and as there were roughly 600 natives in the four companies taking part, it can be assumed that almost 250 further catualties took place. A terrible loss, indeed, and ab-solutely no glory in the whole fighting, taking place as it did in a listle out-of-the-way spot 5,000 miles from England, and in way spot 5,000 miles from England, and in a place that not one person in a thousand has ever heard of. The camp was not evaluated for some hours, in case men who were missing might red up, but only very few came back again. A final retirement to the border was, then made under Captain, G. S. C. Adman, of the Boyal West Surrey. 2. S. C. Adams, of the Royal West Surrey Regiment, and this officer setted most mag-nificently in withdrawing his men. A fine looklier this man Adams, and now who should have a great future before him. When first the German Braggart swors The world he meant to rule Old England simply did a smile And said "Don't be a fool,"

The pick of India's fighting men And Australia's very best The "All Blacks" and Canadian Troops Responded nobly to the test.

And here in Africa's toorid heat

Tis but a small though gallant band. They sent from far Bombay. But with the Local Forces here. They'll more than win the day.

The Ladies too have greatly helped. To lighten Tommy's heart. With prayers and Gifts for Christmas They each have played their part.

And to-morrow being Christmas Day That day the Tommies keep We'll take a showman's privilege And behind the curtain peep.

"Oh Soldiers brave" the message ran "God guard each precious life And bring you back victorious From the fierce and deadly strife

We esnuot, being women But pray God your burden lift And we send you such a present Just a simple Christmas Gift."

Tobacco, eigars and briar pipes And of pudding—each a gound

"God bless them," said a Sergear For their kind and thoughtful act We'll fight and die if need be To uphold the "Union Jack."
