Labour Exchanges.

Compulsory Insurance.

May 21.—In the House of Com-ons Mr. Churchill gave a sketch of the Labour Exchanges Bill which he will introduce to day. It estaishes an uniform national system of Exchanges with a central clearing house at an initial cost of £200,000 per annum. The Government conemplates next year the Association of the Exchanges with a system of compulsory insurance against unen ployment to which workers, emplo-yers and the State will contribute. May 22.-Mr. Churchill last night introduced the labour exchanges bill which was read a first time. Mr. Havelock Wilson, labour member,

Natives and Industry

The Uganda Government nore quickly realized the very lital mportance of teaching the Nave ow to work than our own Governnt but we may hope than when nce we take up industrial education eighbours. Spasmodic but local ttempts have been made to introtechnical education; Liwali Ali bin Salim, supported by brothes Arabs of substance, and assisted b Mr. Anderson of Mombasa, have pr orward a proposal to the Government in which they have suggested the advisability of utilizing the Government Tropical Farm at Ma-zeras as a training school for local zeras as a training school for local Mahommedans; a school at which youths can learn the work of plant-ing so that they may, when fully qualified, act as Headmen on the section of the population who

time ruling class who have a nappy knack of at least seeing that those under their charge to a fair day's work. This virtue coupled with a simple and elementary education in he three "r's" and a really practical knowledge of economic plants should entitle them to a good and at the same time teach them to be self-respecting. Bearing in mind the very small allowance the Govern-ment has made for teaching industrial labour the promoters of the proposal all the students expenses provided the Government will grant housing accomodation and a teacher. The proposal has already received the mpathetic consideration of the Hop, the Director of Agriculture and

Such a proposal, however, only ouches the fringe of the great ques-ion of the education of the Natives of this Colony. It merely deals with a small section of Arab or Swahiyouths those who are not destined be brought up as Mudirs, Liwalis or for similar positions and further owers from birth of an established When the Natives as a great po

vernment's firful decision

lered the Government is face to face with a problem which has not up to the present been even seriously thought about and certainly no sum of money has been set aside in the Estimates to carry out any scheme had one been prepared. Our Government is very well satisfied, or has been very well satisfied in the past, to leave the education of the Natives to Missionaries—some of whom have rightly grasped the fact that in endeavouring to teach Na-tives through the Bible only they have grievously failed and who are now eagerly calling upon the Gov-ernment to come to their assistance by providing them with the necessary help to teach their flock the value of industry, holding that a back-ground must be laid for the after eaching of the tenets of Christianity DEATH.

Others again are not so far seeing the property of the stage of the property of the pr Prances, second son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. process is daily becoming more clearly Cunningham of Entebbe, Uganda. Age evidenced in our Criminal Courts. Money spent, and freely spent, in teaching industrial labour to all the Natives that can be possibly got at s money well spent, indeed very well pent. It means a comparatively arge expenditure but one which will rield us in the near future a return which would even outweigh a deep water pier with all its attendant dvantages. In other parts of Africa it has been ound that the adoption of elementary education among raw native tribes is unsatisfactory. It is merely reating a very much greater burder or the Whiteman to carry than if they had been left alone in their previous ignorance: on the other hand in instances where the educa-tion of the tribes have been solely confined to manual instruction; to the learning of the arts of agriculture, carpentry, and black-smithing the Whiteman's burden has been reduced-even entirely lifted.

What will be the fate of the trifling sum of £1,000, which were inserted in the Estimates for 1909-10, it is difficult to conjecture. It may be that the Colonial Office will strike the sum out considering it was put in as a sop to quieten those who have a higher and a more far seeing vie of the duties devolving upon us than those who framed the Estimates, or they may strike it out as being too little to do any good and too Estates of Europeans at the Coast.

by Sir Alfred Jones at a recent neeting may have a salutary effect on the minds of our Rulers.

The Professor, himself a negro and rn a slave, in the course of his letter, writes :-

"What the negroes-need, whether in Africa or the United States, is to be made skilled workmen; productive, sensible, intelligent, economical workmen. Mere book training will not suffice, for everyone trained in merciy literary way wants to be a clerk or Government official. This is all right for few, but the Angio-Saxon race will just water time and increase trouble by making the negroes a race of educated clerks. Of course "it could not be done and it ought not to be "attempted. Make the negroes a race of work-"men-of farmers and mechanics, and then they can lay a proper foundation on which to base a healthy development to a higher civilsation. Such a course of procedure will make them self-reliant, productive, creative, sad socially and economically efficient and sital ducers of notion and other materials the can be utilised in English manufacto then the African can become seif-support ing. Self-support will lead to self-re and to a true and natural evolution higher state of civilisation and culture.

But to impart a higher culture to "dependent race, is simply to main still more dependent and parasitic."

COMMENTING on "contly upset the Official element of East Africa the British Medical Journal says." It is not often department—the Colonial Office, the War Office, or the Treasury, in which both are largely dependent—of erring on the side of generosity of liberality towards their em-ployes; but for rank cheesparing we can find nothing to equal a Colonial Office regulation recently promulgated which ruled that officials serving in British East Africa ware to be limited to be days at one time, and to twenty-night days in the year on the sick list from illness, after which periods such officials were to be placed on perious such officials were to be placed of half pay. We have it on very good authoric that when the regulation was ordered to be incorporated in the Provincial Gazettes i British East Africa, the commissioner of a British East-Africa, the commissioner of all least one province (lowing to its motorious unhealthiness) protested against the regula-tion, if he did not absolutely refuse to pro-mulgate it locally. THE BUDGET The Chancellor of the Excheque has delivered his Budget speech of four and a half hours duration, the Finance Bill has been introduced and is likely within the next thre months to pass with but little amendment or alteration, and Great Britain has at last fallen into th ands of the anti-capitalist.

The new taxes which are estimat to bring in the first year of their existence about £13,000,000, and i subsequent years a largely in easing sum attacking chiefly the apper middle class and the Capitalist.

Among the direct taxes are taxes a motor cars ranging from two guieas to forty guineas per car, accord ing to horse power. Small cars of under 6½ h. p. get off the lightest whilst cars over 60 h. p. are called upon for the forty guineas. The sum which the Chancellor hopes to raise the first year is about $800 000 of which £600,000 will go to Local Authorities and to a Central Road oard, to be spent on improving the qualities of roads generally and for the making of new roads. In the case where the money is spent or making new roads the Local Autho ities or the Imperial Government only the land necessary for the actual road but also land on both sides the Chancellor claiming that thus the Public will reap the benefit not only of the road but the enhanced value of the land in its immediate neighbourhood-enhanced in valu
