No. 772 [PUBLISHED AT THE GENERAL POST OFFICE AS A NEWSPAPER]

NAIROBI, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1916

Price 12 cents; 2s. 11 per annum. Paid Weekly 2s. 6d. Post Office No. 1032

"EAST-AFRICAN-CHINA," TOILET WARE.

(FLORAL and TINTED DESIGNS on ENAMELLED IRON).

HOUSEWIVES, all over the Protectorate, have long ago foresworn the use of earthenware toilet utensils, which in the first place are liable to be broken, almost as soon as bought, and secondly are most difficult and expensive to match. We are in the happy position of having three times as large a stock of enamelled sets as we have ever had, and the selection is much better than formerly. This may appear strange to a public that is being frequently reminded of scarcity in all directions and especially in enamel-ware goods, but the same is only possible by reason of our London buyers having come across a large stock that had been stored away since the war opened.

THESE, WE ARE INFORMED, CANNOT BE REPEATED.

ENAMELWARE TOILET SETS.

Comprising:—Large Jug, Basin, Brush Vase, Chamber and Soap Dish, in colors of imperial blue, rosea and dark green, the latter having a cream lining.

Price Rs. 19-50 only.

(A few slightly damaged at Special Prices.)

The "Grecian" shaded Toilet set, earthenware, in shades of Blue or Green. Rs. 17-50.

ENAMELWARE TOILET SETS.

Floral and shaded, comprising:—Large Jug, Basin, covered Brush Dish, covered Soap, large Sponge and Soap Bowl with Drainer and Chamber, in various colors and the choicest of floral designs. Some of the sets are worth fully Rs. 50-00 whilst none are anything but very reasonable at Rs. 35-00 only.

(A few slightly damaged at Special Prices)

PLACE YOUR ORDER EARLY.

Enamelled Basins, Saneppers, Teapots, Mugs, Hot water Jugs, etc., also in stock.

RED CROSS BALL.

Brilliant affair.

Another episode in the generous career of our Red Cross workers was the brilliant episode of the Red Cross ball which was held at the New Windsor Hotel, Friday, October 27. The magnificent action of Mr. Fred Tate...

The supper and refreshments were well arranged and although it was a long evening it was not too tiring. The entertainment was of the highest order and the dancing was particularly enjoyable...

The ladies were in their usual smart and elegant attire and the evening was a most successful one. The proceeds of the ball will be used for the benefit of the Red Cross Hospital...

(FOR OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

Nakuru, October 21st.

I have to record a pleasing little news which took place here on October 18th, the wedding of Capt. B. McCall, R.A.S., and Miss Ashland.

The bride and groom were in the country and left for the "land of Omani." It is a beautiful country, the bridegroom is a well-known and popular man in the district.

Tea

If you make Brooke Bonds tea as you make other teas it may be too strong. Brooke Bonds tea is rich and satisfying. Use less.

Try this. Put a spoonful of tea for each person into an earthenware teapot, pour on sufficient fresh boiling water, and let stand for five or six minutes. Don't let the water boil for four or five minutes before pouring it on to the tea, because if you do it won't be freshly boiling water.

Two qualities of Brooke Bonds tea are sold in Africa. The best is Red Label, which is fine tea flavoured with choice Darjeeling Green Label is pure Indian tea of good strength and flavour. Both qualities are packed in ½-lb. and 1-lb. tins containing full net weight of tea.

Brooke Bonds tea is obtainable everywhere in East Africa. Wholesale agents: Nairobi, MACKINNON BROS.; Mombasa, ALLENDA VISRAM & SON; Zanzibar, ALLENDA VISRAM & SON; Kampala, CHILMID, PARK & JOSEPH.

NAIROBI, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1916

PRICE 10 CENTS PER COPY. THE EAST AFRICAN STANDARD, NAIROBI.

"EAST-AFRICAN-CHINA," TOILET WARE.

(FLORAL AND TINTED DESIGNS ON ENAMELED IRON).

HOUSEWIVES, all over the Protectorate, have long ago forewarned the use of earthenware toilet utensils, which in the first place are liable to be broken, almost as soon as bought, and secondly are most difficult and expensive to match. We are in the happy position of having three times as large a stock of enamelled sets as we have ever had, and the selection is much better than formerly. This may appear strange to a public that is being frequently reminded of scarcity in all directions and especially in enamel-ware goods, but the same is only possible by reason of our London buyers having come across a large stock that had been stored away since the war expired.

THESE, WE ARE INFORMED, CANNOT BE REPEATED.

ENAMELWARE TOILET SETS.

Comprising:—Large Jug, Basin, Brush Vase, Chamber and Soap Dish, in colors of Imperial blue, roseal and dark green, the latter having a chrome finish.

Price Rs. 19-50 only.

(A few slightly damaged at Special Prices.)

The "Grecian" shaded Toilet set, earthenware, in shades of blue or green. Rs. 17-50.

ENAMELWARE TOILET SETS.

Floral and shaded, comprising:—Large Jug, Basin, covered Brush Dish, covered Soap, large Sponge and Soap Bowl with Drainage and Chamber. In various colors and the choicest of floral designs. Some of the sets are worth fully Rs. 20-00 retail from any other source but very reasonable at Rs. 35-00 only.

(A few slightly damaged at Special Prices.)

The True Safeguard of Baby's Health

Allenburys Foods

THE milk of a healthy mother confers a degree of immunity to infection to the young infant. Many mothers, however, through willing, cannot nurse their babies for various reasons. In such cases the greatest care should be taken in selecting a proper substitute. Ordinary cow's milk cannot be regarded as a safe food for infants; it is acid, contains indigestible curd, and is almost invariably contaminated with harmful germs. By using the 'Allenburys' Foods, which are free from all dangerous organisms, and effectively replace human milk, security for baby is ensured and vigorous growth and health are promoted. The 'Allenburys' Foods are largely used and recommended by the Medical and Nursing Professions, they have stood the test of time and have become a household necessity all over the world.

Major's correspondent at Portgale says that the British Government has decided in the course of an interview, to consider the possibility of sending a force to the aid of the British people who are now being persecuted in the East.

At the sale held in Nairobi by Messrs. Hogg & Murchison on November 2nd, 1915, 400 bags of cotton were sold for the sum of Rs. 67,000 cash was realized.

A telegram from the Spanish Ambassador at Madrid says that the Spanish Government has decided to send a force to the aid of the British people who are now being persecuted in the East.

According to a message from New York the people of America have contributed for the relief of the British people who are now being persecuted in the East.

The Germans on the Western front are feeling themselves as disheartened, which much become general during the last few months.

In connection with the "native news" it is worth mentioning that a boy of the name of Mwangi has been found in the East.

At the meeting of the Pastoralists' Association, held in Nairobi, on November 11th, 1915, the following resolutions were passed.

Tea

If you make Brooke Bonds tea as you make other teas it may be too strong. Brooke Bonds tea is rich and satisfying. Use less.

Try this. Put a spoonful of tea for each person in a earthenware teapot, pour on sufficient fresh boiling water, and let stand for five or six minutes. Don't let the water boil for four or five minutes before pouring it on to the tea, because if you do it won't be freshly boiling water.

Two qualities of Brooke Bonds tea are sold in Africa. The best is Red Label, which is first tea flavoured with choicest Darjeeling; Green Label is pure Indian tea of good strength and flavour. Both qualities are packed in 2-½, 4, and 8 lb. tins containing full net weight of tea.

Brooke Bonds tea is obtainable everywhere in East Africa. Wholesale agents: Nairobi, MACKINNON BROS., Mashua, ALLIANCE VIKRAM & SON; Zanzibar, ALIADINA VIKRAM & SON; Kimpiti, CHILDS, PAER & JOSEPH.

"EAST-AFRICAN-CHINA," TOILET WARE.

(FLORAL and TINTED DESIGNS on ENAMELLED IRON).

HOUSEWIVES, all over the Protectorate, have long ago forewarned the use of earthenware toilet utensils, which in the first place are liable to be broken, almost as soon as bought, and secondly are most difficult and expensive to match. We are in the happy position of having three times as large a stock of enameled sets as we have ever had, and the selection is much better than formerly. This may appear strange to a public that is being frequently reminded of scarcity in all directions and especially in enamel-ware goods, but the same is only possible by reason of our London buyers having come across a large stock that had been stored away since the war opened.

THESE, WE ARE INFORMED, CANNOT BE REPEATED.

ENAMELWARE TOILET SETS.

Comprising:—Large Jug, Basin, Brush Vase, Chamber and Soap Dish, in colors of imperial blue, rose and dark green, the latter having a cream lining.

Price Rs. 19-50 only.

(A few slightly damaged at Special Prices.)

That "Grecian" shaded Toilet set, earthenware, in color of Blue or Green, Rs. 17-50.

Examined Basins, Soapcups, Teapots, Mugs, Hot Water Jugs, etc., also in stock.

London, November 4. The German forces, which were held up at Yabou, have been advancing by night through the Malenge, and some what confused and severe fighting has continued in the direction of Tring since October 22. A small detachment of British troops, under Col. Blandford, was ambushed and suffered heavily in the forest near Col. Blandford's camp and captured.

London, November 3. The German correspondent in Athens says that the German Government has not forgotten, consisting of Roumanian and Bulgarian troops, which are expected to be occupied by Venizelou's troops. The Daily Chronicle's correspondent in Athens says that Venizelou occupied Patras without resistance, but on November 10, he had a sharp fight with some Roumanian, who were guarding the Ottoman frontier.

London, November 4. An Austrian communique reports that the south and south-east of Braşov, in Rumanian territory, Austro-Serbian troops repulsed Rumanian attacks, and progressed to the southeast of the Rector Pass. A Rumanian communique contains the following: "As a result of a sharp battle between the Moldavian frontier and the Rector Pass, the result of which was the repulse of the Austro-Serbian troops to the south and south-east of Braşov. The Rumanian troops were repulsed. The Austro-Serbian troops were repulsed. The Austro-Serbian troops were repulsed."

NEWS FROM NAKURU. (From Our Own Correspondent.) Nakuru, November 4.

THE PLAGUE.

The chief topic of conversation here this week is the plague in Nairobi and the general concerns of opinion as to things so much worse there than is reported in the press. Now that we have had a shaft thrown through the same sense further evidence is that it is up to the captain to go to the station to look at the matter and take the necessary steps to the other side of the river in the city of Nairobi. As business has been closed it is a standing issue to our country here.

REO CROSS PETER.

I have not the opportunity this week to write of the great appearance of the Reo Cross team to make our second Red Cross team the names it is going to be called next Monday, the ball at the Nakuru Hotel to-night, the Nakuru and "All from" concert to-morrow—all in Nakuru are doing their share and I am sure our visitors will not only have a rattling good time but will have the satisfaction of knowing that, notwithstanding their enjoyment, they have helpfully helped to lessen some of the causes of the war.

European Agency.

SQUATTERS' BILL.

The "Standard" has already reported that the Government will bring forward a bill to amend the Squatters' Bill. This will be introduced at a special meeting, called by the Government, at the Nakuru Hotel, on Monday next. It is hoped that the bill will be a success.

ATHLETIC TOPICS.

Aspirants are just now discussing the possibility of what to do in the winter months. The first and the most important thing to do is to get into the best of health before the start and the cracks of the winter are upon us. It is not only the health but the mind that must be kept in the best of health. This, however, may be done by a few simple means. The first is to get into the best of health by a few simple means. GEARN'S P.O. 47, NAIROBI.

This contribution takes the form of direct or indirect taxation. The principle of taxation is that the individual is taxed according to his ability. When taxing the individual, the State is not only taking from him, but it is also giving him something in return. The State is not only taking from him, but it is also giving him something in return.

There are several ways in which the State can raise revenue. The first is by direct taxation, such as income tax and property tax. The second is by indirect taxation, such as excise duty and sales tax. The third is by borrowing money from abroad or from the public.

There are several advantages of direct taxation. The first is that it is easy to administer. The second is that it is easy to collect. The third is that it is easy to enforce. The fourth is that it is easy to vary.

There are several disadvantages of direct taxation. The first is that it is not very popular. The second is that it is not very efficient. The third is that it is not very equitable. The fourth is that it is not very progressive.

There are several advantages of indirect taxation. The first is that it is very popular. The second is that it is very efficient. The third is that it is very equitable. The fourth is that it is very progressive.

RESIDENT MAGISTRATE'S COURT.

"Rightened" Boys Charged.

In the Resident Magistrate's Court, held in Nairobi on Nov. 6, Mr. Johnson presided over a case in which two boys were charged with assaulting a woman in the street.

Mr. Shinn gave evidence as to having seen the woman with her hands raised in a state of alarm as she was being assaulted by the two boys.

THEATRICAL ENTERPRISE.

Another Venture.

We learn that the Theatre Royal, by special arrangement, will be touring the country to present the opportunity of seeing the famous "The Queen."

The tour will start here for a short time, and will stay here for a short time, and will stay here for a short time.

Tea

Good tea is almost a food as well as a drink. It satisfies hunger as well as thirst.

Tea has all the good effects of alcohol and none of its bad ones. It possesses other virtues besides. Tea drinking is a good habit—alcohol a bad one.

Be sure of good tea and buy Brooke Bonds.

Two qualities of Brooke Bonds tea are sold in Africa.
The best is Red Label, which is fine tea, flavoured with choicest Darjeeling; Green Label is pure Indian tea of good strength and flavour. Both qualities are packed in ½-lb. and 1-lb. tins containing full net weight of tea.
