THE TURK

Death of the 1910 and 1917 the Rocky Winner. The Turk has long been the best known runner through the death of Mr. A. W. Cox who raced most recently under the name of 'The Turk'. This gentleman made his 'pile' in Australia and brought up his home in England, turned his attention to the breeding of thoroughbreds with wonderful success. His greatest winners were 'Lambing', Bayardo, Gay Crusader, and 'Dear' which Bayardo's son Bayards gave success recently by upstaging the race.

The loss of Bayardo was a big blow to the late Mr. Cox who had refused a very tempting offer for the stallion. He, however, set his face resolutely against selling his crack to foreigner, the interest of English bloodstock coming before his pocket. Would that we had more breeders with the same sentiments.

It is understood that all the animals in training belonging to the late Mr. Cox will be disposed of and now that racing is again in full swing, there should be spirited bidding.

An Unjust Rule.

Through the death of Mr. A. W. Cox, the nomination of Maunder for several seasons becomes void. This should not upset the race. The standard weight of the two lowest classes and which is also retained for the Derby and the Epsom. In the death of the owner it is a good rule to allow him to retain a class which deprives a man of his property rather than the rule of it. This is a rule for the benefit of a gentleman who may own the winner of the two lowest classes and which is also retained for the Derby and the Epsom. "On account of recent newspaper articles and the many rumors circulating on the country concerning a proposed new one to be introduced by Mr. Henry Ford, we have thought it advisable to inform our customers generally in order that you may intelligently and uniformly answer all inquiries."
"In the first place, a large majority of the reports about a new one are not as manufactured, but are not in a position to be accepted as true. We know a few one accepted and quoted and marketed in quantities of over two or three years."

"There is nothing, however, to indicate that the present Ford one is at the present time, and every one of our dealers can give you a true picture as rapidly as any newspaper. We intend to continue the production of the reliable Model T as vigorously as in the past, and our entire sales organization is being improved upon prospective buyers dependability of high quality and our stock up by the entire strength of an organization already established."

"Our factory and assembly plant production is being pushed to the limit, with the thought in mind of 8,000 cars per week, and it is possible in order that the demand of prospective buyers might be met we are also taking important steps to extend our business abroad, especially in European countries pending peace."

"With above information, you should quickly offset any rumors which might tend to delay immediate sales."
(Sgd.) Henry B. Ford,
President,
Ford Motor Company.

DIVISION OF G. E. A. 25,000 BOK LIBEL. VICTORY... Congo re-Exchanged the Northcliffe Press... with Britain... basis of agreement... Lord Na'wion Wins... OVERSEA... (Thames Barrer's Agency; London, July 18. A Paris message states that a meeting of the Commission appointed to arrange for the division of enemy colonies and to draw up details for the mandate, the Belgian delegates, who included the Belgian Ambassador in Paris, announced the basis of the Anglo-Belgian agreement, which has as a starting point the division of German East Africa, of which Belgium claimed a part for military services there. Belgium agreed to hand over to Britain a rather large part of her old possessions in the Congo and in the neighbourhood of Lake Tanganyika in exchange for a 5/6 share in German East. This is regarded as mutually advantageous, as to the British it guarantees communication with the Cape, while the Belgians gain territories with seven million subjects, as against three million surrendered. The arrangement is subject to ratification by the Supreme Council.)

FRIDAY, JULY 26, 1910.

Many people are very fond of putting about the majority of the law, but it is a divided district in some quarters to imbibe with similar ideas. This is a useful period of the year when a careful perusal of the criminal code, in its various parts, is not only a pleasure but a necessity. It is a pleasure to see that at times it is allowed to run riot. It is a pleasure to see that at times it is allowed to run riot. It is a pleasure to see that at times it is allowed to run riot.

The native, properly handled, is an undoubted asset to the country, but this hesitancy to meet out necessary correction, and general "spare the rod and spoil the child" manner of doing things, can only be calculated to undermine any usefulness the native may possess.

Standard Notes.

Captain W. H. Holland has resigned the Presidency of the Ex-War Services Federation.

The Bakuli district of Uganda has been declared an unduged area under the Ordinance of 1912.

The imposition of fined cotton into Uganda from conquered territory is prohibited, except under special permit.

Mr. W. M. Carter has assumed duties as Deputy to the Governor, Uganda, during the latter's temporary absence.

Mr. Ugarte has passed through Kisumu on his way to Uganda; he states he has received satisfactory orders to the value of £27,000.

Mr. Gordon Hewitt, who has first crossed the lake, made the trip to Kisumu by motor from Mr. Elton, much to its credit.

The Debbs Cup match between K.A.B. and Caledonians, resulted, after a particularly fast game, in a win for the former by 2 goals to 1. Caledonians on the day's play, were unlucky. Full report will appear on the sports page on Monday.

The Assistant to the Chief Native Commissioner states that the latest reports from the Kory's Province are to the effect that rain has fallen in the Districts of Meru, Chuka and M'beche, which has improved the report as regards famine. KIPLING IN B.E.A.

(With apology to Rudyard Kipling) My son, if a friend should advise you to settle in East B.E.A. Oh beware, for the rate of exchange is all twenty-five sovereigns today. If, on a day, you are prone to procure, for a maiden, some coat, Demanded of the merchant his price ere you note was professed and unobscured; A kiss from the maid should be bought at a discount twenty per cent.

My son, if a wise man should bid of the scheme is not sound or not good, Demanded to know why, then wisdom in this—and you should.

Though they have spoken the word, can it not, even now, be unaided; All hope is not lost in the breast till the breath of the weather is sped; And the Chamber of Commerce report in Convention may yet be outread.

My son, am I, think, thy father, to sit by as I farm and grow, Because the ideas of the bankers an unhappy divergence have shown; When those that fall out by the wayside do not hound their own loss by their own!

It is well if the arid do not vie, in the press, with each other in praise; Seeking, the one to approve and applaud, and the other opposite and assail; 'Twere well if the scheme that is dealt were justly appraised.

Then, when some might give honour from those whom they themselves cherish, It is well if the arid do not vie, in the press, with each other in praise; Why do they not themselves—God, he alone, know.

My son, if you're reg'd by a wife, at the club take your ease; With a capital, or a gain, or a vermilion, you may be meeting again; But the club is no refuge, 'dies from those that are repudiated.

Then, who ever wearied with thought and head not 't's plain, then, 't's agents, when a child faintly chatters; They who seek judgment in thirren, my son, are the maddest of thirren.

My son, I shall come to pass that one shall sing; Mordantly of the deal come in such a thing; So, therefore, here this note, my son, they only speak who have the sense in them. It is simple, my son, to write some of your stanzas by ten and by ten; But you should know at you have
