GERMAN PLANS.

What I have written in England I have written with every expectation that it will be read by you. I have written it for you. I have written it for you. I have written it for you.

On the whole, since the return of Paris, the German press has been content to repeat the same old news. It has been content to repeat the same old news. It has been content to repeat the same old news.

Germany's main policy, as I have indicated, is to avoid France. It is to avoid France. It is to avoid France. It is to avoid France.
