A POINT IN EXCHANGE STORMY CAREER ENDED.

Mathematician Shows Mr. Ryle Death of Mr. J. T. Bain, the S.A. Labour Leader.

To The Editor, E.A. Standard

I am in complete sympathy with the opinion in the matter of the individual and artificial exchange rate, but it seems to me rather unwise to say that Mr. Ryle shows in his "example which is worth mass of argument" in today's E.A. Standard, under the name of "a dog in the manger" as he should tempt the unemployed. (The London Times in London today says, 19th, 1919, and was one of the porters.

During the strike of telegraphists in April last he was appointed Chairman of the Board of Control and ordered the restarting of the tram. He was again a signatory with the Ministers to the strike settlement.

He was very forceful in expression and had a life crowded with incident, and was always straight-forward.

A correspondent at the "Natal Witness" says: "Laborites throughout South Africa will bear with regret the death of Mr. J. T. Bain. Ever since I came to South Africa, his name has been familiar to me as one of the pioneers of the Labour movement in this country. I was first privileged to meet him at the conference in Johannesburg, shortly before Union, when the S.A. Labour Party was formed. The last time was when I spent a little brought him and his fellow delegates back to Durban.

Apart from his long and successful career in the Labour movement he had a life full of incidents which would read like a romance. He was one of the signatories to the "twenty years and old and the Great Crisis of Johannesburg"; and he was chairman of the "Bitter" which ran the battle those Christmas gifts came out an early wish, to inspect their wonderful show which opens on the 21st November 21.

In Kenya's Fairy Cane about Joy Woodson; and all around the midnight sun bath cast her magic. Bringing peace and joy to all who enter. So, therefore, to the Land of Shona. Forgetting past wrongs in a trice. Christmas here again with all its hopes and joys and its same youthful and gallant spirit; for what he believed to be the "right."

CHRISTMAS AT WHITEWAYS

Once again Christmas is upon us with all its joys and one's mind turns to the children in tropical Africa the real test of Christmas.

This year, as if by magic, the good fairy has provided for us all a remarkable Christmas in Nairobi, and in parts of the town a very severe winter will be experienced, so much so, not only will the snow be seen, but icebergs and snow and a grand representation of the Aurora Borealis. This sounds a brave prospect, but it is seen a true one, and we hope that all East Africa will prepare for an old-fashioned winter, which can only be realized by a visit to Heera White, Ladlaw and Co. Ltd., the Sixth Avenue Store, Nairobi.

There will be found endless attractions for young and old and the Great Crisis of Johannesburg; and he was chairman of the "Bitter" which ran the battle those Christmas gifts came out an early wish, to inspect their wonderful show which opens on the 21st November 21.

No finer tribute can be paid to his memory than to report the words used by Col. F. H. P. Conroy, the President of the S.A. Labour Party, in his famous address on the indemnity Bill when dealing with the "deportations." "He made for many occasions, but he was white as Bain, he would have been the same youthful and gallant spirit; for what he believed to be the "right."

BIRTH
KIRKEL—Wife of Mr. M. Kirkel, of a daughter, the 19th instant.

THE EAST
African Standard.
A weekly paper published in Nairobi.

FRIDAY, NOV. 21, 1919.

The method of collecting Customs duties in the Protectorate is being considered for the purpose of making it more efficient and to allow for the collection of duties on goods imported into the country from the coast. It is stated that the present system is not only inefficient but also costly. It is proposed to have a bill of Rs. 500 odd for godowns run, in addition to the Rs. 120 Customs duty on an article which had already paid duty on originally entering the Protectorate. These two amounts, together with other sundry charges, bring his bill up to nearly Rs. 600. Of course, an auditor for the Kenya Customs authorities has to be appointed to see that the bill is correct. It is also stated that the bill is being considered by the Nairobi committee, which has been set up to consider the matter. It is also stated that the bill is being considered by the Nairobi committee, which has been set up to consider the matter. It is also stated that the bill is being considered by the Nairobi committee, which has been set up to consider the matter.

CHESS NOTES
By the New Editor

PARKLANDS & THE REST

A specially contested match was played on Thursday November 20, in reply to the challenge of the district of Parklands to play all comers. The number of players was just about as large as was expected because "experience
teacher" and the promoters usually responsible for these matches know by now
the possibilities in regard to attendance.
At least double the number of those actually playing was listed, but one thing was always be confidently relied upon
that is the non-appearance of certain professedly enthusiastic players. Fortunately the game has now reached such a position in Nairobi that it can readily disappear with their services.

Although the outcome was necessarily somewhat lighthearted the outcome of the final move alone it to have been very good. It only took the one of our players with both games in another only one game was played and in all the others
the move alone in one case each.

These pleasant little chess evenings have been extremely successful, and the idea is made too good to let drop, and if we may be permitted to make a suggestion they should become a monthly feature.

The full score is as follows:

S.A. ELECTIONS

The result of a Johannesburg
Municipal elections is a decided victory for the Labour Party.
The only real defeat experienced by the party was in Veredop, where a Nationalist defeated Hester Muller, the champion of the poor whites.

Labour retiring Labour member defeated was Mr. Cately Holland, the successful candidate being a Nationalist. Major Melville D.S.O., who is a staunch Laborer of the old school. All his other returnal soldier candidates were defeated.

The biggest surprise was the Labour candidate who defeated Mr. F. W.
M. Daniels defeating the Independent Party candidate (Mr. Bomefield) by the vote of the Nationalist Party.
The position in the Council to day
is that Labour has 18 official representatives with the support on most points of four other members.
It is expected that the Labour Party will secure the situation in the future. Their members—probably Mr. Steer
—as Mayor, Mr. Steer has been Deputy Mayor for the past year and was elected Mayor for the year.

TAXES.

It is perhaps only natural that opinion on the question of taxation in this country should differ widely. At the same time, the various views on this subject are the outcome of a discussion which has been going on for some time. It is not possible to discuss the various forms of taxation which are being proposed in this country without referring to the various forms of taxation which are being proposed in other countries. WARRIORS.
BRANDED TEA.
London, October 15.
It is reported that after the war the world would settle down to its normal state of affairs. It is perhaps a little premature to say that all the troubles were not anticipated. It is, however, interesting to see how the world has adapted itself to the conditions which it is now living in. It is manifest to everyone who has followed the course of the war that the world would be better off if it were to revert to the conditions which prevailed before the war. It is, therefore, not surprising that the world is now turning its attention to the tea which it has been drinking since the war.

The tea leaves the garden all right, but does it reach you in the same condition? Has it lost its freshness, its delicate flavor and sweet aroma, in fact all the good drinking value by having been packed in Paper Bags or Cardboard containers, thus leaving the delicate little leaf to the mercy of a damp humid climate? You can avoid all these risks of buying the World's best tea packed in Airtight Tins.

Lipton's Tea in Tin Containers Ensure your getting what you pay for and what you are justly entitled to—a cup of the best tea.
OBTAINABLE FROM ALL SHOPKEEPERS

There is an opinion of those who are fully justified in thinking that the work of the world is not done in the same way as it was done in the past. It is, however, interesting to see how the world has adapted itself to the conditions which it is now living in. It is manifest to everyone who has followed the course of the war that the world would be better off if it were to revert to the conditions which prevailed before the war. It is, therefore, not surprising that the world is now turning its attention to the tea which it has been drinking since the war.

ILLNESS AND DESPAIR.
On Thursday morning, November 13, the unfortunate of Eldoret was started to hear of the tragic death of Mr. J. J. Engeltrecht. He had for some months been ill, and he was suffering from an incurable malady which had evidently closed on his mind. On the very day he had been invited to dine at a house where he had received several neighbors to dinner at which he seemed and appear to be unusually cheerful, although a stupor was in his manner was over noticeable. After dinner was over he turned to his wife and requested that she should serve the coffee. He must then have quickly and unexpectedly left the house, for soon after a shot was heard from the white plantation near at hand, and the guests seeking the cause of the shot discovered the lifeless body of Mr. Engeltrecht with his head partly blown away. It was found

On Thursday morning, November 13, the unfortunate of Eldoret was started to hear of the tragic death of Mr. J. J. Engeltrecht. He had for some months been ill, and he was suffering from an incurable malady which had evidently closed on his mind. On the very day he had been invited to dine at a house where he had received several neighbors to dinner at which he seemed and appear to be unusually cheerful, although a stupor was in his manner was over noticeable. After dinner was over he turned to his wife and requested that she should serve the coffee. He must then have quickly and unexpectedly left the house, for soon after a shot was heard from the white plantation near at hand, and the guests seeking the cause of the shot discovered the lifeless body of Mr. Engeltrecht with his head partly blown away. It was found

TUESDAY NOV 25, 1919

As we fully expected, the Government has taken reference to the Government's proposal for the extension of the Nairobi Political Association. While the Government is generally favourable to the proposal, it is to be hoped that the Government will be able to secure a transport service on the lines of the Carrier Car, and so render a very real assistance to the new movement. The Government's proposal is a whole subject, however, is the urgency. Numerous successful applications under the scheme have already arrived, and the bulk will be turning up as a distant date. Recourse to the Government in reference to the matter appears in the sub-section of the Political Association on this eleventh hour, it is to be hoped that the Government will be able to secure a transport service on the lines of the Carrier Car, and so render a very real assistance to the new movement.

STANDARD NOTES

Registration of native in No. 2 Town West Area, Nairobi, begins tomorrow. The Government has issued a notice to the effect that the Government will be able to secure a transport service on the lines of the Carrier Car, and so render a very real assistance to the new movement.
