DRINK THE BEST. GUINNESS'S BLACK & WHITE & RED SEAL.

English and Scotch teams. The visitors had the help of a strong wind during the opening half but failed to score notwithstanding. Facing the goal, says the English, he was certainly pleased and thought Dublin gave a fine display of goal-keeping. He was beaten after thirty-five minutes play so that England just lay to a goal to nil. The game was attended by the Glasgow County Cup matches whereas Queen's Park defeated Clyde (1-0) and Patrick Thistle got the better (3-1) of Thistle Lanark, visitors to the visitors in each case. Another big match was between Celtic and Motherwell for a local charity, the championship being Motherwell by five goals to one. As the result of the season's matches in connection with the Lanarkshire and Midland sections a sum of £50,480 has been taken of the gates. Of this £10,500 has gone to the Government in taxes, £2,246 in charities and £37,734 to League management.

GOLE
Four famous golfers took part in a charity golf venture at Helensburgh during the week-end. The first and J. H. Taylor met H. Vardon and J. Hay in a forenoon for the opening 18 and the first named party won by 7 and 5, they scores being out 58, home 14, a total of 47 for 18 holes. Vardon and Hay just turned the tables in the afternoon, being one up with 72 against 74. Anyone who plays golf can appreciate what these scores mean, and the overall score of 88 for 18 holes is really wonderful, even though it represents the best ball of four famous players. Better than 90 for 18 holes represents "score" golf, particularly to poor players who are pleased if they can return an average which is a little better than 100. The writer once had the pleasure of playing a game with Vardon, the champion adding half of his score to make it interesting. This is to say, his four strokes on 40 he had three if 10 so that he was called on to do three strokes as if as a four would only represent a half. This wonderful way the champion played was a revelation and it is well to come so near to a hundred and one. The writer once had the pleasure of playing a match with Vardon. If he ever made a mistake in the whole of the match.

STANDARD NOTES.
There will be a costume performance at the Theatre Royal at 4.15 this afternoon.

A REVIEW. BY OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT (EDGAR WALLACE)

LONDON, July 16. I propose in this article to lay out three separate heads with respect to the momentary situation in the German Empire...

It is also necessary to consider the view of the Provisional Government in the light of the German Empire...

The Provisional Government and the German Empire are all for vigorous prosecution of the war...

It is obvious that the recent election would not nullify the German Empire...

GERMAN MILITARY POSITION. The German military and political situation is rather complicated...

It is clear that the German Empire is in a position to continue the war...

BRITAIN'S BLOCKADE

German Ship Caught in North Sea.

SPLENDID WORK BY BRITISH AIRMEN

DASHING BOMB ATTACK

THE ADMIRALTY, LONDON, July 7. The Admiralty today reports the capture of a German merchant ship, the "Hansa," in the North Sea. The ship was carrying a large quantity of goods, and was bound for the coast of Germany. The British fleet, under the command of Admiral Jellicoe, intercepted the ship on July 6, and after a short chase, captured her. The ship was then taken to the port of Harwich, and the cargo was being examined.

regard to prohibition, there are no fresh developments. The "Class Cameron" is the only one that has not yet been removed. All the Colonial office interviews referred to in our last issue were held in London, and the impression was received that the Government was going to go back to the old system. Shall Racing Continue in Wartime?

MAKING CRICKET ATTRACTIVE

[From Our Own Correspondent.]

LONDON, May 17.

The stoppage of racing is still a topic of great interest among the followers of the turf, and it is not surprising that many of them are of opinion that the cessation of the racing season is not helping the cause of cricket by "killing the goose that lays the golden egg."
