GROWTH OF MUNITION MAKING.

Remarkable Progress. From time to time indications have been given of the enormous growth of the munition industry in this country during the past 18 months...

Table with 4 columns: Month, Tons, Value, etc. showing munition production statistics.

The improvement made is illustrated in a different way. We are now manufacturing in 88 days the amount of 250 tons which in 1915 the same quantity of material for field batteries was being supplied in 180 days...

The manufacture of 18-in. guns has also been decided during the year. The equipment of the British Army in high field pieces has been approximately completed...

Table with 4 columns: Month, Tons, Value, etc. showing munition production statistics.

The figures for the manufacture of the 4.5-in. gun are not included in this table, the average monthly production of machine-guns, rifle grenades, etc. has been fully satisfactory...

The improvement in the manufacture of the army during the first year of the war is represented by 100 per cent. increase in the production of machine-guns in 1916, and by 100 per cent. increase in the production of machine-guns in 1917...

Between May, 1915, and May, 1916, there was an 88 per cent. increase in the production of machine-guns, and a 100 per cent. increase in the weight of the complete equipment.

Sunlight Soap Service.

ABROAD, particularly in hot climates, life often depends on strict cleanliness—clothes are washed with greater frequency than is necessary in this country.

A purifying soap is essential, and when it saves time and effort you have the secret of the tremendous demand from abroad for the "Foreign Service" of Sunlight Soap.

Purity is the great soap essential. Creating unusual purification. Without pure soap you cannot have perfect cleanliness—that stands for reason.

ITALY'S ATTITUDE.

Baron Sonnino's Statement.

HIGHLY INTERESTING SPEECH

Baron Sidney Sonnino, the Italian Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, delivered to the Italian Chamber of Deputies the famous statement in which he presented the highly interesting speech which he had just made at the Council of Ambassadors at Rome, declared that the speech was the most important of his life...

We are glad to have the opportunity through the kindness of a friend who gave us the translation of the speech which gives us a very clear idea of the nature of the speech...

Baron Sonnino commenced by affirming that the note of the committee above all gave positive indications of basis for any negotiations...

Baron Sonnino's text continued: "It is not that we would not have been contented and we do not remember what happened here in Rome in 1917..."

Baron Sonnino's text continued: "We are all longing for peace, and for a peace which is not only just but also clear that he has been peace..."

Baron Sonnino's text continued: "We are all longing for peace, and for a peace which is not only just but also clear that he has been peace..."

Baron Sonnino's text continued: "We are all longing for peace, and for a peace which is not only just but also clear that he has been peace..."

Germany, Austria-Hungary, Turkey and Bulgaria, considered either collectively or separately. It is certain both geographically and politically that the freedom of political development we have to undertake is to ensure our independence, to ensure our power upon others...

It is the duty of the Government to watch that with the most rapid of modern methods it is not granted for the nation an enormous error which would finally be followed by the most cruel undoing...

New allies come in various degrees to envelop in the House, friend and opponent without exception, an address of approval regarding all, having said that he had not seen them for two years...

every action directed in our country on the ground declared that they were all in the power of the French in our country...

EARLY MORNING SCENES.

The darkest hour is always just before dawn, and was in the darkest hour that I left a mutual friend's house last night to go to the office. I had not much sleep, but my brain had not yet reached that state of torpor in which one can play another's brain for him, and he never yet catches me.

ROBES SCHOLARSHIPS.

Sir,—Your last weekly number "Milly" informs us of the great Rhodes Scholarship, which has been Education and suggests in effect that the Department should study for one of more than three. In reply, I would point out that the Department during the early part of last year, through the courtesy of Mr. de Villiers, who wrote to the Rhodes Trustees for particulars, has been in communication with the Rhodes Trustees.

MASS MEETING.

TO THE EDITOR, "EAST AFRICAN STANDARD." Sir,—As I am not allowed to consider myself a member of the "Paterfamilias" (letter), whose letter appeared in Major Green's second article at the meeting, I would like to follow the line of my fellow countrymen in this respect.
