AT A BRIGHT PACE.

I have just been for a rapid run by motor car from Cape Moring to the "Daily News" office. I have seen the General in person, and have a more intimate knowledge of his ways, and have seen the staff and the various departments of the office. I have also seen the various departments of the office, and have seen the staff and the various departments of the office.

In examining the details of this organization, I find that every one of the staff is a man of some talents, and that every one of the staff is a man of some talents.

It is well, too, that I know some of the staff, and that every one of the staff is a man of some talents.

I will give you a few references to any man who can assist you in any way, and that every one of the staff is a man of some talents.

It was the same with the General who had the same staff, and that every one of the staff is a man of some talents.

He had a staff of some talents, and that every one of the staff is a man of some talents.

men are firing up hills of lead, and are in a hot line. But it was not the usual one of these stores which was broken. It was the excitement.

The officer in charge of the red store found that the men were firing up hills of lead, and are in a hot line.

"They make a beautiful sight, don't they?" said a young man by my side. "I know by the tone of the voice that the man was looking at my advertisement.

JAPAN AND RUSSIA.

"We wish to strengthen ourselves against our enemies. We wish our country to be strong so great and strong that it will not be regarded by us as having it necessary to assure our strength."

THE RUSSIAN PRESS.

The Russian press is denouncing loudly the fact that a pair of professional crooks got up to and how the law eventually dealt with them, very fine acting and dramatic work comes into play.

THE RUSSIAN PRESS.

Many of our publicists, Professor Kuznetsov, have for years and years been insisting on the production of an alliance with Japan to be entered into by Russia, China and Japan.

THE RUSSIAN PRESS.

During this time Delicious Ice Creams and other Refreshments may be obtained in the most Comfortable and Convenient manner at the Restaurant in Africa, UPSTAIRS, at the "Kendavans" of Nairobi.

WARWICK WAR TOPICAL.

Showing—"The war time festival at Marlborough House. Novel scenes of troops on the Thames at Hampton." "Some scenes in France." Battle pictures from the land of make-believe, slaughter of the men."

A HOUSE DIVIDED AGAINST ITSELF.

According to trustworthy information from Constantinople, the British-Bulgarian alliance has been broken up. The British Ambassador in Constantinople has been notified that the Bulgarian Government has decided to withdraw its request for the continuation of the alliance.

THE MYSERABLES.

The Paris newspaper "Le Temps" publishes an article dealing with the strength of the German army and the losses up to the present time. The article states that the German army has lost 400,000 men, and that the British army has lost 1,000,000 men.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

The official lists of casualties show that the British Expeditionary Force has lost 14 officers and 798 men. Another 100,000 men have been killed in the last 110 months.

MAJESTY, YOU LIE.

The official lists of casualties show that the British Expeditionary Force has lost 14 officers and 798 men. Another 100,000 men have been killed in the last 110 months.

WHAT ARE THE ENIGMAS DOING?

Italian Social Democrats' Appreciation.

The following (quoted by the "Abruzzo World") is a free translation of extracts from an article in the "Secolo," of Rome.

What are the English doing? This is the question which many people are asking in Italy. The English have been fighting hard for a year, and are now understood to have secured the victory.

The public would like to see a more pronounced and important attitude. The English have been fighting hard for a year, and are now understood to have secured the victory.
