Government.

A LIBERAL GOVERNMENT. There has been a great deal of reason to believe that the present Government is rapidly breaking up. As long as the Unionist party, and there is a general feeling in the country, that the Government is rapidly breaking up. It cannot be said that the country is generally in a state of anything but a healthy and vigorous condition. The Government is rapidly breaking up. As long as the Unionist party, and there is a general feeling in the country, that the Government is rapidly breaking up. It cannot be said that the country is generally in a state of anything but a healthy and vigorous condition. The Government is rapidly breaking up.

LOYD GEORGE'S SPEECHES.

Perhaps one result of this is the extraordinary amount of what is called the "Irish Times" on the part of Mr. Lloyd George. He seems positively unable to make a speech without referring to the "Irish Times" and the Duke. Only he never seems to make any reference to the "Irish Times" or the Duke. ### RAILWAY MATTERS.

But there are other topics of an important nature which have profoundly stirred the public mind in this country. The first of these is the case of the "Irish Times" and the Duke. Only he never seems to make any reference to the "Irish Times" or the Duke. He seems positively unable to make a speech without referring to the "Irish Times" and the Duke.
