CORRESPONDENCE.

MUNICIPAL ECONOMIES
To His Honor "E. A. Standard."
Sir—In your report of last Tuesday's municipal meeting on the subject of engaging a typist at 100 per month, the Director of Education (chairman of the Municipal Finance Committee) who recommended this, in aid of the proposed suggestion of Council, that a European clerk be appointed for the same purpose, is too apparent. This selected junior staff of the Town Clerk, which in practice is composed of non-British Subjects, and who are expected to receive the same salary as those who (unfortunately) do not have to read or type a long set of papers in efficiency—the economical side is too apparent. One can sympathize with the Council supporting Councilor Orr, as blood is thicker than water—-even if cloaked under an economic cloak covering. The use of the discretionary power granted to the Town Clerk I have no doubt will be followed with this appointment.

Yours, etc.,
EFFICIENCY AND ECONOMY
Nairobi, April 18.

NATIVE LABOUR
To the Editor, "E. A. Standard."
Sir—The Bishop of Zanzibar in his letter of the 10th April expounds the views of the Bishop of Zanzibar, and his own views on the subject of native labour. He is of the opinion that the use of native labour is not only more economical, but also more efficient. He is of the opinion that the use of native labour is not only more economical, but also more efficient. He is of the opinion that the use of native labour is not only more economical, but also more efficient.

 Sir—Would you be so good as to have the attached balance sheet of the "Parisian Tea" sold at the Certified Cereals Railway Institute on April 8, in Dunn, Herby, Samsom, Honorary Institute of the Lady Northey Home given for children (Building Fund), inserted in your column.
 As will be seen a small profit of Rs. 1025-00 was made (which amount has already been placed to the Fund) and I would like to take this opportunity of thanking the following ladies and gentlemen, through whose epidemic efforts the dance was such a great success.
 Messrs. S. Jacobs Ltd., The New Stanley Hotel, Messrs. Herby, Ball and Dawson, The Crystal Springs Mineral Water Co., Messrs. J. A. Hunter and Co., Messieurs Gouling, Stevens, Webb, Wilson, Gillis, Sigth, Watson, Douglas and Lane, and Messrs. Cecil Davis, Fernal, Truitt, Campbell, Hooper, Green, and Mitchell.
 At the same time I must also thank the public for their generous support, the merchants of the town and the Press who gave me all the facilities I required and the most moderate charges, at the Lady MacMillan who so generously presented the orchestra for the night.
 Yours etc.,

LONDON MARKET

Business Practically at Standstill

LATEST PRICES

The following is the general trade report of Messrs. Robinson, Fleming and Co., London, E.C. 5, dated March 25, 1921.

On the whole our produce market is not so good as it was some weeks ago, but there has been a little improvement since the beginning of the week.

Wool. The 1 tendency for the raw material is all in a spin downwards and manufacturing end of the trade still shows a further extension.

Coffee. The market is somewhat irregular, but not so bad as it was some weeks ago. The price of the best Java is 100/- to 105/-.

Flax. The flax trade shows a slightly better tone than it was some weeks ago. The price of the best flax is 100/- to 105/-.

Cotton Seed. The cotton seed market is not so good as it was some weeks ago. The price of the best cotton seed is 100/- to 105/-.

Market Report. The market for these is dull and quiet, and throughout the week we are scarcely to be found.

Patent Cops. The market for these is dull and quiet, and throughout the week we are scarcely to be found.
