"EAST-AFRICAN-CHINA," TOILET WARE.

(FLORAL and TINTED DESIGNS on ENAMELLED IRON).

HOUSEWIVES, all over the Protectorate, have long ago foresworn the use of earthenware toilet utensils, which in the first place are liable to be broken, almost as soon as bought, and secondly are most difficult and expensive to match. We are in the happy position of having three times as large a stock of enamelled sets as we have ever had, and the selection is much better than formerly. This may appear strange to a public that is being frequently reminded of scarcity in all directions and especially in enamel-ware goods, but the same is only possible by reason of our London buyers having come across a large stock that had been stored away since the war opened.

THESE, WE ARE INFORMED, CANNOT BE REPEATED.

ENAMELWARE TOILET SETS.

Comprising:—Large Jug, Basin, Brush Vase, Chamber and Soap Dish, in colors of imperial blue, reseda and dark green, the latter having a cream lining

Price Rs. 19-50 only.

(A few slightly damaged at Special Prices.)

The "Grecian" shaded Toilet set; earthenware, in shades of Blue or Green. Rs. 17-50.

ENAMELWARE TOILET SETS.

Floral and shaded, comprising:—Large Jug, Basin, covered Brush Dish, covered Soap, large Sponge and Soap Bowl with Drainer and Chamber, in various colors and the choicest of floral design. Some of the sets are worth fully Rs. 50-00 whilst none are anything but very reasonable at Rs. 35-00 only.

NEWS FROM NAKURU.

Wanted—A Land Policy.

A FIGHTING FLAMINGO

(From Our Own Correspondent).

Nakuru, September 30. Mr. Harrold, of Nairobi, has been spending a few days here. He has gone to Uganda to take over charge of a coffee plantation at Fort Bull and has many friends wish him the best of health and luck.

RED CROSS DAY FUND.

On behalf of the Red Cross "The" Fund the following further amounts have been received by the Managers Messrs. M. J. Macdonald—Mrs. Evans Rs. 5, Dr. Gordon, Rs. 2, Mrs. Lusk, Evans, Rs. 15, Capt. Morris, H. P. Capt. Edmunds, Rs. 5, For Mrs. H. P. Armstrong, as a result of the sale on September 18, Rs. 5478. There has been a fairly good response, but it is only owing to the services of our worthy contributors.

Our South African friend, Mr. Crawford, has returned from his visit to the Congo, and speaks very highly of the local country, saying: "It is now staying with a friend on Nakuru Lake."

A FIGHTING FLAMINGO.

A lady living in from Solih had a very interesting experience. She had a pair of swans, one in seven and one in four plumes, both wings broken and back swollen. The victim—very little the water—has been sent to Mr. Hartley for the Red Cross Lake, which I hope will be a great success.

WANTED—A LAND POLICY.

Most of us in this paper are entirely agreed that it is up to the Government to define the land policy for future settlement without any further delay. Whilst this "land" survey policy may suit the authorities, it is not so satisfactory to our South African friends. It is our belief that the Government should be asked to define the land policy for future settlement without any further delay. Whilst this "land" survey policy may suit the authorities, it is not so satisfactory to our South African friends.

We were told in the last "weekly" that the "Porto de Savona" had arrived at Nakuru on Sunday last. We received news of this only a few days ago. It is reported that she arrived in Nakuru on Sunday, but was not seen until she was on her way to the station.

By special Mess. Frigate arrived from Nairobi on Monday. They were particularly glad to see the boys on the boat, and many of them were very much interested in the boys' school.

VERY HIGHLY RECOMMENDED.

Mr. Wright has returned to open up a business in Nakuru. He has been in the country for some time, and has been very successful in his business. He has been very much interested in the boys' school, and has been very much interested in the boys' school.

EDWARD RAYNE'S SEASON.

Charley's Aunt.
Charley's Aunt, a brilliant play by the Duke, as it always does. The strong feature of this farce is that it contains humorous episodes with unusual irony.

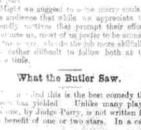

the time that the King would drop in and have a row or two with the boys, but unfortunately, the King is a bit of a snob and he never appears. In fact, the author, after a few lines, has to give up the idea of the King's visit.

the wounded. Minnie Cartwell was very unkind to go to the Duke's house, but she was very kind to go to the Duke's house, but she was very kind to go to the Duke's house.

Red Cross Performance.
The Palace was well filled at the matinee on Thursday, October 5, when the Leocadia Hayne Company gave a performance for the benefit of the Red Cross.

What the Butler Saw.

Tea

The higher altitude tea grows at the better its flavour. Tea grown on the plains is strong and deep coloured, but lacks flavour. The finest flavoured tea is Darjeeling tea. Darjeeling is a tea district in the Himalaya Mountains many thousand feet above sea level. But neither Darjeeling nor any other kind of tea is palatable unblended. Brooke Bonds are blenders whose business it is to select, blend and render tea in its best possible form. Their Red Label quality is Indian tea in its best. Brooke Bonds cannot blend better tea than their Red Label quality, neither can better tea be bought.

In this market there are two qualities of Brooke Bonds tea. Red Label is the first quality, and Green Label the second. Both are packed in 1-lb and 1-lb air-tight canisters, which contain full net weight of tea.

"EAST-AFRICAN-CHINA," TOILET WARE.

(FLORAL and TINTED DESIGNS on ENAMELLED IRON).

HOUSEWIVES, all over the Protectorate, have long ago forewarned the use of earthenware toilet utensils, which in the first place are liable to be broken, almost as soon as bought, and secondly are most difficult and expensive to replace. We are in the happy position of having three times as large a stock of enamelled sets as we have ever had, and the selection is much better than formerly. This may appear strange to a public that is being frequently reminded of scarcity in all directions and especially in enamelware goods, but the same is only possible by reason of our London buyers having come across a large stock that had been stored away since the war opened.

THESE, WE ARE INFORMED, CANNOT BE REPEATED.

ENAMELWARE TOILET SETS.

Comprising—Large Jug, Basin, Brush Vase, Chamber and Soap Dish, in colors of imperial blue, rooseal and dark green, the latter having a crackle finish.

Price Rs. 10-50 only.

(A few slightly damaged at Special Prices.)

ENAMELWARE TOILET SETS.

Floral and shaded, comprising—Ladies Jug, Basin, covered Brush Dish, covered Soap, large Urn and Soap Bowl with Dishes and Chamber, in various colors and the latest of floral designs. Some of the sets are worth fully Rs. 50-00 whilst some are selling but very reasonable at Rs. 25-00 only.

"EAST-AFRICAN-CHINA," TOILET WARE.

(FLORAL AND TINTED DESIGNS ON ENAMELED IRON).

HOUSEWIVES, all over the Protectorate, have long ago foresworn the use of earthenware toilet utensils, which in the first place are liable to be broken, almost as soon as bought, and secondly are most difficult and expensive to match, much better than formerly. This may appear strange to a public that is being frequently reminded of scarcity in all directions and especially in enamel-ware goods, but the same is only possible by reason of our London buyers having come across a large stock that had been stored away since the war opened.

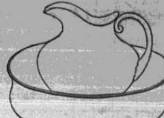

THESE, WE ARE INFORMED, CANNOT BE REPEATED.

ENAMELWARE TOILET SETS.

Comprising:—Large Jug, Basin, Brush Yarn, Chamber and Soap Dish, in colors of Imperial Blue, roseda and dark green, the latter having a cream lining.

Price Rs. 19-50 only.

(A few slightly damaged at Special Prices)

ENAMELWARE TOILET SETS.

Floral and shaded, comprising:—Large Jug, Basin, covered Brush Dish, covered Soap, Large Sponge and Soap Bowl with Drainage Chamber, in various colors and the choice of floral designs. Some of the sets are worth in by Rs. 50-00 whilst some are anything but very reasonable at Rs. 35-00 only.

(A few slightly damaged at Special Prices)

Tea

If you make Brooke Bonds tea as you make other teas it may be too strong. Brooke Bonds tea is rich and satisfying. Use less.

Try this. Put a spoonful of tea for each person into an earthenware teapot, pour on sufficient fresh boiling water, and let stand for five or six minutes.
Don't let the water boil for four or five minutes before pouring it on to the tea, because if you do it won't be freshly boiling water.

Two qualities of Brooke Bonds tea are sold in Africa. The best is Red Label, which is fine tea flavoured with choicest Darjeeling; Green Label is pure Indian tea of good strength and flavour. Both qualities are packed in 1/2-lb. and 1-lb. tins containing full net weight of tea.

Brooke Bonds tea is obtainable everywhere in East Africa.
