ISSUE OF PASSPORTS. New Regulations.

The following instructions with regard to the issue of passports have been received from the Secretary of State and will be followed in future.

1. Passports will not be issued to persons not naturalized in a Dominion or to persons who are of enemy origin.

2. Passports will not be issued to persons naturalized in the United Kingdom who are naturalized in that country previously to the outbreak of the war.

3. Passports will not be issued to persons who are of enemy origin but who are naturalized in the United Kingdom since the outbreak of the war.

4. There is no objection to the issue of a passport to a person who is of enemy origin but who is a resident in the United Kingdom before the date appointed under the Acts of 1914 and 1915.

5. The public are particularly requested to send applications for passports to the Secretary at least fourteen days before the advertised date of the opening of the office to which they are to be sent.

NOTES OF THE WEEK.
I have received many letters for and against my notes on the women's vote. I am not aware that we are so many a subject among us.

There is little doubt that some women would make good and shrewd soldiers. There is no doubt that some women would make good and shrewd soldiers. There is no doubt that some women would make good and shrewd soldiers.

USEFUL WORK FOR WOMEN AT HOME.
A Splendid Overall-Dress.

This work is our home dressmaking column is illustrated for you the pattern of a splendidly well-cut and useful dress, such as should be welcomed by every housewife and every mother of a family.

I have heard, however, that one official of a school, objecting to my criticism, has threatened poor Molly's work with some terrible epithets. I am sorry to hear that the principal is not well.

I will continue about the women's vote. I notice the paper, that our present Municipal Council has decided not only that women shall not sit on the council, but shall not even vote. I will not my readers not to worry. We shall have all the fun of the business.

The Home Making of Our Overall-Dress.
The simple construction of the pattern before you, it being in two pieces only, is very easy to make. When cutting, set out the centre back to the full width of the fabric. Cut the side pieces to the full width of the fabric.

OUR WEEKLY RECEIPT.

PIG BREEDERS' ASSOCIATION. Informal Meeting.

QUESTION OF CO-OPERATION [CONTINUED]

An informal meeting was called by Mr. G. Thorne at Nakuru on Saturday, December 2, to discuss the situation as far as breeders were concerned in the districts of Mau, Lamuria, and Fort Ternan. Spontaneously it did with the result that there were a considerable number of active pig breeders.

Local Deputation asked Mr. Grant to read the minutes of the last meeting of the Association held at Nairobi on November 30. This he did together with mentioning the minutes of the subsequent two committee meetings. There was some discussion on the minutes.

The following gentlemen were present: Mr. Grant, Mr. Owen, Mr. Thorne, Mr. Hill, Mr. Beards, Mr. Hill, Mr. Beards, Mr. Hill, Mr. Beards.

CIVILIAN COMPULSION BILL.

Reichstag Passes the Measure.

KAISER'S DELIGHT
(REUTERS SERVICE'S AGENTS)

London, December 8.—The Kaiser has received a third time the Civilian Compulsion Bill, which was passed during the passage of the bill in the course of which a section of the Reichstag demanded the withdrawal of the Emperor and the deportations of the Kaiser.

The Kaiser's delight in the bill is shown by the fact that he has signed it. He said that the people were freed with such ease in blood, treasure and effort. He said that the bill was a place where they must maintain a place against the Emperor. It was passed by a vote of 217 to 100. The bill will be signed by the Kaiser and will have the force of law.

LATE MR. J. O. HALDANE. Meeting of Indians.

OFFICER'S MEMORY PERPETUATED.

(Continued.) A general meeting of all the Indian members of the Indian Club was convened by Mr. H. Puri at the premises of the Indian Corporation, Ltd., at Fort Street, on the 6th of December 1916, in the presence of the late Mr. James Oswald, ex-Chief Commissioner. The meeting was held in a room in the Club which was filled in accordance with the programme of the meeting.

Mr. Puri explained to those assembled that the object of the meeting was to pass their sincere sympathies with the late Mr. James Oswald, who was killed in action, owing to the lamentable death of Mr. Haldane was a direct one, Mr. Puri, while enjoining the steering gaiting of the Indians as a direct one, also mentioned, district magistrates and especially Mr. Haldane, dwell on the fact that he had been the Indians most kindly and generously and helped them on all matters connected with their business in the district, and in the Congo Basin. Mr. Puri added that the late Mr. Haldane would not be readily forgotten by his family, but it is hoped that they would all be some in their sorrow by the knowledge that Mr. Haldane, late Chief Commissioner, Rika Binda, gave his life for the common good of the principles of justice and equity, which Great Britain and her Allies were committed to maintain in the Congo Basin.

Mr. Puri then proposed the following resolution: That the members of the Indian Club in the Indian Territory do hereby express their sincere sympathies with the late Mr. James Oswald, who was killed in action in France on the 6th of December 1916, in the Congo Basin, and who was a direct one, and who was killed in action, owing to the lamentable death of Mr. Haldane was a direct one, and who was killed in action, owing to the lamentable death of Mr. Haldane was a direct one.

The above resolution was seconded by Mr. Puri. NATIONALIST DEBATE.
 In view of all that has been said in the past few days regarding the details of the party in making, and the hints that the majority will probably swing the balance of the next general election, the matter which they encountered in the bye-elections of 1909, this week should be taken into account.

HERZEL REMAINS LOYAL.
 In view of the large number of S.A. Party supporters in the district have gone on an active service, and the fact that Mr. Hertzog, the Nationalist candidate, was only recently elected from the R.A. Party, "Nationalist" Hertzog, who was elected last year, has been re-elected. He is a strong supporter of the S.A. Party.

Tea

If you would escape the ills of impure water use tea. To make tea the water must be boiled. Boiled water is tasteless, but boiling water added to Brooke Bonds Tea makes the finest possible drink.

Refreshing, stimulating and beneficial in all respects. See Brooke Bonds name on every tin.

In this market Brooke Bonds tea can be had in two qualities—Red Label and Green Label. Red Label is really fine Indian tea of finest Darjeeling flavour; the Green Label is sound wholesome Indian tea. Packing and blending is done in the Company's factory in Calcutta, whence it is shipped to East Africa direct.
