"WHAT'S IN A NAME?"

Says the immortal bard: We say
IT ALL DEPENDS

on the name. If you know that a thing really is what its name proclaims it to be, then there is a GREAT DEAL indeed in a name, and when we say that our stores are UNIVERSAL we mean it in every sense of the word as applied to groceries, provisions, wines and spirits, cigarettes and tobaccos.

NOTWITHSTANDING the abnormal times in which we are living, we can still supply you with all
NECESSITIES and LUXURIES

from cheese, bacon and butter to oysters, caviare and asparagus; from the modest currant to the delicious fruit salad; from the popular whiskies to the choicest wines and liquors; and from the wild woodbine to the fragrant Bouton Rouge. In fact we cater for all palates and all pockets and we can guarantee that if you place your orders with us you will not be DISAPPOINTED.

Tea

If you would escape the ills of impure water use tea. To make tea the water must be boiled. Boiled water is tasteless, but boiling water added to Brooke Bonds Tea makes the finest possible drink.

Refreshing, stimulating and beneficial in all respects. See Brooke Bonds name on every tin.

In this market Brooke Bonds tea can be had in two qualities—Red Label and Green Label. Red Label is really fine Indian tea of finest Darjeeling flavour; the Green Label is sound wholesome Indian tea. Packing and blending is done in the Company's factory in Calcutta, whence it is shipped to East Africa direct.

go a long way towards mitigating the evil. Citizens have a right to expect that this constant victimization shall not continue indefinitely.

The East African Standard, Jan. 18, 1917. If anything has shown the Pretoria Arbitration Commission in this country, it has been the delightful policy of protectionism in the part of the Government recently in matters of vital importance. The technical demands that the official institutions made up to be used to work a whole for the interests of this country. It is no use for becoming ostentatious, but we must show those who are fortunate prevented from doing so, to work as well as other. The Government, the most efficient, the man employed in any occupation outside Government circles, must understand that we cannot hope for progress unless each and everyone of us is determined to stand shoulder to shoulder in a great fight for reform.

The East African Standard, Nov. 20, 1917. Our main trouble is that we are not just a much longer way with that of the country outside, as is the feature of the country districts with that of the Coast. Unfortunately, an abated system has been discontinued here for years, and that a wrong case has been content to work out so the thing happens to change it. The Government has been content to work out as usual, as an exaggerated form of its operations and their supporters have thought to be a dignity even to design to consider the views of the people. We must show that we are not a country to be despised. Not the officials. The Government must clearly understand that their future depends upon the efforts of the people and the people.

We tried to call attention to the need of closer co-operation and we were not as signs of a letter underlined. Let us therefore come out into the open and let us be heard. The officials have not the least hesitation declare that they are not in a position to do anything that is simply harassing. We are not an office and gave at the calling for progress. We are not an office and gave at the calling for progress. We are not an office and gave at the calling for progress.

Let us therefore come out into the open and let us be heard. The officials have not the least hesitation declare that they are not in a position to do anything that is simply harassing. is the Director of Education doing something to provide better educational facilities for the coming generation. We should not be able here to print our true opinion on many lucrative professions. This will, naturally, not even be seriously regarded as long as the idea is prevalent in the minds of certain people that this is not a fit country for children to be brought up in. We hope that common sense will prevail, and that provision will be made for the coming generation. If this country is to go ahead, we must attract settlers. We must show to the world that we are a country where we will provide for the support of our children. We must show to the world that we are a country where we will provide for the support of our children. We must show to the world that we are a country where we will provide for the support of our children.

The East African Standard, Nov. 20, 1917. Our main trouble is that we are not just a much longer way with that of the country outside, as is the feature of the country districts with that of the Coast. Unfortunately, an abated system has been discontinued here for years, and that a wrong case has been content to work out so the thing happens to change it. The Government has been content to work out as usual, as an exaggerated form of its operations and their supporters have thought to be a dignity even to design to consider the views of the people.

We tried to call attention to the need of closer co-operation and we were not as signs of a letter underlined. Let us therefore come out into the open and let us be heard. There are no two ways about it. The South African law, as it stands, is a disgrace to the Municipal Corporation Ordinance as brought into force by the letter for all concerned. We must adopt a progressive policy, and if retrograde elements attempt to do the work, they must be ousted.

A Bright Argury For the Future.

This old established firm is now branching out in a Sellers' Department. This department is making, among numerous other articles, ladies' handbags, collar boxes, tobacco pouches, and other artistic gifts from leopard skins, which are tanned on the premises. Gentlemen's slippers are a long time made from all other skins. All these articles are eminently suited for Christmas gifts, particularly as they carry the favour of the country with them. Having large stocks of leather on hand, this department is practically able to turn out any leather article; boots, for instance, are now receiving attention.

The other departments are well provided with stocks, and though it would be an impossibility to mention the numerous articles, attention must be drawn to raval vests, shotguns, motor accessories, and camp equipment.

The Land Department has had a revival not only in enquiries, but also in actual transactions. Several deals have been put through recently, and these have been of a big character and of figures. The showed no depreciation whatever over pre-war values. This certainly augurs well for the future of the industry.

The Safari Department is prepared for enormous business on the cessation of hostilities in Europe, judging from numerous letters from Europe, America, and elsewhere.

also seriously regarded, and a selection of brushes and preparations to prevent the hair becoming impoverished can always be obtained. The discriminating purchaser can find here a fine stock of sponges, which will satisfy all tastes. The lavender water, soaps are the equal of any on the local market. The dispensing of prescriptions receives particular attention, and there is always a fresh stock of drugs on hand.

H. G. GABRIEL,
 Representative of Leading British and Allied Firms.

Mr. Gabriel is the sole agent in East Africa for many of the well-known British and Allied firms. He represents "Sandy Macdonald" whisky, the producer of one of the biggest distilleries in Scotland. Local connoisseurs, who have tasted the whisky, declare that it is as good as any, and perhaps better than many brands on the market. Mr. Gabriel is now booking big orders, the spirit being of two ages, namely 10 and 20 years. Among the very firm that he represents are Fanny Rogge & Company, the well-known French liqueur merchants, who make a speciality of "Medal Reserve Brandy," each bottle being packed in a special cartouche; the French wine firm, the Compagnie Vinicole Girardin, Fratelli Garcia and Company, who are noted for their vermouths and J&J champagne; the famous Spanish firm of Manuel Pisco, who specialise in sherris and ports; W. Wolfensohn and Company of Manchester, famed for water-proofs and leather cloths; Row Hewitt and Co. of Manchester, cotton piece goods; the Oulton Company, Wilkie and Soames Ltd. of Greenwhich, soaps; H. Perkins and Sons, of London, pipes, pouches and sticks; Henry Clay, Bock and Coy, cigars; H. C. Robertson and Co., of London, asbestos cement sheets and slates; C. Jennings and Co., all kinds of timber and plywood; the Eak Rubber Company, manufacturers of the celebrated American motor and other tyres; Harold Biss, pianos; Radio motor cycles; British; the Perry Cycle Company; pushbikes; Imperial visible typewriters; the O. C. Hawkes Ltd., every kind of mirror; Harris and Sheldon, the well-known Birmingham shopfitters; and many firms.

THEATRE ROYAL.

British East Africa's Pioneer Bakers.

Messrs. M. S. Elliot & Co., of the Pioneer Bakers of British East Africa, are an establishment which compares favourably with the finest concerns in any part of the world. It is a treat to enter these handsome premises, and glance around at the well kept shelves. Elliot's are ever to be found in advanced methods, and have recently installed a fruit cleaning and stoning plant, the only plant of its kind in the country. This is a great step forward in making cakes and other articles of a similar nature as perfect as they possibly can be, and adds to cleanliness. The bread and rolls of Elliot's are famed throughout the country. Elliot's have a fine stock of provisions. There are counter-stands of cracker, and heaps of Xmas stockings. Those desiring a treat should not fail to procure Elliot's Xmas plum puddings, which are made in different weights from one and a half lbs. upwards, nice meat and onion pies, fruit Xmas cakes, leed and plain, and their pastries of all descriptions, food and fancy, should be in every home during the festive season.

LAMBERTS LIMITED.

Local Manufacturers of Flux Machinery.

A worthy attempt has been made by Lamberts Limited to further the progress of this country by manufacturing machinery locally. There are many establishments in this trade which would have been a laudable thing if Messrs. Lamberts had stepped into the breach and supplied them with the machinery necessary for the treatment of flux. Such machinery has been unobtainable from Europe for at least 18 months. The efficiency of the machinery manufactured by Messrs. Lamberts is undoubted as five or six factories are already working. The efforts of this firm are, however, being greatly retarded by the attitude of the Priority Committee, and sympathy had been shown them their output would have been much greater. Apart from the manufacture of machinery the firm also has the following departments: General engineering repairs, machinery installation, general engineering, building, foundry, and last, but not least, hardware. A visit to the foundry is an eye opener as to what the firm is doing. Messrs. Lamberts carry exceedingly heavy stocks of all engineering requirements, and have an exceedingly competent staff to deal with all orders. The address of this enterprising concern is, Lamberts Limited, Sadler Street, Nairobi.

W. Bolus & Co. Ltd. Solid Work of This Great Shipping House.

There are few firms working more solidly and diligently for the Protectorate's welfare than the great shipping house of W. Bolus & Co. Ltd. of London and New York, with their numerous branches and agencies throughout the world. They are at once the merchants and planters. All their vast business is done strictly on a commission basis. Having opening stores in the country can arrange for supplies of goods of whatever kind and from whatever country, through Messrs. Bolus and Co. Planters wishing to obtain estimates for machinery of all kinds can arrange for such estimates, and can have the goods shipped and paid for in any part of the world. Further, they can arrange for Messrs. Bolus and Co. to act as their sales agents in Europe for their produce of whatever kind. All transactions with this firm are clear and above board, as original invoices, or sales notes, as the case may be, come from Messrs. Bolus and Co. Place their vast organisation and knowledge at the disposal of all who are trying to find substitutes for what supplies in these difficult times. Merchants and farmers would do well to get into touch with this firm, who make enquiries through their local representative, Mr. A. Ambrose Smith, whose postal addresses are: P. O. Box 287, Nairobi; P. O. Box 103, Mombasa; P. O. Box 160, Kampala.

FOSTER & CO.

Choice Hams & Bacon, Turkeys, Geese, and Game.

If the householder does not wish to be disappointed, an order for turkeys, geese, game, and other delicacies for Xmas should be placed at once with Foster & Co., the enterprising butchers and general purveyors, of Government Road, Nairobi. Foster's have made arrangements to have extra choice beef, mutton, and pork for Xmas, and they will also be able to provide fine sucking pigs. There is already a great rush on their hams and bacon, and orders for the finest sausages are being rapidly booked. Foster's will be able to supply some of the finest fruit ever sent to the country, and they will have as good a stock of vegetables on hand as can be obtained. Their butties, cheeses, and cream cheeses are famous, and it would be as well to ensure supplies by ordering early. An absolute essential to the Xmas dinner is poultry of some description or another, and, recognising this, Foster's have prepared for a big rush and will be able to supply ducks, fowls, and chickens. Foster's also have a fine stock of jams, and plum puddings, and a nice assortment of chocolates.

A Charming Spot to While Away an Hour.

The Theatre Royal, with its spacious and well-ventilated boxes and its charming tea-rooms, has become a landmark in Nairobi. One need not emphasise the excellence of the entertainments provided at this popular house of amusement, because they are now well-known to everybody. No lovelier spot could be found to while away a pleasant hour than the tea-rooms, where the delectable refreshments can be had at most modest charges. Here also can be found one of the best selections of sweets in town, and some of the finest chocolates in fancy boxes. When all other places are closed, one can always obtain here stocks of cigars and cigarettes. The attendance is splendid, and every member of the staff is always ready to oblige patrons.

With a view to concentrating on the development of his other properties, Lord Delamere has decided to dispose of Florida Farm...

An exceptional opportunity is thus presented of obtaining what is generally regarded as one of the choicest blocks of mixed agricultural land in the Protectorate...

The Farm consists of 3,034 acres, less road reserves, lying between the Molo and Rongai Rivers, so situated that it can be cut up into ten small farms of 300 acres each...

The permanent improvements include a comfortable dwelling house, stores, maize shed, etc., a water furrow from which a considerable area could be irrigated...

No other property in the Protectorate so lends itself to intensive cultivation. The 40 acres of citrus is of unusual evidence of what could be done with that crop...

NOTICE TO PASSENGERS.

wing to the depleted Sailings on the Bombay-East Africa Line, until further notice, a new System of booking Passengers has been put into force. Passengers desirous of travelling to England, South Africa, and India by the Company's Steamers should apply to the undersigned, stating their Port of Destination, and class they wish to travel by, when they will be put on a "Waiting List." The Names on this List will be entered immediately applications are made, and berths will be allotted strictly in the order of this List. Under no circumstances will the order be altered.

Passengers will be advised, as soon as possible, by which Steamer their turn will come. Failure to take up a berth, when offered, will automatically delete the Passenger's Name from the List, and fresh application will have to be made. This naturally means that the Passenger will be put at the bottom of the List when the new application is made.

The above does not refer to Deck Passages, which will be booked as in the past. All other requirements, as have been advertised in this Paper for the last few months, hold good under the new conditions.
