Tea

Good tea is almost a food as well as a drink. It satisfies hunger as well as thirst.

Tea has all the good effects of alcohol and none of its bad ones. It possesses other virtues besides. Tea drinking is a good habit—alcohol a bad one.

Be sure of good tea and buy Brooke Bonds.

Two qualities of Brooke Bonds tea are sold in Africa. The best is Red Label, which is fine tea flavoured with choicest Darjeeling; Green Label is pure Indian tea of good strength and flavour. Both qualities are packed in 4-lb. and 1-lb. tins containing full net weight of tea.

WHY THE GERMAN NEVER TACKLED IT. (BY EDGAR WALLACE)

London, December 23. I was surprised to find that the German never tackled the situation in the part of the Russian front which is usually described as Volynia, the Brynia, the Tempel and the Eastern Galician front.

So that for two months Russia has been sitting on her hands an enormous force and not attempting to take any of the territory which is in its hands.

It is a question which everybody is asking, and which everybody is trying to answer, why the German never tackled the situation in the part of the Russian front which is usually described as Volynia, the Brynia, the Tempel and the Eastern Galician front.

What we want now in London is some relief with a sense of humor to depict our night scenes, or at any rate a sketch of them as we can see in the darkness. The latest really funny idea is to make all the comestibles on point duty with a black white band across the left eye so that they can be seen in the darkness.

It was proposed by Mr. Sinclair that the above mentioned sum be brought to a sum total of Rs. 15,000 (15,000) by the addition of Rs. 118 6 9 to be taken from the funds of Zanzibar War Relief Fund.

It was proposed by Mr. White and seconded by Mr. Kipling that, in regard to this sum to be sent to the British Red Cross Society in London, it is suggested to them that this amount be expended in connection with the Red Cross in British East Africa. In answer to your appeal of September, 25, Zanzibar is sending £1,000—President Zanzibar War Relief Fund.

NOT TAKEN.

In his recently published book "A Soldier in Kiaki," Dr. A. A. Martin says that the wounded German soldiers were treatable and grateful, but the officers "behave like devils." His revolver was in the pouch on his belt. He had forgotten to take it, and he had forgotten that it was there. Our prisoner spoke English very well, and said that he was a good standing round linguist, was that that wishing he could succeed in that is a particular disgrace to be a prisoner of the hated English. An English officer in charge at this particular place here went up to our snarling Prussian who was asked "that he had been killed," and said "I see we have omitted to take over your revolver. It is still in your pouch and probably loaded. Well, go off five paces over there and blow your damned head off with your own gun. I won't interfere with you, and none of us will mourn for you. The Prussian shot up like an ox-bow. We all laughed, and thereupon, a cry of one of us, "bungle. The eyes of the man blazed with fury, but he made no movement towards the five paces off, and handed over his revolver. The English officer who was asked to look it, and called on a soldier to take it."

Mr. Israel Zangwill contributes a witty article to the "New York American" on English spy fever. He appears to have been challenged several times himself and so he delivers himself as follows: "Walking alone you are spying; brisley, you are being. Asking the way is suspicious; knowing it, still more so. A book is a code, an electrical torch a wireless installation, a kodak death and damnation. Your love-story holds bombs, your card-company don't's cards, your very passport is no proof that you have not considered the over. To smoke is to rock of the feathered; to smoke tobacco the last sacrifice of the Prussian patriot, to light your pipe at night is to commit a Zepplin. Does your name begin with a Z? You are obviously the cousin of a notorious Count.
