OUR BOARDS.

Some Notes on Councils in East Africa.

THE TRIBES.

Our "K. Wagoner" has written a series of articles on the various tribes of East Africa...

They gradually pushed the Somali back from the coast, and took their place in the interior...

As the Somali grew in numbers they gradually pushed the Somali back from the coast, and took their place in the interior...

Broadly speaking, the Somali is made up of two main groups...

Those who come from Aden, Hafan, and Northern Somaliand.

Those who are from Jubaland. The Somali consist of five main tribes:

- 1. Rymal.
2. Isak.
3. Dalkhista.
4. Warganig.
5. Ogaden.

The tribes mentioned above are known as "Dareed," an Arabic word which is a sort of nickname...

The Isak and Dalkhista are hereditary enemies of the Somali...

DIFFICULTY IN DEALING WITH. In fact, one Section has already been formed...

Further they are less contentious, and are more ready to accept anything...

Should any one of the Councils of their tribes be elected either by direct or indirect election...

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

Four Up-country Members Design Their Seats.

NEW CONDITIONS.

The following letter has been addressed to a section of the Legislative Council...

"We are convinced that the economic situation of the Colony has brought about a change in the conditions of the Legislative Council...

office hereby being vacated whole or in part...

Each party possess some of the qualities of the other...

They acted as Interpreters in Courts, Brokers in Business Houses, and Headmen on Latites...

All Somalis are intelligent to a considerable greater degree than any other race...

And yet the same European would sneer at "Dareed," an Arabic word which is a sort of nickname...

At present there is rather a tension between the Somali and the Isak...

Mr. C. Wagoner has written a series of articles on the various tribes of East Africa...

They gradually pushed the Somali back from the coast, and took their place in the interior...

As the Somali grew in numbers they gradually pushed the Somali back from the coast, and took their place in the interior...

Broadly speaking, the Somali is made up of two main groups...

Those who come from Aden, Hafan, and Northern Somaliand.

Those who are from Jubaland. The Somali consist of five main tribes:

- 1. Rymal.
2. Isak.
3. Dalkhista.
4. Warganig.
5. Ogaden.

The tribes mentioned above are known as "Dareed," an Arabic word which is a sort of nickname...

The Isak and Dalkhista are hereditary enemies of the Somali...

LABOR WITHHELD
Most who are working quietly on the subject of lowering the cost of production of goods are of the opinion that the question is not one of the strike of workers and the amount of their wages, but is one of the general question of the Government to have maintained sufficient of the workers.
