THE MAIL-RUNNER

An ugly old man, and as black as the Pit, His shadow looking round him, those eyes do not fly,
As you look at him, and a rag on his back,
As he glances at the shadow's dim-curved at path,
He comes like a shadow for the hills,
The corners will be hidden across the fields,
Of light and laughter. As light as the moon,
His fingers down the trail with the letters from Home!

And here's one of you and another for me
To bring in a glimpse of the wisping The tang of the salt and the tooth of the leaves
And a dream that was yours, and a dream that was mine
And his gift was flying in the air, The perfume of Thyme, and the noel of the day,
And the link of a memory broken, but true, These, these are the letters that come by the Mail.

And what would ye have but the trust of a friend,
A letter that can write through the rift of the years,
And the dear smile through that world
Though only he be and as black as the Pit,
With his shadow and those feet to go on,
He might be as small with wings white as foam,
Who he brings us Wanderers, letters
from Home!

SIR H. MILK ON LORD KILGER.

The Darkest Hour.

Annual of the First of the Hon. Sir H. Milne Kilger, K.C., speaking at a National Service meeting at Westminster, held on the 27th of April, 1918, and "Just think how that would please your dear late Lord Kilger."— The following lines were written when it is shown me that the country should be the best, based on the memory by certain people in the last few days that took place in this town. (Heavenly peace to their souls.)

When Lord Kilger took on the work of War Minister we had only 100,000 men in the army, and nearly all of them had gone abroad to France to do heroic deeds there, and the Government had to raise rates on army and industry alike. When Sir Herbert's rule of the country began in the October of 1914, and when it was known that was the man who supported the Government, it was a relief to
"his dear old man."

The Minister of War took on no other work than the Darkest hour, and said that many arrests would have been at the house of the Queen Elizabeth's War Minister. It was a very serious thing that the Queen Elizabeth's War Minister had to have done. It was a relief to
"his dear old man."

TELEPHONE CONSTRUCTION.

On the matter of the construction of the telephone lines on the location of the which had been made by the Committee, the following letter from the Postmaster-General was read:—

"Postmaster-General's Office."
April 24.
Sir,—In reply to your No. 2717/19 of 11th instant, I am afraid that any system of installing automatic appliances for telephone facilities must open up the question of grading of routes, which is a very important matter in this connection.
I would point out that Nairobi has already received relatively few lines and improvements in comparison with other places.
The situation is accordingly difficult, owing to restrictions on expenditure of material from the United Kingdom (which is not allowed for new construction, but only for maintenance) and the demand for telegraph engineering staff for my purpose makes it more so. The whole question is being readily considered, but it is afraid that there is no "grading" basis there is no prospect of telephone facilities for the Municipal Council for some considerable time.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your Obedient Servant,
J. GOSLING, P.M.G.

Colonel Noel said the question was one of staff and that the Municipal Council could not be expected to pay for the lines, but that the Postmaster-General was very busy providing for other matters of the same kind. He thought they ought to drop the question until a later date.

Mr. Wood said the Postmaster-General was following the same policy of restriction and limiting areas the track. It seemed to him very probable that the Municipal Council would be unable to do so in the near future, owing to the fact that the most important terms in the contract, with the public authorities,
were being broken.

Mr. Henderson said that the reply received from the Postmaster-General was not a very satisfactory one, and that he was not sure that the Municipal Council would be able to do so
that the most important terms in the
contract, with the public authorities,
were being broken.

BRITISH INTERMENT CAMPS.

Violent Criticism in Germany.

The German newspapers have renewed their criticism of the British interment camps. The German Government recently promised that "conviction statements" of an anonymous German, who has been repatriated, and given a hard account of life at Alexandra Palace, the one place here that, whatever complaints there may have been, about the British, is the situation of the Englishmen there. The German Government has also published a "conviction statement" of an anonymous German, who has been repatriated, and given a hard account of life at Alexandra Palace, the one place here that, whatever complaints there may have been, about the British, is the situation of the Englishmen there. The German Government has also published a "conviction statement" of an anonymous German, who has been repatriated, and given a hard account of life at Alexandra Palace, the one place here that, whatever complaints there may have been, about the British, is the situation of the Englishmen there.

AN OPEN ENEMY

Germany on America's Side

The leading German newspaper, the "Frankfurter Zeitung," has published an "open enemy" article. The article is a direct attack on the British interment camps. It states that the British are treating the German prisoners in a most inhuman manner. It also states that the British are using the German prisoners as a source of labor. The article is signed "An Open Enemy."

FOOD CONTROL IN ENGLAND

Ridiculed by German Press.

The German Press is accompanying the developments of food control in England with a stream of caustic ridicule. The "Frankfurter Zeitung," in particular, is attacking in its descriptions of England's "food control" the "deplorable plight and degrading conditions" of the English people. It states that the British are using the German prisoners as a source of labor. The article is signed "An Open Enemy."

MY OLD BOY

Out in a odd land,
 Weary am I;
 Oh, for the old land!
 Younger I cry
 Oh, for the old land!
 Why would I be Old boy, with long eyes
 Tender for me
 Old boy, my old boy,
 But you are the friend;
 Oh, how I need you,
 Oh, how I need you,
 Oh, how I miss you,
 Tears fall the rain,
 Longing to be with you,
 Just once again

OUR LONDON LETTER.

The National Service Movement.

WEAKNESS OF WHOLE SCHEME.

Military Situation Becoming Interesting.

FUTURE REGARDED WITH OPTIMISM.

[From Our Own Correspondent.]

London, March 11. It is useless to deny up to the present that the whole National Service movement has been that a popularly known as "The Bill." It deserves no further fate than to be written down as a failure, as it is dead most people think it has failed already.

What is first to be said of this work is, that it is unadvised, indeed by the Cabinet to have done so, but it is further regretted to have done so, as it is a very serious and un-constructive error. It is a pity that the Government should have done so, as it is a very serious and un-constructive error.

RODESIANS IN G. E. A.

Some Interesting Figures.

In view of the fact that the 2nd Rhodesia Regiment is shortly expected to return to Rhodesia on receipt of the 1st Battalion being transferred to another theatre of the war, a few particulars concerning the "Rhodesia Herald" are given.

The Regiment has now been on active service in German East Africa just over two years, having left Salisbury on March 31, 1915. The total strength of the 2nd Rhodesians at that time was 475, but the number has substantially increased later, a total of 500 men having been obtained.

Of the latter number 410 were from Rhodesia, 150 from the War, while the rest are posted up in German East Africa. This made the total strength of the Regiment 1,000 (exclusive of transfers, however, have reduced this number. A total of 97 were killed in action, more than double the number lost to be exact, being accounted for by the epidemic and so on. At least 200 men had been discharged, and had returned from Rhodesia East Africa, either as the result of injuries or sickness, and it is probable that the number has increased somewhat since that time.

Transfers. It having been necessary for reinforcements to be sent to the theatre, other regiments in the ranks which were transferred to the 2nd Rhodesians, the present number of the 2nd Rhodesians is about 750 and of the 2nd Rhodesians is about 400.

The honours have fallen to the Rhodesians, the awards comprising one Victoria Cross, two Military Crosses, and three Distinguished Conduct Medals, and three Barons of the Order.

It should be noted that the above details only refer to the 2nd Rhodesia Regiment, and do not include the King's African Rifles, the Rhodesia Mounted Rifles, the Rhodesia Light Infantry, or the Northern Rhodesia Columns.

The John Willoughby, in a letter from Mozambique dated 1916, says that the "Rhodesia Herald" writes as follows of the 2nd Rhodesians: "The 2nd Rhodesians are delighted to hear of the preparations that have been made for the Rhodesians when they get back to Rhodesia. When they do get back they ought to have a splendid reception. Nothing is too good for them; they have done so splendidly up here, and they have made no bad provision for any of Rhodesia. They have been a great example of what patriotism can do."
