HELP BELGIUM!

A Further Appeal.

FUNDS URGENTLY NEEDED.

The following letter and appeal have been received through the Secretariat of the Treasurer, of the East Africa Protectorate, Nairobi, E. Africa.

"Sir,—I have the honour to enclose a copy of a further appeal issued by the National Committee for the Relief of Belgium. My Executive Committee, of which I am the Chairman, trust that you and the members of the Council of the East Africa Protectorate may see your way to give it generous consideration. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, J. H. HORTON, Secretary, National Committee for the Relief of Belgium, Trafalgar Buildings, Trafalgar Square, London."

"We earnestly appeal to the East Africa Protectorate for help. We know that your Colony has already taken generous steps in the work of Relief, but we venture to hope that this appeal separate over I am sending 100 copies of my Appeal and I should be glad to send you one if it would be of use."

"I am, etc. W. A. M. GOOK, (T.P.A.) "The Secretary."

Eleven months ago I formed the National Committee for Belgium in England and applied to our fellow-citizens through out the British Empire on behalf of a fund of £100,000 which was to be collected and distributed with liberality in their own territories. The National Committee for Belgium in Belgium to-day exceeds three millions. Most of these are women and children.

Since we made our previous appeal to Germany, contrary to every civilized principle, we apply to them with our present petition not to support the Belgian people, who are in their own territories, and threatened with starvation in their own territories. The National Committee for Belgium in Belgium to-day exceeds three millions. Most of these are women and children.

The difficulty with corn was that it got the leaf blight which shows up too long, and the leaf is very dry and brittle, and it is very difficult to make the very best of it. The only way to get the most out of it is to get it as early as possible, and to get it as soon as possible. GREAT NAVAL BATTLE. British Squadron Fights German Fleet.

HEAVY LOSSES ON BOTH SIDES. Battered Enemy Retires.

NO STOMACH FOR OUR BIG SHIPS.

"MOST NOTABLE VICTORY SINCE TRAFALGAR."

[Official Communiqué.] London, June 7. On the afternoon of May 31, a great naval engagement took place in the North Sea. The result of the fighting left on the battle cruiser fleet, with some destroyers and light cruisers, supported by four battle ships.

which another dreadnought battleship of the same class was believed to have been sunk by one of our destroyers. One of the three German battle-cruisers was the "Derfflinger" and "Lützow," one was the "Blücher," and another was the "Seydlitz" battle-ship, was sunk disabled, and the third was observed to be burning.

On German light cruisers, and six destroyers were sunk, and at least two more German light cruisers were seen disabled. Finally a German submarine was mentioned.

The "Times" understands that Admiral Henslow flew his flag on the "Invincible" as second in command of the entire squadron.

"Blücher" class. Comprise five ships; they were completed between October, 1912, and August, 1913; displacement 24,700 tons; length, 264 feet beam, 50 feet; designed horse-power, 25,000; speed, 20 knots; complement, 1,080; guns, ten 12-inch, four 6-inch, twelve 4-inch, four 16-pdr. (anti-air), torpedo tubes 20 (10-inch), four submerged (torpedoes), one submerged (mine); average cost per ship, $2,400,000.

The Associated Press was informed at the Admiralty that the latest report from Sir David Beatty carried a feeling of optimism. "We are sure," he said, "that we will win our next battle."

The Associated Press states that in a wireless message from Berlin, which was intercepted in London, the Germans admitted the loss of the dreadnought "Wattenburg." [Wireless message.] London, June 2. Official naval statement today says that the British force of 10 ships was engaged by the German force of 10 ships.

A general note says: "The ships of this class are the most powerful and best equipped ever designed fitted by us." It says that the British force was superior to the German force.

The British Admiralty has issued information to the effect that the writer of this article writes with the exception of the "Moth" which was lost, and which was the only one of the "Queen Mary" class.

There is the strongest ground for expecting that the German losses include the following ships:

- Dreadnought battleships 2
Latest light cruisers 2
Light cruiser "Blücher" 1
Light cruiser "Frankfurt" 1
Destroyers (at least) 2
Submarines 1

Total 10.
The "Queen Mary" class. Completed between 1914 and 1915; displacement, 27,500 tons; length, 450 feet; beam, 60 feet; designed horse-power, 27,500; speed, 20 knots; complement, 1,200; guns, eight 12-inch, 16 4-inch, four 16-pdr. (anti-air), torpedo tubes 20 (10-inch), four submerged (torpedoes), one submerged (mine); average cost per ship, $2,400,000.

CROSS CHANNEL PASSAGE. The Journey of 1916. AN EXCITING TRIP.

From Our Own Correspondent. London, March 2. (News: travelling has now become a passion—the word is a misnomer—on which no one else lights knowledge. The sinking of the "Malta" was described to a minute but which made people think to be asserted that the Germans have been without success and which do not seem to occur to the world.

Probably many of my readers know the crossing from Folkestone to Boulogne which is now closed to all civilians except military men or those furnished by the Government with special passes created and renewed recently, so perhaps you may not have an idea of what happens. The train runs on the pier as usual—in the old days the railway to which the departing visitors now there is with a single exception. Not a soul was allowed to approach and every visitor must have passed ready with the green pass in addition if he is of military age. You cannot leave the country without, and if you got over the side, and the British officer who runs Boulogne would send you home to be prosecuted. As you lie up against the pier side after the strain of soldiers returning from leave arrives and the join the train to go to the pier side, the pier side is a little bit of the pier side.

Then you have to start there three or four miles apart in the morning. It is a little bit of the pier side. It is a little bit of the pier side. It is a little bit of the pier side. It is a little bit of the pier side.

FRENCH LINE PRACTICALLY INTACT. The Price of "Frightfulness."

BRITISH SUCCESSES. (THEIR OWNERS' ARMY.)

London, June 9. A Paris communication says that on the left bank of the Meuse, the artillery activity has been intense in the sector of Hill 984 and in the region of Chaboussart. The enemy on the right bank of the Meuse, after a violent bombardment, succeeded in attacking the west bank and for Douaumont. Hill 243 has been between the Vimy Ridge and Laboulaye. The enemy were expelled, the results generally being in our favour. The explosion of a mine near the Hohenzollern Redoubt damaged the enemy trenches.

The enemy heavily shelled our trenches between one o'clock and three in the afternoon, also our position to the west of Hill 243. The enemy were, however, no infanteries were in the position.

Further reports of the (the) enemy's activities on the left bank of the Meuse, which were reported everywhere they saw any progress on the right bank of the Meuse.

Tea

Good tea is almost a food as well as a drink. It satisfies hunger as well as thirst.

Tea has all the good effects of alcohol and none of its bad ones. It possesses other virtues besides. Tea drinking is a good habit—alcohol a bad one.

Be sure of good tea and buy
Brooke Bonds.

Two qualities of Brooke Bonds tea are sold in Africa.
The best is Red Label, which is fine tea flavoured with choicest Darjeeling; Green Label is pure Indian tea of good strength and flavour. Both qualities are packed in ½-lb. and 1-lb. tins containing full net weight of tea.
