Incidents in the War Against Piracy.

BRITISH COLLIER'S FIRE FEAT.

[Special.]

London, Mar. 4. It is reported tonight that the German U-boat which sank the small British collier "Seydlitz" on Saturday was destroyed by the crew of the "Thames"...

A British oil-tank steamer has arrived in the Harbour, and reports that the crew and passengers were rescued by a German airship...

An official announcement shows that the crew of the "Seydlitz" were rescued by the crew of the "Thames"...

The Press Bureau states that destroyers of the "Vernoy" yesterday afternoon, sank the German submarine U. 8, the officers and crew being captured.

A Polish official report says that a French destroyer shelled a German submarine in the Channel on Thursday (4th). This shells hit the submarine and sank it.

The Press Bureau states that a satisfactory announcement, which shows the failure of German piracy.

It is stated in Amsterdam that a wireless telegram from Berlin admits that the "Thames" U-boat was only slightly damaged, and returned to port.

The Admiralty have made the announcement that it does not intend to grant the kneeling honorable treatment to the officers guilty of attacking and sinking unarmed merchantmen.
