So the German is in this position that he is a radical of the moment. He is a radical of the moment...

Sunlight Soap Service.

ABROAD, particularly in hot climates, it is often difficult to get the cleanliness—clothes as washed with greater freedom than is necessary in this country.

A purifying soap is essential, and when it saves time and effort you have the benefit of the transmission of service of Sunlight Soap.

Purity is the great essential. Cleaning your soap you cannot have fast cleanliness—fast to reason.
