WAR ITEMS.

Header at Antwerp has reports that the German harvest is a complete failure.

The Germans are clearing mines in the Baltic Sea with the object of hindering British from receiving munitions.

The results of the 1914 harvest in Belgium are not so good as in 1913. The yield of wheat, potatoes, etc. in Belgium are 56 per cent above the previous year.

Germany no longer thinks of annexing a neutral country, but returned from Berlin to a War Office in the North, she only thinks of holding on.

General Botha states that his fleet is not intended to be used in any way but to be ready to meet any emergency.

Header at Antwerp telegraphs that four 20-calibre mortars which were used in Berlin and Antwerp are now in the hands of the British.

At question time in the Commons Mr Lloyd George announced that an expert is going to the United States to study the means of expanding the whole of the supply of munitions.

When a 12-in shell was fired in the sea it was a failure. A 12-in shell was fired in the sea it was a failure.

There are indications that the Germans are relying more on the use of material and less on the use of men.

It met with anything like effective opposition. The German advance came to an end. Throughout, Germany has gained by comparison success by the superior powers of its arms, also. She has not gained on the ground, but even comparatively good success in the air. The British did not, for instance, in the case of the battles fought, but troops have been so much superior to theirs that a well-organized and well-equipped force could not be defeated by a general in the field. It is only in the case of the German air force that the German army has not been defeated. It is only in the case of the German air force that the German army has not been defeated. THE WORKERS AND WAR.

The following article was written by the correspondent at the Times, London.

One thing is certain, a strike will not seriously hamper the production of the articles that are needed for the war effort. It is not the case that the workers are so essential to the war effort that their absence would be a disaster.

and children, your old fathers and mothers at home. The generous words had their effect. The old story of a capital owner's lament proved what followed. The fact was, however, that the workers were not so essential to the war effort as the capitalists claimed.

 THE NEWS OF THE SOUTH WEST Africa. When German troops were in the neighbourhood of the Cape Colony, the result has been a triumph of generalship and organization. From the first, a spirit of confidence and trust in the performance of the plans conceived and staff, and to the fine spirit animating
 the troops. Some idea of the difficulties of the campaign are given by Reuters' correspondents, whose account is a most interesting one. It is a triumph of generalship and organization.

OUR LONDON LETTER.

From the Daily Telegraph, London, May 27.
The London Convention has just opened to have before it the burning question of the East African Protectorate.

Let me take in the first place the position of the Convention. It is a very important one, and the fact that it is held in London is a sign of the importance of the question.

ENORMOUS GERMAN LOSSES

Boiler's correspondent at Paris forwards a report by the French official eye-witness...

It had been strongly fortified by the enemy, but a bombardment lasting all day, followed by the launching of aerial torpedoes...

The Germans then tried an outflanking movement, but were overwhelmed by a rain of hand grenades.

WAR PRISONERS AS SETTLERS.

A report from the Spring Lake Alton Camp, located in the Province of Quebec, states that the greater number of the 765 prisoners interned there are making plans for remaining at the place and organizing it as a permanent farming colony...

The prisoners brought up reserves in crosses and delivered eight attacks, each of which was defeated by a curtain of bullets.

THE AFRICAN NATIVE.

The report of the Council of Education of the Transvaal, dealing with native education in that Province of the South African Republic...

First, the native is left to himself to be helped to find the path of real progress. That is as much as any that the native is very different from that of the white race...

What, then, is required in the training on which the whole system is to rest? Well, the conception is far wider than industrial training. It covers religious and moral training...

It has not, as yet, been the experience of Africa to have a power which is so great that the difficulty of realizing what those who are in power wish to do...

so sanitary as well-ordered city. Then the army went out and fought a battle lasting six days...

GERMAN FEAR OF RUMANIA. Immediately after Italy's declaration of war the Balkan states were quickly divided...

It is significant enough that the editor of the "Herald" writes that the Italian War is as well as by the former German Ambassador in Rome, Count Alois...

In another telegram the news inspired was received from the news which Italy had sent to the Italian War...

THE IMPERIAL POLICE "Einkaufsbureau" also calls attention to the effect upon the Balkan States of the German ultimatum...

Never saw it more necessary than now that the policy of Germany and Austria-Hungary should be clearly understood...

Some Points in Their Favour.

The Buick Valve-in-head Motor Car

Is the Best Type of Motor Car And the Best of its Type.

THE BUICK CREED

A Buick automobile is not a machine, it is a living thing, and it will give you the maximum of service for the minimum of cost.

Durability.

Years ago it was a challenge—which has never been accepted—to any competitor to produce a motor car Buick cars were publicly challenged and continue to do so...

Reliability.

The Buick car is called upon to render harder service in every way than any other automobile manufactured.

Cost of Upkeep.

No car on the market is so cheap as a Buick. Figures show that the entire consumption of Buick parts, fitting on all cars that have been built, average less than $1.30 per car per month.

The Buick Motor Car Company guarantees the absolute truth of each and every statement made concerning the value of BUICK MOTOR CARS.
